Approach and Talk to a Girl - J. Covey 2019-09-24

Nervous to Approach and Talk to Women 1-on-1? Wipe Your Tears - The Final Solution is Here... [Currently, buy the Paperback and get the Kindle eBook included for free. Soon, it won't be free] If anyone had told me I'd be amazing and confident in getting women some years ago, I wouldn't believe. I have been through what you're going through. I was scared to approach and talk to the women I liked. After so much frustration, I decided enough was enough-just the same way you have finally decided and ended up here, which is the best place to discover all the things dating gurus will never tell you about approaching beautiful women the right way. In Chapter 1, WWWWW, we gave a list of words that'll appear as we learn the craft of approaching a woman. We discussed the only two types of ways to woo her which are ID (In-Direct opener) and DO (Direct Opener), and how they're applied with examples. We looked into nervousness. We looked into the Five WWWWWs of starting a conversation with a woman which are: Where, When, Why, What, & Which. And we finally added extra examples of DO and ID. In Chapter 2, Operation Rejection, shortened as ORej. We talked on approaching women while having rejection as your most important outcome. If you're not rejected, it's a failure. Being rejected is a success. We looked into 7 different "How Tos" which are: how to woo a seated girl (in any settings); how to woo in class, school, gym centers, gatherings, events and parties; how to woo at the workplace or in an office; how to woo a girl who makes you nervous; how to woo a stubborn girl; how to woo a girl at the market or mall, and how to woo a girl on the queue (any queue) with some examples for each. In Chapter 3, ON/OFF, we discussed how Push and Pull (PP) works with some examples. We talked on the types of push and pull. We also looked into things you'll have or be that'll make you never to be nervous around girls. We gave an example on building rapport with Sad Anchor and other explanations. In Chapter 4, look inside to see what it's all about. In Chapter 5, Accidental Accusation, we talked on how to accuse a girl to start a conversation. This technique gets a woman hooked with curiosity. We looked into psychological compliments and humor with some examples of how they work. We briefly discussed how to treat a woman and how to book a date. I told some personal stories and gave some examples. We also discussed one of the keys to dating. We talked about flaking and how to handle women's insult and convert them to compliments. In Chapter 6, Legends' Magic. This is one of the most important chapters, because we gave some brief explanations on other things and finally looked into the magic formula to come up with your personal conversations. We discussed the mighty EARTH formulas. The three types and gave an example of each. We have iEarth, EARTH, and EARTHics. In Chapter 7, Kidding, we gave a list of childish and stupid pick-up lines which will not make sense to men, but women will laugh when they hear some of them. We gave an example on iSHY wooing/chatting technique. In Chapter 8, Mindset. We talked on how you should not start a conversation from the beginning, but always from the middle. We talked on how to woo a lady you haven't seen before. We equally discussed how to use arrogance and humor to woo a lady. We discussed a good-bad boy and a typical bad boy and much more. Finally, we revealed something that'll FOREVER change your life in the dating game and stay ahead of other men with picture illustrations. A secret you can't find anywhere online or offline. Girl Talk - Jacqueline Mroz 2018-11-13

A veteran science reporter's investigation into the fascinating and distinctive nature of women's friendships In Girl Talk, New York Times science reporter Jacqueline Mroz takes on the science of female friendship -- a phenomenon that's as culturally powerful as it is individually mysterious. She examines friendship from a range of angles, from the historical to the experiential, with a scientific analysis that reveals new truths about what leads us to connect and build alliances, and then "break up" when a friendship no longer serves us. Mroz takes a new look at how friendship has evolved throughout history, showing how friends tend to share more genetic commonalities than strangers, and that the more friends we have, the more empathy and pleasure chemicals are present in our brains. Scientists have also reported that friendship directly influences health and longevity; women with solid, supportive friendships experience fewer "fight or flight" impulses and stronger heart function, and women without friendships tend to develop medical challenges on par with those associated with smoking and excessive body weight. With intimate reporting and insightful analysis, Mroz reveals new awareness about the impact of women's friendships, and how they shape our culture at large.

Girl Talk - Julianna Baggott 2001-04-05

Lissy Jablonski was fifteen during the summer of 1985. That was the summer her father, a soft-spoken, seemingly passionless gynecologist, up and left her mother for a redheaded bank teller. The same summer Lissy and her mother disappeared from their quiet New Hampshire lives to have an adventure of their own amid a cast of unlikely characters, including a Valium-addicted ex-debutante and a suspected mobster. The summer the reliably comforting "girl talks" with her mother began to reveal startling secrets. It was also the summer that Lissy's mother would ever after refer to as "the summer that never happened." Now an almost-thirty-years-old advertising executive in Manhattan, faced with her father's imminent death and newly pregnant by her married ex-lover, an unmoored Lissy finds herself looking back across the years.

Contending with her affections for an old boyfriend and his doomed marriage to a Korean stripper named Kitty Hawk, as well as the tangible legacies of that unmentionable summer with her mother, she realizes that she has become more like her mother than she ever could have imagined. In her debut novel, acclaimed short-story writer and poet Julianna Baggott has woven a precise, smartly comic, and compassionate tale of discovery and desire. With a lyrical sensibility, Baggott reminds us -- through the witty and unsparingly realistic voice of her narrator, Lissy -- of the pleasures and sorrows that can come from the most unreasonable realities of the heart.
