Women and Marriage in India - P. Thomas
2023-07-05

Women in the thralldom of man has led sometimes, in one form or another, to the most horrible abuses. In this book, originally published in 1939, the author traces and analyses the institutions of marriage and family in India. The women of India, after their ancient matriarchal supremacy, declined into medieval degradation and slavery, brought about by subtle and prolonged subjugation by men through the instrumentality of legal restraints, supposed religious grounds, the Purdah, child-marriage and widow-burning. These iniquities were practised under the sanctified excuse of matrimony. The author points out, in this objective sociological study, practical methods of emancipation of Indian women, and urges the necessity for a radical change of values which would give the greater impetus to these vitally necessary reforms. The book is of especial interest as a sociological study of a curious and cruel form of organized inhumanity. Today it can be read and enjoyed in its historical context. This book is a re-issue originally published in 1939. The language used and views portrayed are a reflection of its era and no offence is meant by the Publishers to any reader by this re-publication.

"We Must Be Up and Doing" - Teresa C.

Zackodnik 2010-03-11

African American women have been "up and doing" for their communities for as long as they have been in the United States, and their ability to resist the institution of slavery was central to the survival of African Americans. This anthology gives readers access to African American feminist thought in its foundational period by drawing together key documents from the late 1820s through the 1920s. Going beyond a focus on the "greats" of black feminism to include lesser known figures, "We Must Be Up and Doing" offers a broad and contextualized look at the critical mass early black feminism achieved by including a variety of genres, such as the spiritual autobiography, the platform speech, periodical articles, pamphlets, fiction, and excerpts from convention and conference proceedings.

The Joy of Text - Kristina Grish 2010-05-11

Finally, the software gods have rescued us from our stalled, confused love lives by giving us so many new ways to meet, connect, and share what we want, feel, and mean. Or have they? Dating has never been simple, but in an age of IMs, text messages, e-mails, and BlackBerry notes, it can be an absolute minefield. How can you accurately judge a guy's potential when all you have to go on is his punctuation? What's the best way to maintain your witty, sassy rapport once you've decided to leave the safety of techno-anonymity and take your relationship off-line? When do you remedy a techno-gaffe or know if it's too early to hit send? And how can you gauge his feelings without seeing his body language or even hearing his voice? Enough is enough. In The Joy of Text, real-life cyber-Cyrano Kristina Grish establishes hard and fast rules to help modern women navigate their love lives via technology; offers invaluable tips on how to analyze text, timing, and tone; and provides advice on etiquette in an age when the handwritten thank-you note is all but obsolete.

Pacific Island Women and Contested

Sporting Spaces - Yoko Kanemasu 2023-06-26

This book focuses on the variety of strategies developed by women athletes in the Pacific Islands to claim contested sporting spaces - in particular, rugby union, soccer, beach volleyball, recreational sports and exercise - as a prism to explore grassroots women's engagement with heavily entrenched postcolonial (hetero)patriarchy. Based on primary research conducted in Fiji, Samoa, Solomon Islands, and Vanuatu, the book investigates contested sporting spaces as sites of infrapolitics intersected primarily by gender and also by other markers of inequality, including ethnicity, sexuality, class and geopolitics. Contrary to historical and contemporary representations of Pacific Island women as victims of gender injustice, it explores how these athletes and those who support them actively carve out space for their transformative agency. Pacific Island Women and Contested Sporting Spaces: Staking Their Claim focuses on a region underexamined by sport or gender studies researchers and will be of key interest to scholars and students in Gender Studies, Sport Studies, Sociology and Pacific Studies as well as sport practitioners and policymakers.

Roca Springs Sweet Romance - Amy Sparling
2021-03-30

The Roca Springs Romance series is a collection of heart-warming, page-turning full-length romances that all feature a strong love story and a happy ending. This book includes all three books from the series: Book 1: Flirting with the Personal Trainer Dani Clarke has never been a beauty queen. She's been overweight her whole life and she's sick of it. She didn't graduate college and get a great job just to still be miserable and single. She needs to do something. She just doesn't know what. Brent Castro's dreams of being his own boss have finally come true. With his two best friends, he owns Roca Springs Fitness, the luxury gym his clients love. But the success isn't bringing him happiness. He's lonely. He wants a girl that's all his, not just some random fangirl comments on his fitness Instagram. When his co-owner gives out free memberships, Dani decides to risk utter humiliation and join up at the gym. She thinks Brent is way out of her league, but he falls for her the second he sees her and offers free personal training just so he can get close to her. Dani thinks training with this hot guy will give her the body she wants, but what she doesn't realize is there's already someone who likes her just as she is. And he's right in front of her. Book 2: Flirting with the Boss Tasha Bryan is way too young to take on raising her sixteen year old niece, but she's doing it anyway. With no other family to support her, she's working long hours and barely scraping by. She doesn't have time for friends or relationships until she gets back on their feet. For now, all she wants is another job, and a part time gig at a gym fits perfectly with her schedule. Noah Hunter is a perfectionist. Owning and operating a local gym was his dream, and he loves his job but it's time to bring on some help. There hasn't been room in his life for a woman, but when he meets Tasha, suddenly his priorities change. She's the happiest part of his day, and he wants nothing more than to win her over. Tasha has been down this road before--trusting a handsome man and then getting her heart broken. She's not sure she wants to risk it again. There is too much at stake if she dates her boss. But flirting with him is starting to be the best part of her day. And once some lines are crossed, it's impossible to go back. Book 3: Flirting with the Bad Boy Lanie plays by the rules. Working at the family business has her constantly under the watchful eyes of her three older brothers. If she breaks any rules, they'll know about it. And if she dates someone they don't approve of? Well, they won't allow it. Now that she's out of college, Lanie is tired of being treated like a kid. She decides to find a broody, bad influence and bring him home to the family.
