A Love Story for Bewildered Girls - Emma Morgan 2019-02-07

Grace loves a woman. Annie loves a man. Violet isn't quite sure. But you'll love them all... Grace has what one might call a 'full and interesting life' which is code for not married and has no kids. Her life is the envy of her friends, who assume she doesn't want the trappings of married life. But all this time she has been waiting in secret for someone to hit her so hard that she would run out of breath, like the way a wave in a rough sea knocks you over... When Grace meets a beautiful woman at a party, she falls suddenly and desperately in love. At the same party, lawyer Annie meets the man of her dreams - the only man she's ever met whose table manners are up to her mother's standards. And across the city, Violet, who is mostly afraid of everything, is making another discovery of her own: that for the first time in her life she's falling in love with a woman. A Love Story for Bewildered Girls is a hilarious and heart-warming novel tale of female friendship and first love in all its guises. 'I absolutely loved this book by Emma Morgan which follows 3 women's very different love lives... I inhaled it' Emma Gannon, Sunday Times best-selling author and host of the podcast Ctrl-Alt-Delete

How to Fall in Love with Anyone - Mandy Len Catron 2018-02-01

In 2014, 33-year-old Mandy Len Catron went on a date with an acquaintance. They decided to try an experiment: inspired by a study designed to create romantic feelings, Mandy and Mark spent the evening asking each other 36 increasingly intimate questions, wondering if it would lead to them falling in love. In How to Fall in Love with Anyone, this experiment is Catron's starting point for investigating what it means to love someone and to be loved, and how we present our love to the world. What makes love last? Can love ever work the way it seems to in films, books and social media? Is there a "right" way to fall in love? In these candid, charming and wise essays, Catron blends memoir with cultural and social commentary on the psychology, biology, history and literature of love. How to Fall in Love with Anyone is a deeply personal, yet universal investigation into the one thing we all want—or think we want—more than anything. Includes "To Fall in Love with Anyone, Do This", one of the most popular essays to appear in the New York Times' "Modern Love" column "In our age of total romantic confusion, Mandy Len Catron is a voice of good sense, warm humor, and consoling wisdom. Through the lens of her own relationships, she teaches us—with a deft, convincing intelligence—some of the vital moves in the art of love." —Alain de Botton, internationally bestselling author of How Proust Can Change Your Life and The Course of Love MANDY LEN CATRON lives in Vancouver, British Columbia. Her writing has appeared in the New York Times and the Washington Post. She writes about love and love stories at The Love Story Project, and teaches English and creative writing at the University of British Columbia.

If there's one piece of invaluable advice for women and girls of all ages, it is that there is nothing more important than creating and maintaining strong, positive and happy friendships with other women. In a culture that largely pits women against each other, I want to celebrate female friendships... all strings attached! If my 1998 diary is anything to go by, female friendships are incredibly complex and emotional but they're the mini love stories that make us who we are. For many women, friends are our partners in crime through life; they are the ones who move us into new homes, out of bad relationships, through births and illnesses. In The F Word I've set out to explore and celebrate the essence of female friendship at different life stages and in its many wild and wonderful forms.

The Falling in Love Montage - Ciara Smyth 2021-04-27

Two girls embark on a summer of montage-worthy dates (with a few strings attached) in this hilarious and heartfelt lesbian rom-com that's perfect for fans of Becky Albertalli and Jenny Han. Seventeen-year-old cynic Saoirse Clarke isn't looking for a relationship. But when she meets mischievous Ruby, that rule goes right out the window. Sort of. Because Ruby has a loophole in mind: a summer of all the best cliché movie montage dates, with a definite ending come fall--no broken hearts, no messy breakup. It would be the perfect plan, if they weren't forgetting one thing about the Falling in Love Montage: when it's over, the characters have fallen in love...for real. Ciara Smyth's debut is a delightful, multilayered YA rom-com that will make you laugh, cry, and absolutely fall in love.

Curvy Girls Can't Date Best Friends - Kelsie Stelting 2020

I wanted to have the best summer ever. To have my first kiss and finally get my brother's best friend to notice me. So I talked my best friend Carson into helping. He'd do anything for me, and I'd do the same for him. But somewhere between fake dating and pretending to fall in love with him, I fell for real. And it was the dumbest thing I've ever done.

and get the Kindle eBook included for free. Soon, it won't be free. ☐ It's sad, but I'm glad it happened... My heart is heavy to share this story-it's embarrassing and I don't want you to laugh yet. Listen, if I count how many times I have been friend-zoned, you'll feel depressed on my behalf. The last one was many years ago when I was studying in Singapore. The next day, after my heartbreak, my roommate, Michael, called me and said, "Barack Obama is around. He's at Orchard to meet with Lee Kuan Yew-come, come, come." Michael didn't know what I was going through. He was at Orchard having fun, but I was at home feeling heartbroken and Obama wasn't the solution I needed at that moment-I needed a relationship expert. Luckily, I have become that person I needed and I'll guide you through the ups and downs of how women work, how to get any woman without being friend-zoned and many more things acclaimed dating gurus won't tell you. In all things, honesty and foundation are key, and that's how we'll start. Skip this stage and you'll be in trouble... You've been lied to by dating gurus. Listen, my case was worse than yours. I thought it was because I came from a not-so-rich family or because I wasn't too tall and handsome. The truth is: I was in my head. I was the one killing myself-just the same way you're mentally sabotaging yourself without knowing. I wish someone had told me all the things I discovered throughout my struggles in understanding women-it would've saved me time and energy. Imagine the shame and pains you feel emotionally, but you have no one to run to for help except Google, yet there are too many inaccurate info by "acclaimed gurus" trying to fill your brain with pickup lines. Sometimes, you feel resentful towards women because they either rejected or friend-zoned you. This makes you feel undesirable and angry. From today, things will forever change for you with the info you'll discover soon. After learning these secrets, don't revenge women-forgive them, but flaunt your newly found confidence and skills. At the end of this series, you'll solve all your relationship and bedroom problems: You'll make her fall madly in love with you with the secrets inside this series even if you think you are not handsome, tall, rich, or intelligent All the time you spent being lonely and masturbating all

Text Me When You Get Home - Kayleen Schaefer 2018-02-06

"Text Me has the thrills and laughs of a romantic comedy, but with an inverted message: 'There just isn't only one love story in our lives,' Schaefer writes. If you're lucky, friends will be the protagonists in these multiple love stories. It's high time that we start seeing it that way."—NPR.org A personal and sociological examination—and ultimately a celebration—of the evolution of female friendship in pop culture and modern society For too long, women have been told that we are terrible at being friends, that we can't help being cruel or competitive, or that we inevitably abandon each other for romantic partners. But we are rejecting those stereotypes and reclaiming the power of female friendship. In Text Me When You Get Home, journalist Kayleen Schaefer interviews more than one hundred women about their BFFs, soulmates, girl gangs, and queens while tracing this cultural shift through the lens of pop culture. Our love for each other is reflected in Abbi and Ilana, Issa and Molly, #squadgoals, the acclaim of Girls Trip and Big Little Lies, and Galentine's Day. Schaefer also includes her own history of grappling with a world that told her to rely on men before she realized that her true source of support came from a strong tribe of women. Her personal narrative and celebration of her own relationships weaves throughout the evolution of female friendship on-screen, a serious look at how women have come to value one another and our relationships. Text Me When You Get Home is a validation that has never existed before. A thoughtful, heart-soaring, deeply reported look at how women are taking a stand for their friendships and not letting go.

How to Not Fall for Your Best Friend - Meg Easton

Seven days. Fifteen dates with fifteen different people. One friendly competition between best friends (who are definitely not dating each other). Peyton Abernathy wants to get married, and she's ready to do something drastic about it. Like getting over her fear of making bad choices. She wants someone responsible, adventurous, resourceful, and inspiring. Someone who feels like peace and acceptance and home. Someone exactly like her best friend, Max Peyton. Except not Max. Because that one time a year ago when she accidentally almost kissed him, he said he loved her like a sister. Like a sister. So yeah, she isn't about to fall for her best friend. (Again.) Besides, Max doesn't want to get married to anyone. Ever. Sure, it could've been the effects of his last relationship talking, but she is fairly sure he means it. That's okay, because she has a plan to find her perfect man. She and Max both need dates for a friend's wedding, so she talks Max into a little competition to see who can go on the highest number of dates, each with a different person, all within the span of one week. And by the end, each of them will ask their favorite to be their date at the wedding. It's a brilliant plan; she's sure of it. Seven days and those perfect wedding dates will hopefully turn into happily ever afters for both of them. Her plan is so good, it's practically foolproof.
