No More Being Abused, I'm Taking My Life Back - Ms. Survivor 2017-11-20

Domestic Violence is a serious issue when dealing with the hands of your abuser. Domestic Violence is a violent or aggressive behavior within the home, church or workplace, typically involving the violent abuse of a spouse or partner. Domestic Violence is also willful intimidation, physical assault, battery, sexual assault, and/ or other abusive behavior as part of a systematic pattern of power and control perpetrated by one intimate partner against another. I was in an abusive relationship with my abuser for a long period of time. I suffer a lot pain and heartache in the hands of my abuser. He had me brainwashed. He can cheat on me with whomever he wanted too, but I dare not question him why. My abuser told me, "I better not tell anyone and if you do I'll kill you" Now that stuck with me for a long time. I never told anyone of what he had did to me. I knew I had to fight back in order for me to get away from him. None of that worked out for me. He always said the right words to win me back. Yes, I loved him and I didn't want to see him in jail. I kept everything a secret from my family. I pray that if you are in an abusive relationship to get out and seek help. Yes, he may tell you that he won't do it again but is it worth losing your LIFE? He's going to tell you all the good words you love to hear, but is your heart worth losing a BEAT? Don't be afraid to seek help. It's up to you to get the help. If you know someone you can trust, please tell them. Always keep a journal of what is going on between you and your abuser. I AM A SURVIVOR of DOMESTIC VIOLENCE. I survive the hands of my abuser. To all women's around the world who is going through an abusive relationship, there is joy on the other side. God will be there in the midst of your storm. May God bless

Emotional Abuse - Merle Thaler 2021-04-05

Domestic abuse against men can take the form of physical violence, emotional, verbal, or sexual abuse. Whatever your circumstances, though, you can find help and break free from an abusive relationship. An abusive partner may hit, kick, bite, punch, spit, throw things, or destroy your possessions. To make up for any difference in strength, they may attack you while you're asleep or otherwise catch you by surprise. They may also use a weapon, such as a gun or knife, or strike you with an object, abuse or threaten your children, or harm your pets. If you're a man in an abusive relationship, it's important to know that you're not alone. Abuse of men happens far more often than you might expect--in both heterosexual and same sex relationships. It happens to men from all cultures and all walks of life, regardless of age or occupation. Figures suggest that as many as one in three victims of domestic violence are male. However, men are often reluctant to report abuse because they feel embarrassed, fear they won't be believed, or are scared that their partner will take revenge.
