EXCERPT: After a few glasses of champagne, I quickly became comfortable, and I also realized that if this is the good life, I didn't want to go back. We spoke about everything from current events and work to family life, before my intrigue took over. "So, Mark. To what pleasure do I owe this meeting?" He took a sip of his champagne and smiled, before speaking. "Well, you were a handpicked hire by me," he said. I smiled, trying to conceal my surprise. "I want you to enjoy your job and get what you need out of it, so I won't interfere with that. You just seemed interesting and look amazing, so what better way to spend a Sunday afternoon, than with a beautiful woman?" Wow. This, I could totally get used to. I had dated enough losers in the past, that I wasn't opposed at all to mixing and mingling with a winner. Before I could say a word, Mark leaned in and planted his lips against mine. I loved the way his lips felt pressed against my plush, pink lips, and I reached up and touched my hand to his smoothly shaven face, while massaging his tongue with my own. Chick on the Side Vanessa is a sex kitten that is caught up in a spicy affair with

Trevor, a married business man. While his wife is a nagging prude who treats him like a child, Vanessa is a professional herself, and a sexually liberated free thinker who still knows how to tap into a man's desires. She just got out of a relationship, so isn't looking for anything serious. Their affair is taken to the next level when Vanessa gets an e-mail from Trevor, letting her know that he purchased a flight and a hotel in Hawaii. Vanessa jumps at the chance, and checks in early to surprise Tyler in Hawaii with her sexiest lingerie. They taste and sex each other up in the most passionate positions, and enjoy each other's bodies, far away from the monotony and stress of the real world. EXCERPT: My flight landed shortly ahead of schedule. Trevor told me I could call him when I touched down, but I decided to grab a cab instead. The resort wasn't far from the airport, and I made my own money anyway, so it was no big deal for me to drop some cash to look out for myself. The process of checking in was pretty easy. The room was already in Trevor's name, so all I had to do was tell them who I was and they handed me a key. He had given them a heads up and even told them my flight information, so it was smooth sailing. The receptionist told me that the conference being held here, so Travis would be tied up for a while, but the room had been cleaned for the day and I was also welcome to enjoy the resort for a bit. Perfect. I was glad that I got here early, so that I can take a shower and change in to another set of lingerie that I had purchased. When I got up to the room, I dropped out of my clothes, lit an incense stick and began getting into the island mood. After a nice, hot shower to knock off the travel rust, I was ready to be taken. teacher, teacher erotica, teacher erotic romance, teacher romance, professor, professor erotica, professor romance, school girl, school girl erotica, school girl romance, horny school girl, older man, younger woman, slutty school girl, daddy, daddy

The Trinity of Trauma: Ignorance, Fragility, and Control - Ellert Nijenhuis 2017-04-03

Enactive trauma therapy is grounded in so-called enactivism, which holds that, like anyone else, traumatized individuals are (1) embrained, embodied, and environmentally embedded; (2) constitute biopsychological organism-environment systems that are essentially interested in preserving their existence; (3) are primarily affective and oriented toward making sense of things. Individuals exhibit a phenomenal self, world, and self-of-the-world through self- and world-oriented actions. They do not act on the basis of knowledge, but possess knowledge on the basis of world-engaged sensorimotor, affect-laden, and goal-oriented actions. Whenever interpersonal traumatization by significant others occurs, individuals may get caught up in affective and relational conflicts they cannot resolve on their own. Their generation and maintenance of a trauma-related dissociation of the personality involves a kind of sense-making that supports their continued existence when their capacity to integrate traumatic experiences is still too low. However, what starts as a courageous effort to navigate a traumatizing life may at some point in time become a serious problem. Enactive trauma therapy comprises the collaboration of two organism-environment systems: the patient and the therapist. Together they spawn new meaning and adequate actions - an interaction that resembles dancing: It takes pacing, mutual attunement, good timing, a sensitivity to balance, movement and rhythm, courage, as well as the ability and willingness to follow and lead.

New Desires, New Selves - Gul Ozyegin 2015-08-21

As Turkey pushes for its place in the global pecking order and embraces neoliberal capitalism, the nation has seen a period of unprecedented shifts in political, religious, and gender and sexual identities for its citizens. In New Desires, New Selves, Gul Ozyegin shows how this social transformation in Turkey is felt most strongly among its young people, eager to surrender to the seduction of sexual modernity, but also longing to remain attached to traditional social relations, identities and histories. Engaging a wide array of upwardly-mobile young adults at a major Turkish university, Ozyegin links the biographies of individuals with the biography of a nation, revealing their creation of conflicted identities in a country which has existed uneasily between West and East, modern and traditional, and secular and Islamic. For these young people, sexuality, gender expression, and intimate relationships in particular serve as key sites for reproducing and challenging patriarchy and paternalism that was hallmark of earlier generations. As Ozyegin evocatively shows, the quest for sexual freedom and an escape from patriarchal constructions of selfless femininity and protective masculinity promise both personal transformations and profound sexual guilt and anxiety. A poignant and original study, New Desires, New Selves presents a snapshot of cultural change on the eve of rapid globalization in the Muslim world.

Delmira Agustini, Sexual Seduction, and Vampiric Conquest -

Cathy L. Jrade 2012-07-10

Delmira Agustini (1886–1914) has been acclaimed as one of the foremost modernistas and the first major woman poet of twentieth-century Spanish America. Critics and the reading public alike were immediately taken by the originality and power of her verse, especially her daring eroticism, her inventive appropriation of vampirism, and her morbid embrace of death and pain. No work until now, however, has shown how her poetry reflects a search for an alternative, feminized discourse, a discourse that engages in an imaginative dialogue with Rubén Darío's recourse to literary paternity and undertakes an audacious rewriting of social, sexual, and poetic conventions. In the first major exploration of Agustini's life and work, Cathy L. Jrade examines her energizing appropriation and reinvention of modernista verse and the dynamics of her breakthrough poetics, a poetics that became a model for later women writers.

Distracted Subjects - Carol Thomas Neely 2018-08-06

In the first book to provide a feminist analysis of early modern madness, Carol Thomas Neely reveals the mobility and heterogeneity of discourses of "distraction," the most common term for the condition in late-sixteenth- and early seventeenth-century England. Distracted Subjects shows how changing ideas of madness that circulated through medical, dramatic, and political texts transformed and gendered subjectivities. Supernatural causation is denied, new diagnoses appear, and stage representations proliferate. Drama sometimes leads and sometimes follows other cultural discourses—or forges its own prophetic figures of distraction. The Spanish Tragedy first links madness to masculine tragic self-representation, and Hamlet invents a language to dramatize feminine somatic illness. Innovative women's melancholy is theorized in medical and witchcraft treatises and then elaborated in the extended portrait of the Jailer's Daughter's distraction in The Two Noble Kinsmen. Lovesickness, newly diagnosed in women, demands novel cures, and allows expressions of transgressive sexual desire in treatises and in plays such as As You Like It. The rituals of possession and exorcism, intensely debated off stage, are mocked and exploited on stage in reiterated comic scenes of confinement that madden men to enhance women's power. Neely's final chapter provides a startling challenge to the critically alluring analogy between Bedlam and the early modern stage by documenting that Bethlehem hospital offered care, not spectacle, whereas stage Bedlamites served metatheatrical and prophylactic, not mimetic, ends. An epilogue places this particular historical moment within the longer history of madness and shows how our own attitudes toward distraction are haunted by those earlier debates and representations.
