Breaking Down Barriers Pat Langdon 2018-02-19 The Cambridge Workshops on Universal Access and Assistive Technology (CWUAAT) is one of the few gatherings where people interested in inclusive design, across different fields, including designers, computer scientists, engineers, architects, ergonomists, ethnographers, policymakers and user communities, meet, discuss, and collaborate. CWUAAT has also become an international workshop, representing diverse cultures including Portugal, Germany, Trinidad and Tobago, Canada, Australia, China, Norway, USA, Belgium, UK, and many more. The workshop has five main themes based on barriers identified in the developing field of design for inclusion: I Breaking Down Barriers between Disciplines II Breaking Down Barriers between Users, Designers and Developers III Removing Barriers to Usability, Accessibility and Inclusive Design IV Breaking Down Barriers between People with Impairments and Those without V Breaking Down Barriers between Research and Policy-making In the context of developing demographic changes leading to greater numbers of older people and people living with impairments, the general field of inclusive design research strives to relate the capabilities of the population to the design of products, services, and spaces. CWUAAT has always had a successful multidisciplinary focus, but if genuine transdisciplinary fields are to evolve from this, the final barriers to integrated research must be identified and characterised. Only then will benefits be realised in an inclusive society. Barriers do not arise from impairments themselves, but instead, are erected by humans, who often have not considered a greater variation in sensory, cognitive and physical user capabilities. Barriers are not only technical or architectural, but they also exist between different communities of professionals. Our continual goal with the CWUAAT workshop series is to break down barriers in technical, physical, and architectural design, as well as barriers between different professional communities.

The Amulet of Salatonia Carol L. Caudle 2019-09-08 Tarian Tarbell-Udonis, born to a single mother in a shanty village of Sala, outside of the Realm of Salatonia. At the age of five his mother died. Being assigned a maid in secrecy, who mysteriously disappeared, Tarian was left to survive on his own. Sitting on a curb was a boy dingy, sad, and withdrawn. The King took pity, taking him back to the Castle. It was now the duty of the King to keep the truth from everyone! a dark secret! Tarian was never satisfied, always wanting more with each passing day. He craved to know the truth about the stories of the Amulet of Salatonia. The very charm that would divide the family, bringing them to encounter death, fueled hatred, betrayal and misery. With each glance at the Amulet, Tarian had to have it. He couldn't resist its calling. Its mythical wonder drew him closer until Tarian couldn't restrain himself any longer. He had stolen the Amulet. Travel with Tarian, and engage yourself with the many mythical creatures in hopes that Tarian reaches his destiny.

Firestick William W. Johnstone 2020-06-30 Johnstone Justice. What America Needs Now. In this exciting new series, bestselling authors William W. Johnstone and J.A. Johnstone pay homage to America's trail-hardened backwoodsmen who, like a fine grain whiskey, only get better with age . . . REAL MEN DON'T RIDE INTO THE SUNSET In his mountain-man days, Elwood "Firestick" McQueen was practically a living legend. His hunting, tracking, and trapping skills were known far and wide. But it was his deadly accuracy with a rifle that earned him the Indian name "Firestick." His two best buddies are Malachi "Beartooth" Skinner—whose knife was as fatal as a grizzly's chompers—and Jim "Moosejaw" Hendricks, who once wielded the jawbone of a moose to crush his enemies in the heat of battle. Of course, things are different nowadays. The trio have finally settled down, running a horse ranch in West Texas—and spending quality time with their lady friends. But if you think these old boys are ready for lives of leisure, think again . . . Firestick is the town marshal. Beartooth and Moosejaw are his deputies. And when a hired gunman shows up with bullets blazing, these three hard-cases are ready to prove they aren't getting older. They're getting deadlier . . . Live Free.
