Loving Bravely Alexandra H. Solomon 2017-02-02 As seen on The TODAY Show! "A godsend to anyone searching for, but struggling to find, true love in their lives." —Kristin Neff, PhD, author of Self-Compassion "Empowering and compassionate, and its lessons are universal." —Publishers Weekly Real love starts with you. In order to attract a life partner and build a healthy intimate relationship, you must first become a good partner to yourself. This book offers twenty invaluable lessons that will help you explore and commit to your own emotional and psychological well-being so you can be ready, resilient, and confident in love. Many of us enter into romantic relationships full of expectation and hope, only to be sorely disappointed by the realization that the partner we've selected is a flawed human being with their own neuroses, history, and desires. Most relationships end because one or both people haven't done the internal work necessary to develop self-awareness and take responsibility for their own experiences. We've all heard "You can't love anyone unless you love yourself," but amid life's distractions and the myth of perfect, romantic love, how exactly do you do that? In Loving Bravely, psychologist, professor and relationship expert Alexandra H. Solomon introduces the idea of relational self-awareness, encouraging you to explore your personal history to gain an understanding of your own relational patterns, as well as your strengths and weaknesses in relationships. By doing so, you'll learn what relationships actually require, beyond the fairytale notions of romance. And by maintaining a steady but gentle focus on yourself, you'll build the best possible foundation for making a loving connection. By understanding your past relationship experiences, cultivating a strong sense of self-awareness, and determining what it is you really want in a romantic partner—you'll be ready to find the healthy, lasting love your heart desires.

The Happiness Workbook Ron Metzger 2011-08-01 "Everyone wants happiness in life." The Happiness Workbook is an insightful and engaging guide to help search for the most fundamental questions that plague all of us: Can I be happy? Will I get my perfect job? Will I find the love of my life? With a pen and paper you will be able to follow the priceless self-exploratory steps outlined in the workbook to discover the keys to happiness in your own life. Trotting through life without giving much thought as to our goals and what makes us happy, this guide shows us just what we need to plot a steady course to happiness. In the journey for these answers the Happiness Workbook will first guide you to discover: What Are You Looking For? and Where Did You Go Wrong? Next it will help to determine your needs versus your wants and pass your own self-assessment. Through this self-discovery process you will learn that life is a teacher, that "F" is for Feedback, Not Failure and that ideas are tools. "The biggest lesson you will learn through this book is that the ideas you have are merely tools to guide you in everything that you do. If you don't use them, they are wasted. For example, if you need to pound a nail into a piece of wood, your first idea is to buy a hammer. It seems obvious as an example, but it is a good idea. However, if you don't use the hammer to pound in that nail, what was the sense in expending your energy and expense in its purchase?" Full of similar clever analogies that are used to compare events in your own life Metzger guides you to a higher level of happy thought and existence, maintained vivid in your mind through these analogies. From your business life, your social life, your personal relationships and your own well-being, the castle you will construct is in effect your future.

The Inner Connection Darlene Dawn 2015-10-21 Are you searching for your Higher Power? Do you embrace spiritual ideals that are difficult to attain or maintain? If so, this book is for you! After over twenty-five years in recovery, Darlene Dawn understands what it takes to build a new life after addiction. Dawn is neither a guru nor an expert, but as someone who understands the necessity of maintaining your spiritual condition, she has decided to share her story. With help, she rose up from the depths of active addiction to ascend to the heights of her new life in recovery. She's doing it, and so can you. Dawn details the mental and emotional shifts she experienced following a spontaneous out-of-body experience (OBE) when she was nine years clean and sober. Her OBE provided the impetus for spiritual and metaphysical study, the practical application of which is outlined in this book. Inspired by A Course in Miracles, Dawn developed a friendship with an intuitive who communicated with a nonphysical being of Light. During these life-changing sessions, Dawn acted as record keeper as this thought-provoking, nonphysical teacher radiated a powerful, loving energy and answered questions that enhanced Dawn's spiritual understanding. The Inner Connection is written as a guide to help you find your own answers; it is not meant to be the source of them. The author's personal experience, combined with lessons from a being of Light, makes The Inner Connection a primer for anyone who wishes to develop emotional freedom through spiritual growth. From India with Love Latika Bourke 2015-05-01 Latika Bourke was adopted from India, aged eight months. Growing up in Bathurst, New South Wales she felt a deep connection to her Australian home and her Australian family. It wasn't until she heard her name uttered in the hit movie Slumdog Millionaire that Latika recognised she knew nothing of her Indian roots, the world she was born into and what she could have become had she not been brought to Australia as a baby. As Latika carved out a successful career for herself as an award-winning political journalist, she became more and more curious about her heritage and what it meant to be born in India and raised in Australia. And so began a deeply personal and sometimes confronting journey back to her birthplace to unravel the mysteries of her heritage. From India with Love is a beautiful story of finding your place in the world and finding peace with the path that led you there.

Finding Faith Brian D. McLaren 2000-06-27 Is there a God? - What might God be like? - What is the relationship between faith and certainty? - Can intelligent people believe in spiritual realities? - Why are there so many religions? - Is it possible to experience a relationship with God--and if so, how? If you've asked questions like these, you're in good company. From songwriters such as Bob Dylan and Jewel Kilcher to TV shows such as The X Files and Touched by an Angel, the media and the arts reflect postmodern men and women's search for a living faith and a spiritually oriented life. Real faith isn't blind believism. It is a process that engages your intellect as well as your emotions. If you think faith requires turning your back on truth and intellectual honesty, then Finding Faith is one book you really ought to read. With logic, passion, and even-handedness that the thinking person will appreciate, this book helps you face your obstacles to faith by focusing not on what to believe, but on how to believe. Whether you want to strengthen the faith you have, renew the faith you lost, or discover faith for the first time, Finding Faith can coach, inspire, encourage, and guide you, and help you discover more in life than you'd ever imagined or hoped for.
