A Life Without Limits Chrissie Wellington 2012-05-15 In 2007, Chrissie Wellington shocked the triathlon world by winning the Ironman World Championships in Hawaii. As a newcomer to the sport and a complete unknown to the press, Chrissie's win shook up the sport. A LIFE WITHOUT LIMITS is the story of her rise to the top, a journey that has taken her around the world, from a childhood in England, to the mountains of Nepal, to the oceans of New Zealand, and the trails of Argentina, and first across the finish line. Wellington's first-hand, inspiring story includes all the incredible challenges she has faced--from anorexia to near-drowning to training with a controversial coach. But to Wellington, the drama of the sports also presents an opportunity to use sports to improve people's lives. A LIFE WITHOUT LIMITS reveals the heart behind Wellington's success, along with the diet, training and motivational techniques that keep her going through one of the world's most grueling events.

Great Mountain Days in Snowdonia Terry Marsh 2011-06-07 A guidebook to 40 great mountain walks and scrambles in Snowdonia. The inspirational routes in this larger format book range right across the Snowdonia National Park and are divided into 8 geographical regions: Snowdon and Moel Eilio, the Glyderau, the Carneddau, Eifionydd, Siabod and the Moelwynion, Rhinogydd (the Harlech Dome), Migneint and the Arans and Cadair Idris and the Tarrens. All routes are graded, from moderate to strenuous, and illustrated with Harvey map extracts, topo diagrams by Mark Richards and lots of stunning photographs. Some routes include mild scrambling or long days in rugged country, and many can be enjoyed all year round. The walks have been chosen to encourage you to try something new in this much-loved region, while at the same time offering clear descriptions of classic routes for those new to Snowdonia.

Walks in the South Downs National Park Kev Reynolds 2016-06-23 Guidebook to 40 day walks in the South Downs National Park. The walks, which are designed to suit all abilities, are dotted all over the National Park and range from 4 miles (7.5km) to 11 miles (17.5km). Each walk is circular, and where possible begins and ends at a place accessible by public transport. With some of the most iconic landscapes in southern England, including the white chalk cliffs of Beachy Head and the Seven Sisters, and such well-loved landmarks as Ditchling Beacon and atmospheric ancient monuments like the Cissbury Ring, walking in the park proves a delightful experience mile after mile. Step-by-step route descriptions are accompanied by 1:50,000 OS mapping. Also included is information on the plants and wildlife of the Downs, as well as handy practical tips on accommodation, car parking and public transport.

50 Walks in the Peak District Aa Publishing 2013 WALKING, HIKING, TREKKING. Walking is one of Britain's favourite leisure activities, and this fantastic walking guide to the Peak District features a variety of mapped walks to suit all abilities. The book features all the practical detail you need, accompanied by fascinating background reading on the history and wildlife of the area, as well as other local points of interest. All walks are annotated with local points of interest and places to stop for refreshments and every walk is given a summary of distance, time, gradient, level of difficulty, type of surface and access, landscape, dog friendliness, parking and public toilets.

Surrey - Year Round Walks David Weller 2007 The twenty circular walks in this volume vary in length from 21/4 to 71/4 miles and are enjoyable all year round. The author has divided the routes into seasons to show each at its very best; whether it be a woodland cloaked in the warm, golden colours of Autumn; the crisp, clear views of a Winter landscape, a fragrant carpet of bluebells nodding in a gentle Spring breeze; or the lush tapestry of wildflowers in a Summer meadow. Each walk is described in detail with information on points of interest that are likely to be seen along the way. In addition there are details on where to park and where to stop for refreshments. Each route has its own accompanying sketch map which is numbered to correspond with the numbered paragraphs in the text so that walkers can see at a glance where they are. David Weller lives in Surrey and has been walking the county for many years. He is also the author of many local walking guides including Drive and Stroll in Surrey, Pub Walks in the Surrey Hills, Kiddiwalks in Surrey and Pocket Pub Walks in Surrey. Due in 6th September.
