The You Know Who Girls: Freshman Year - Annameekee Hesik 2012-10-01

Abbey Brooks, Gila High freshman-to-be, never thought a hellish day of shopping at the mall with her best friend, Kate, could change her life. But when she orders French fries from the flirtatious Hot Dog on a Stick Chick, she gets more than deep-fried potatoes. Abbey tries to ignore the weird, happy feeling in her gut, but that proves to be as impossible as avoiding the very insistent (and—rumor has it—very lesbian) players on Gila High's girls' basketball team. They want freakishly long-legged Abbey to try out, and Abbey doesn't hate the idea. But Kate made Abbey pinky swear to avoid basketball and to keep away from the you-know-who girls on the team. Sometimes promises can't be kept. And sometimes girls in uniform are impossible to resist.

and dependency. As Fabiola Manyi-Orellana declares in Bound By Hurt, however, hope can be found in Jesus Christ, God's great gift of love to the world. Born in communist Romania, Fabiola suffered repeated sexual abuse from a young age until she moved with her family to the United States. Although miles away from her abuser, she carried the wounds of her past and soon found herself skipping school and self-medicating with alcohol and drugs. Through a series of traumatic experiences, Fabiola came face to face with God's love for her—a love she'd rejected for years. Now on a mission to share this love with other victims of abuse, Fabiola prays that Bound By Hurt will be a blessing to many.

Crush College - Erik Fogg 2013-10-01

"How to Crush College" is an unorthodox guide to Adding Sleep, Reducing Stress, Double-Majoring, Graduating Early, and Getting Way More Out of the College experience. It's designed to help college students--whether currently struggling or already feeling "on top of things"--to achieve goals once thought impossible by dramatically increasing their effectiveness, eliminating previously-unthinkable amounts of wasted time in their lives, and then re-directing that time towards what's most important. Did you know that 60% of college students don't graduate within 4 years and that 40% don't graduate within six? To make things worse, students everywhere suffer from sleep-deprivation, stress, physical inactivity, and (of course) huge debt that grows with each extra semester. Even at MIT (my alma mater), friends of mine dropped out because they thought they "didn't have what it took." Other friends took 9 or 10 semesters--both miserably and hugely costly for young adults already in mountains of debt. Universally, the cultural norm in the US is that college students are expected to lose sleep and become addicted to caffeine. I think all of the above is unacceptable. My mission with "How to Crush College" is to change this forever, affecting change at the only place its realistic:

with students themselves. I want to take college students from treading water to excelling and loving college. A successful, joyous college career should not be reserved for the lucky few. I want to give everyone a surefire way to achieve this. I want to eradicate burnout and restore fun. I want to make college great. The principles, practices, and mindsets that are consistent across the most successful college students are translated into a very clear, simple step-by-step guide designed specifically with the college student in mind. Its early steps focus on the biggest picture, recover the most time, and create early wins that motivate students to keep going and keep making progress. How to Crush College turns wisdom on its head by helping students do more with fewer hours and less guilt. Let's Crush College together!

danger. And another murder is the very last thing Anna Glenn needs as she continues to help Sean and Ruby run the once-beloved party venue. Self-centered, rude, and unfaithful, Tucker earned plenty of enemies within Orson. Several of them had joined him in the preparation of the Homecoming court's procession to the dance, the last time he was seen alive, but someone didn't want him to be part of the celebration. Who shot him, and why? A scorned lover or a peeved parent tired of his son's bullying ways? A disgruntled former teammate, or an official who's tired of his highhandedness? Until they find Tucker's murderer, Anna stands with Ruby and Sean, hoping this dose of bad press won't cling to the hall for long. When Tucker's death is mentioned in the news, though, they also learn that Baycourt's former manager, Brandon, is wanted for questioning elsewhere. Elusive and seemingly untraceable, Brandon is Anna and her aunt Pru's last chance at answers about Josie Glenn's disappearance years ago. Torn between identifying Tucker's murderer and wanting to find clues about Josie, Anna digs deeper into the motives of those in the Homecoming court. Because someone has to know more than they're sharing, and perhaps it's the key to all the questions she has about deaths—past and present.

How Does Your Garden Grow - Vicki Bell

Hours became days and months passed by without so much as a lead. It was now September eighteenth and I had almost given up hope of ever finding Rain. Now here, on a dismal fall day, I held my breath as Wesley rolled the body onto its side and folded open the rug. In Mimosa, Oklahoma, newly promoted Detective Darrian Drake has just landed on the front line of a child homicide investigation. Drake and her partner, Sam Evans, soon learn of the abduction and murder of another child, and realize that they are faced with the possibility of a serial killer. With a seed found in each victim's small hand as their only lead, Drake and Evans find themselves working with the FBI to search for the elusive killer. Drake's personal life is also becoming complicated. Her attraction to Special Agent Hank Pembry is nearly impossible to deny, and the two become romantically involved. But as their relationship grows, so do the number of victims. With the list of suspects dwindling, the detectives have to act fast. Will they be able to find the killer before he strikes again, or will the growing attraction between Drake and Pembry compromise the investigation?

This book is a concoction of the poet's thoughts on a person they have an unquenchable crush on. The poet is not a very direct person and uses metaphors, riddles, and many other language tricks to embody what they intend to say. In the poem, "The Dream", the poet talks about watching the earth flood as he sits at the brink of the cumulonimbus, but as he continues through the poem it unravels to the reader that the poet is not talking about the real flood or cumulonimbus, instead the poet uses all those meteorological terms as a way to censor their language. In many other poems like "imagine", the poet expresses their love and admiration for their crush and the things they wish they could do together. contact: brentee01@gmail.com (author)
