The Law of Attraction - Robert Collier 2012-07-01

How can I earn more money? How can I make enough to get the necessities and the comforts of life to which my family and I are entitled? That is the eternal question which confronts you and will haunt you every day until you solve it. That is the present-day Riddle of the Sphinx that devours all who fail to answer it. For lack is the greatest evil that mankind has to contend with. Yet every man knows that in this old earth of ours are riches and abundance sufficient not merely for every soul now on this planet - but for all who ever will be! And in the very first chapter of the Bible, it is written that "God gave man dominion over all the earth." Not only that, but more than half the prophecies in the Scriptures refer to the time when man shall possess the earth. When tears and sorrow shall be unknown. When riches and abundance shall be yours for the taking. That time is here - here and now for those who understand the power and the availability of that mysterious, half recognized Spirit within which so few people know, but which, fully understood, can do anything. But in no book ever written is there any complete explanation of this Spirit within, any complete directions for availing one's-self of its infinite power and understanding. In no book, that is, but one!" -- From Robert Collier's Introduction to "How To Get What You Want." Robert Collier first became best known as a great advertising copywriter of the early twentieth century. After overcoming an undiagnosed illness without traditional medical treatment he became more interested in practical psychology and the power of the mind. He began to write books related to metaphysics and the New Thought movement. His best selling "The Secret of the Ages" has sold more than a million copies and has been translated into German, Italian, French, and Spanish. This special edition was originally published in 1927 as "The Secret of Gold." It's title has been modified to better represent its contents in the present day.

The Chemistry Between Us - Larry Young PhD 2012-09-13

How much control do we have over love? Much less than we like to think. All that mystery, all that poetry, all those complex behaviors surrounding human bonding leading to the most life-changing decisions we'll ever make, are unconsciously driven by a few molecules in our brains. How does love begin? How can two strangers come to the conclusion that it would not only be pleasant to share their lives, but that they must share them? How can a man say he loves his wife, yet still cheat on her? Why do others stay in relationships even after the romance fades? How is it possible to fall in love with the "wrong" person? How do people come to have a "type"? Physical attraction, jealousy, infidelity, mother-infant bonding—all the behaviors that so often leave us befuddled—are now being teased out of the fog of mystery thanks to today's social neuroscience. Larry Young, one of the world's leading experts in the field, and journalist Brian Alexander explain how those findings apply to you. Drawing on real human stories and research from labs around the world, The Chemistry Between Us is a bold attempt to create a "grand unified theory" of love. Some of the mind-blowing insights include: Love can get such a grip on us because it is, literally, an addiction. To a woman falling in love, a man is like her baby. Why it's false to say society makes gender, and how it's possible to have the body of one gender and the brain of another. Why some people are more likely to cheat than others. Why we sometimes truly can't resist temptation. Young and Alexander place their revelations into historical, political, and social contexts. In the process, they touch on everything from gay marriage to why single-mother households might not be good for society. The Chemistry Between Us offers powerful insights into love, sex, gender, sexual orientation, and family life that will prove to be enlightening, controversial, and thought provoking.

"I started doing the exercises in Sue's book, 'From Your Vision Board to Your Bedroom,' in January, and four months later I fell in love and into a relationship with the man who was everything I had asked for in a partner through those exercises. The exercises were simple and straight forward, yet they really made me dig into the specifics of what I was looking for and what I was willing to bring to the table. I had been so focused on how someone would fit into my hectic life that I hadn't thought about what I would be willing to change or adapt to, in order to fit into someone else's. The most important lesson I learned was the need to focus on what I wanted in a partner, not what I didn't want. It turns out that the one thing I really didn't think I wanted (a younger man) is the one thing I now could not imagine my life without!" - Jami B., Maine
