My Special Angel Doris Barnes Brown 2019-11-26 "My Special Angel, Miss Beverly Ann Brown," is a story celebrating the life of a person who was born in 1962 and diagnosed at birth as a "Mongoloid," later known as Down's syndrome. At that time many "mentally retarded" persons as they were referred to, were institutionalized at birth or kept at home as "closet children." Because they were believed to be unteachable, there were no schools or vocational workshops to even try to teach them. Change was coming and I believe that God's purpose for Beverly on earth was to be a part of that change of the attitude toward and the mistreatment and neglect of the mentally challenged. Even at a young age, Beverly was a blessing spreading God's love with her hugs to everyone she met. Through her experiences on her life's journey and her desire for independence, this red-haired, energetic, beautiful lady was instrumental in helping to pave the way for other mentally challenged persons. At age fifty-five, when Beverly had fulfilled her mission and purpose on earth, God called her home.

To Love, Honor, and Vacuum Sheila Wray Gregoire 2014 "Sheila speaks to both the heart and habits of the woman who is wife and mother. The lessons in this book are biblical, doable, and affordable!"--Margaret B. Buchanan From advertisements to mommy blogs to Pinterest, scenes of domestic bliss abound, painting a picture of perfection and expectation nearly impossible to live up to. Why can't you work a full-time job, stylishly clothe yourself and your children, plan a party for twelve with handmade decorations, keep your house sparkling clean without chemicals, and bake a gourmet meal in the same day? Everyone else is doing it! For many women, housework has become more than chores that need to be done; it is a symbol of identity. Sheila Wray Gregoire wants to stop that thinking in its tracks and help women back to a life of balance--for their sakes and for their families. She encourages women to shift their focus from housekeeping to relationships and shows them how to foster responsibility and respect in all family members. The second edition retains the helpful, concrete advice on everyday situations such as strategies for tackling chores and budgets and tips on effective communication, while incorporating the wisdom Sheila has gained through her interaction with thousands of readers of her blog and through her speaking ministry over the past ten years. Through the principles in To Love, Honor, and Vacuum, Gregoire promises readers they can grow and thrive in the midst of their hectic lives--even if their circumstances stay the same.

Fire, Water, and Rock Alaina Erdell 2022-12-13 A hot summer fling or true love? When budding geologist Jessica Sterling arrives to work on her thesis while camping in Washington's Dry Falls State Park for the summer, she shatters park ranger Clare DeVere's hope for an uneventful season. Neither can deny their unexpected attraction, but their secrets make romance impossible. Clare's best friend since college, Lyn, works as one of the park's dispatchers, and her long-standing and unrequited crush on Clare grows increasingly obsessive as Clare draws closer to Jess. While Clare contends with Lyn's infatuation and unwanted advances from her womanizing boss, and Jess grapples with her unexpected feelings for a woman, their fiery fling challenges them to confront their pasts.

CHANGING WORLDS M. Evangeline Anderson 2004-07-15 Between July 1999 and June 2000, 173,210 immigrants arrived in Canada, including 6,196 Caribbean nationals. Most settled in Toronto, enhancing its burgeoning multiculturalism; but Evangeline's family chose Ottawa instead - a city known as the coldest posting a Jamaican diplomat could receive. Evangeline discovers more about Canada the hard way. Although from 1994 to 2001 the United Nations declared Canada the best country of abode, Evangeline confirms that there are at least two sides to this, as to every other story. Minority status and its unfamiliar problems, subtle pressures to conform to new molds, unemployment and family reunification hurdles dog the resettling experience. However, active faith and steadfast purpose bring triumph in each circumstance. Jamaica, never far from Evangeline's heart, becomes a target for prayer as well as a destination for family visits and "snowbird" escapes. As recipient of Jamaica's 1992 Governor General's Award for the parish of St. Andrew, Evangeline remains patriotic. She continues to support the community outreach projects of Christian Life Fellowship in Jamaica, and the work of the Jamaica House of Prayer.

Excited Light Lynn Voedisch 2006-12 Ten-year-old Alex Griffin has plenty of secrets. At night, from his third-floor bedroom in a drafty Victorian mansion, Alex surveys the world and dreams about how life would be if he weren't taking care of his single, alcoholic mom, Allegra Bellini. He confides his secrets to his beat-up toy duck, Dudley. Dudley answers him. Excited Light is a tale of magic and second chances. Young Alex, guided by Dudley and the mysterious entities who visit him, endures his mother's drinking, waiting for a time when she can hear her own spiritual guides. Impulsive Allegra rushes into a reckless romance with Raf Neri, the managing editor of the local newspaper. Neri sweeps her away on a wild ride of nightclubbing, sex, and promises. Then, Neri goes a step too far, taking Allegra to the brink of death. It's up to Alex to save his mother. Guided by Dudley and his angels, he attempts to work a miracle to set his mother free from her addiction.

The Shadow Self in Film Gershon Reiter 2014-01-23 This book examines 13 movies that deal with the protagonist and his projected "other." The cinematic Other is interpreted as an unconscious personality, a denied part of the protagonist that appears in his life as a shadowy menace who won't go away. Devoting a chapter to each movie, the book starts with Mamoulian's Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde and three cinematic pairs: two Hitchcock films, Shadow of a Doubt and Strangers on a Train; two versions of Cape Fear, J. Lee Thompson's 1962 original and Martin Scorsese's 1991 remake; and a pair of Clint Eastwood films, In the Line of Fire and Blood Work. The book then examines Something Wild, Sea of Love, Fight Club, Desperately Seeking Susan, Apocalypse Now and The Lives of Others. Overall the book aims to show how movies envision the unconscious Other we all too often project on other people.

Immortal Billionaire Rooms 2021-10-09 "Wearing a skirt so short, Ms Katz... is not allowed in my building," he said with sternness in his tone. "But sir- I've spilt coff...." her respective voice was interrupted by the arrogant boss, "Whatever the reason is, Ms Katz. Go home and change the dress then come back to work." with that he focused his attention at his laptop. She, with a clenched jaw, turned to leave his cabin when his deep voice lingered in her ear saying, "Oh and you will work extra hours today." "But sir-...." there was no way in hell he was letting her complete the sentence when he again interrupted her, "You're wasting time, Ms Katz. The extra hours are for the time I'm giving you to go to your apartment and change your dress." Darby Rothschilds had everything he's ever wanted. He has every reason to be the arrogant man that he is. But he has some secrets... secrets which are meant to be carried to graves only. Alexandra Katz, a young girl who just finished highschool and in desperate need of a job. What if she finally got a job in a multinational firm named as Rothschilds Corporations and became the secretary of the very own Darby. There was something about her... Alexandra... if only he could know that she was the cure of his cursed life.

Grandma's Excited to Write a Book! Ann Githere 2019-10-03 Writing a book is an exciting project especially when the topic is so close to home. My life story, how exciting can that be? I found it very appealing. But was there something about my story that would appeal to anyone else? Born a twin in Honolulu, Hawaii, just before the bombing of Pearl Harbor, I experienced a truly loving family. My dad and mom, John, and Ella Mendiola loved each other, and it rubbed off on all of us. We all went to Catholic schools, and Star of the Sea became the focal point of our lives. The Marist Fathers and the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur were part of our family. So it was that I became a Sister of Notre Dame, went off to serve God in California and back in Hawaii, and finally, across the world at the equator in Kenya. Then the whole world changed again for me. I exchanged the nun's veil for the bride's veil! God had decided to reward me for my twenty years of faithful service. He gave me Gilbert Gicaru Githere. And I said, "Thank You, God. Mahalo nui loa."

A Lacey Doyle Cozy Mystery Bundle: Murder in the Manor (#1), Death and a Dog (#2), and Crime in the Café (#3) Fiona Grace 2020-07-09 A bundle of books #1 (MURDER IN THE MANOR), #2 (DEATH AND A DOG), and #3 (CRIME IN THE CAFÉ) in Fiona Grace's Lacey Doyle cozy mystery series. This bundle offers books one, two, and three in one convenient file, with over 150,000 words of reading. In MURDER IN THE MANOR (Book #1), Lacey Doyle, 39 years old and freshly divorced, needs a drastic change. She needs to quit her job, leave her horrendous boss and New York City, and walk away from the fast life. Making good on her childhood promise to herself, she decides to walk away from it all, and to relive a beloved childhood vacation in the quaint English seaside town of Wilfordshire. Wilfordshire is exactly as Lacey remembers it, with its ageless architecture, cobblestone streets, and with nature at its doorstep. Lacey doesn't want to go back home—and spontaneously, she decides to stay, and to give her childhood dream a try: she will open her own antique shop. Lacey finally feels that her life is taking a step in the right direction—until her new star customer turns up dead. As the newcomer in town, all eyes are on Lacey, and it's up to her to clear her own name. In DEATH AND A DOG (Book #2), spring is in the air. With last month's murder mystery behind Lacey, a new best friend in her English shepherd, and a budding relationship with the chef across the street, it seems like everything's finally settling into place. Lacey is so excited for her first major auction, especially when a valuable, mystery artifact enters her catalogue. All seems to go without a hitch, until two mysterious bidders arrive from out of town—and one of them winds up dead. With the small village plunged into chaos, and with the reputation of her business at stake, can Lacey and her trusty dog partner solve the crime and restore her name? In CRIME IN THE CAFÉ (Book #3), summer is nearly here, and Lacey has fallen more in love with the town and with her chef boyfriend. She has even made a best friend: the new owner of a local B&B. And when her friend needs her services for the decoration of her inn, buying nearly everything in Lacey's antique shop, her business even gets an extra boost. Everything's going perfectly—until someone mysteriously dies in her friend's new B&B. Their village turned upside down and her new friend's livelihood now in jeopardy, it's up to Lacey and her dog to get to the bottom of the mystery. Book #4 in the series—VEXED ON A VISIT—is also available!

The Guide to Finding Love in the Digital Age. Sarah Dalk 2020-03-17 Allow Yourself To Know How To Find Love Online And Nurture It With The Stories In This Book! Perhaps in efforts to tame her rebelliousness, Marie's mom takes her to her aunt's place to spend the summer. Without any friends there, Marie is prepared to have one of the most boring summers of her life. So her aunt, Clarissa sends Marie to the store for a pack of headache pills. After making the purchase, she gets lost, and without anyone to help her but a dead cell phone, she decides to sit on a bench and drink her coke, absentmindedly waiting to see someone who can help her find her way back. After 20 minutes, she notices a large, 6'4, dark, very good looking blonde. "Hey, umm... can you recollect this face?" Marie asks him creepily when he gets close enough. "Tinder App, Marie?" "Oh yeah sure. Now I do! Marie Curie...the minor?" he replies, smiling. Amid her excitement, Marie asks him to help her find her way back to her aunt's, giggling. "I can show you if you want." "Oh brilliant, thanks." Marie replies ecstatically, as though that's the line she's been waiting from him all her life. By the time they arrive at Aunt Clarissa's house, Marie has already done everything possible to contain herself in his presence. Her heart races and butterflies fill up her stomach -and she is excited not because of the fact that she's finally met an incredible handsome guy who wanted to hang out with her, but because she'd found a new friend. "How about we see each other tonight?" He asks... That's how their love story unfolds all thanks to the power of technology. And this could be your story, maybe in a different version but all made possible thanks to the power of the internet. The Outlaw's Bride Ruth Ann Nordin Lillian Christian had a simple plan... All she had to do was sneak out of Virginia before her brother forced her to marry a man in order to get money. She was nothing but a commodity for her brother to sell, and she wasn't going to have any part in it. So she answered Charles' mail-order bride ad and headed for an untamed land where she could take on a whole new identity. But plans don't always go as expected... On her way to marry her intended, a group of masked outlaws descend upon the stagecoach. And they are looking specifically for her. Mic has a plan of his own... The last thing Mic Gray wants to do is scare Lillian, but kidnapping her is the only way to stop her from marrying Charles. Mic's face might be on the Wanted posters, but Charles is the real criminal in town. Only Mic's lack of money and influence prevents him from proving it. The only way to keep Lillian safe is to become her husband. All he has to do is convince her he's worth marrying. Please note: This is the rewrite of The Stagecoach Bride that I wrote with Stephannie Beman.
