Paul Bern - E.J. Fleming 2009-03-23

Paul Bern, known throughout the movie business as “Hollywood’s Father Confessor,” earned a reputation for being a loyal and supportive friend and for becoming one of MGM’s most respected and creative directors. After his death, though, he was said to have grown so depressed and despondent over his own apparent sexual inadequacies that he committed suicide, and he would be denounced for attempting to rape his new bride Jean Harlow. In this biography, the author uncovers startling new facts and argues that MGM knew the real story of Bern’s death—that an estranged, mentally ill common-law wife murdered him. MGM understood that the earlier spouse rendered Bern’s marriage to Harlow, its fastest-rising star, ambiguous if not bigamous, so the studio staged a suicide and embarked on a very public tarnishing of his memory. Included are 93 rare photos, many lost for decades, along with three appendices examining the handwriting on an alleged suicide note and Bern's will and estate.

The Jews of the Channel Islands and the Rule of Law, 1940-1945 - David Fraser 2000

From 1940 to 1945, the Channel Islands were the only part of Britain to fall under German occupation. Fraser (law, U. of Sydney, Australia) explores how local lawyers, judges, and government officials, among others, cooperated with the implementation of legal measures against the Islands' Jews and their property, even while continuing to swear oaths of allegiance to the British Crown. Basing his study on a review of Island archival material and newly uncovered evidence, he also examines the ways in which the collective memory in the Islands has ignored and obfuscated the fate of Jews.
