Catalyzing Development through ICT Adoption - Harleen Kaur 2017-06-05

This book examines the role that Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) play in growth and economic development promotion, specifically for developing countries. It highlights multiple methodologies for quantifying the impact of ICTs. This includes quantitative and qualitative methods, but also novel, conclusive and informative methodological approaches for measuring ICTs influence on economic development. The book highlights trends, perspectives, and success stories for different developing countries. ICTs bring new business models, innovations, capital-labor substitution, improved goods and services to developing markets. Because they can spread rapidly, with little cost and require minimal skills for usage, ICTs create a solid background for social and economic gains. They enable significant reduction in information asymmetries, which improves access to economic activities for multitude of agents, fostering participation, inter alia in labor market of disadvantaged societal groups. After almost two decades of rapid diffusion of ICT in developing world, this book seeks to assess the real benefits and consequences of ICTs adoption in developing countries. The chapters use broad, real-world based evidence to provide a better understanding of the precise nature of new technologies and their impact of the country's economy and society.

7 Questions Wise Women Ask - Kingsley Okonkwo 2012-08

Women are often times very emotional when it comes to relationships and marriage and as a result, they make very important decisions based on feelings. However, if you desire a great marriage, then it's time you asked the right questions. This book will guide you through 7 very important questions to ask before you walk down the aisle.

Heart of an Intercessor - Michelle Weston 2011-05

Michelle Weston is a dedicated wife to her husband, Elder Allen Weston. She is a committed mother and a proud grandmother. She lives a godly life without compromise and knows first-hand the power of prayer. She believes that prayer ought to be a lifestyle for the believer. She sensed the call to pray at a very young age, which began her journey as an intercessor and as a prayer warrior. She believes that the ministry of intercession and deliverance is for today. She has a heart for lost souls. Her desire is to impact the world with the message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. In 1994 she was mandated by God to cry loud and spare not. She stands in the office of a Prophet of God and does so by rooting out, pulling down, destroying and throwing down the works of the enemy as well as building and planting so that God can give the increase to His church. Michelle Weston along with her husband, Elder Allen Weston attended Seminary at Agape Bible College. Since 1997 she has functioned in Ministry in various capacities and was ordained in 2002. She is known in the DFW area for her weekly radio broadcasts "Keys To Abundant Living" and "A Time for Intercession." Prophetess Michelle is the host of the monthly prophetic & deliverance service, An Evening of Prayer, Prophecy and Deliverance. An excellent speaker and teacher of the Word of God, she is in demand to minister to women across the country. She has a unique style of preaching and teaching the Word of God, with the goal in mind to deliver a message of hope and deliverance to a lost and dying world. Gender, Social Change and Spiritual Power - Jane E. Soothill 2007

Against a backdrop of debate concerning the role of Pentecostalism as a mediator of 'modernity', this book examines the interaction between charismatic Christianity, spiritual power and gendered social change in contemporary Ghana.

Kasinomics - GG Alcock 2015-10-01

Kasinomi is a book as eclectic, mysterious and colourful as the places and people it explores. eKasi, the lokasie, the South African township, once an apartheid ghetto, is today an amazingly transformed place. This township today is an eclectic mix of mansions, shacks, spaza shops, rocking taverns, hawkers, taxis and hot wheels. In this kasi there are vibrant businesses, energetic people, a tightly networked social community and abundant hope. That is not to say there isn't extreme poverty, suffering and dissatisfaction, particularly on the peripheries in the huge shack settlements, but to paint the place as a slum is a massive mistake. Kasinomi attempts to cast a light on the invisible matrix at the heart of South Africa's informal economies and the people who live in them. Living and doing business in African marketplaces requires an ethos uniquely suited to the informal, to the invisible, to the intangible. Kasinomi will take you down those rural pathways, weave between claustrophobic mazes of shacks, browse a muti market, visit a spirit returning ceremony and save money with gogo in a stokvel among many more people and places. After almost twenty years of focusing on marketing to the informal sector, GG Alcock, CEO of specialist marketing company Minanawe, showcases a number of groundbreaking and very successful case studies in this invisible informal world. His vivid anecdotes and life experiences and how they link to understanding and inspiration for business ideas will make you gasp, laugh and shake your head in wonder.

How to Handle Rejection - Bimbo Odukoya 2007-04

So many today are walking around embittered and battered by the painful experiences of the past without a way out. Many are trapped in their minds, locked in negative and inhibiting emotions because of the rejections of the past. How To Handle Rejection uses biblical and modern day examples to help you recognize and overcome rejection's many roots and guises. In this book, you will find out that the new birth, depending on the Holy Spirit, resisting unforgiveness, uncensored self-examination and making right choices are effective weapons in tackling rejection. You will also discover how to -value fellowship -value your identity and heritage in Christ -conquer an unhealthy need for acceptance -enjoy a full life - beyond the experiences of rejection. Pastor (Mrs) Bimbo Odukoya was the co-pastor of The Fountain of Life Church, situated in Lagos, Nigeria. The wife of Pastor Taiwo Odukoya, the founding and senior pastor of the church, their marriage is blessed with three wonderful children. She was the president of Single & Married ministry and host of the international weekly television programme Single & Married. Pastor Bimbo, as she was fondly called, was also the chairperson of Discovery for Women, a ministry dedicated to challenging, motivating and empowering women in their various roles as wives, mothers and leaders. Over five thousand women attended her quarterly Discovery for Women rallies. A highly-sought-after conference speaker both nationally and internationally, she ministered practically on every university and polytechnic campus in Nigeria before her call to glory. A prolific writer, author and columnist, she had regular columns in various national and international newspapers and magazines. She was also the author of the book How To Choose A Life Partner: 165 Questions To Ask. During her lifetime, Pastor Bimbo received more than sixty awards from both Christian and secular organizations as a testimony of her exemplary life and teachings.

NOLLYWOOD MIRROR® - Michael Chima Ekenyerengozi 2013

So much has been written and published on Nollywood, our Nollywood; the phenomenal Nigerian film industry producing thousands of home videos telling stories of Nigerians from the past to the present and has caught the attention of the rest of the world to say WOW African magic? Did you know that Ivorian rebels in the bush stopped fighting when a shipment of Nollywood DVDs arrived from Lagos? Did you know that Zambian mothers said that their children now talk with accents copied from Nollywood movies? Did you know that when the President of Sierra Leone asked Genevieve Nnaji to join him on the campaign trail he attracted record crowds at rallies, because of her? Yes, Nollywood is our African magic that has hooked the world. The maiden edition of NOLLYWOOD MIRROR(R) SERIES is a celebration of the best of Nollywood.

The Function of Newspapers in Society - Shannon E. Martin 2003

The demise of the newspaper has long been predicted. Yet newspapers continue to survive globally despite competition from radio, television, and now the Internet, because they serve core social functions in successful cultures. Initial chapters of this book provide an overview of the development of modern newspapers. Subsequent chapters examine particular societies and geographic regions to see what common traits exist among the uses and forms of newspapers and those artifacts that carry the name newspaper but do not meet the commonly accepted definition. The conclusion suggests that newspapers are of such core value to a successful society that a timely and easily accessible news product will succeed despite, or perhaps because of, changes in reading habits and technology.

Communication in Relationships - Bimbo Odukoya 2010-03

It is easy to communicate. Right? Well, wrong! Any communication that does not generate the desired response can hardly be considered effective. Communities have gone to war, empires have crumbled, businesses have gone under and marriages have hit the rocks as a result of a breakdown in communication or a lack of effective communication. In Communication in Relationships, Bimbo Odukoya, an internationally acclaimed marriage counsellor, addresses the intricacies of relationships, focussing on verbal communication, non-verbal communication, listening and communication styles, as she proffers solutions to numerous marital and relationship problems. If your relationships are not working, the reason may well be that you are not communicating effectively. This book is a must-read. Pastor Bimbo Odukoya was the co-pastor of The Fountain of Life Church, Lagos-a church that is committed to raising leaders, and was the president of Single & Married, a ministry that has been widely acclaimed for preparing youths and couples for fulfilling and lasting relationships. Her popular television programme Single & Married is still being broadcast on several stations across Africa, Canada and the United Kingdom, long after her passing on to glory in December 2005. She was also the chairperson of Discovery for Women, a ministry dedicated to inspiring women in their roles as mothers and leaders. A highly-sought-after speaker, she ministered on practically every Nigerian university and polytechnic campus. This was in addition to running regular columns in several newspapers and magazines. She received numerous awards, including a couple of honorary doctorates, in recognition of her contributions to the society. She was married to Pastor Taiwo Odukoya and blessed with three children.
