Critical Failures Robert Bevan 2013-01-12 Tim and his friends find out the hard way that you shouldn't question the game master, and you shouldn't make fun of his cape. One minute, they're drinking away the dreariness of their lives, escaping into a fantasy game and laughing their asses off. The next minute, they're in a horse-drawn cart surrounded by soldiers pointing crossbows at them. Tim now has the voice and physique of a prepubescent girl. Dave finds that while he lost a foot or two in height, he somehow acquired a suit of armor and a badass beard. Julian's ears have grown ridiculously long and pointy. And Cooper... well Cooper has gotten himself a set of tusks, a pair of clawed hands, and a bad case of the shits. He also finds that he's carrying a bag with a human head in it - a head that he had chopped off when they were still just playing a game. Shit just got real, and if they want to survive, these four friends are going to have to tap into some baser instincts they didn't even know existed in their fast-food and pizza delivery world. It's fight, flight, or try to convince the people who are trying to kill them that they don't really exist. Meanwhile, a sadistic game master sits back in the real world eating their fried chicken.

Women, Race & Class Angela Y. Davis 2019-10-03 Ranging from the age of slavery to contemporary injustices, this groundbreaking history of race, gender and class inequality by the radical political activist Angela Davis offers an alternative view of female struggles for liberation. Tracing the intertwined histories of the abolitionist and women's suffrage movements, Davis examines the racism and class prejudice inherent in so much of white feminism, and in doing so brings to light new pioneering heroines, from field slaves to mill workers, who fought back and refused to accept the lives into which they were born. Personal Narrative of a Pilgrimage to El Medinah and Meccah Sir Richard Francis Burton 1857 Richard Francis Burton (1821-90) was a British orientalist, soldier, spy, diplomat, and explorer best known for his travels in Arabia, Africa, and India. He was born in Torquay, on the southern coast of England, and was raised in France and Italy. It was there that he began to show his exceptional talent with languages by learning Latin, Greek, Italian, and French before he was 20. After two years at Oxford, he was dismissed on disciplinary grounds. He went on to join the British Army in India, where he served as an intelligence officer. Disguised as a Pashtun Muslim and supported by the Royal Geographical Society, in 1853 Burton undertook a hajj journey to the two Muslim holy cities of Mecca and Medina. His two-volume Personal Narrative of a Pilgrimage to el Medinah and Meccah recounts that journey. Burton spent years in preparation, mostly during his time in India. The journey first took him from England to Alexandria in Egypt, and further to Cairo, Suez, and Yanbu. From there he travelled to Medina and Mecca. Although Burton was not the first non-Muslim to perform the hajj, the accuracy of his well-documented account, including his measurements of the Kaaba in Mecca and his Victorian-era observations on Muslims (especially his copious notes on manners), brought him immediate fame. Burton begins the first volume of his work with a famed line of verse on cavalierism by the Arab poet al-Mutanabbi (915-65 AD): "I am well known to the night, the steeds, and the desert / the sword and [the guest], the paper and the pen." A controversial figure during his lifetime and a prolific writer and translator, Burton left behind 43 volumes of writing on his journeys and 30 volumes of translations, including of sensual books such the Kama Sutra of Vatsyayana, The Perfumed Garden of the Cheikh Nefzaoui, and the Arabian Nights. He died in Trieste, in what was then Austria-Hungary.

Visualising Facebook Daniel Miller 2017-03-07 Since the growth of social media, human communication has become much more visual. This book presents a scholarly analysis of the images people post on a regular basis to Facebook. By including hundreds of examples, readers can see for themselves the differences between postings from a village north of London, and those from a small town in Trinidad. Why do women respond so differently to becoming a mother in England from the way they do in Trinidad? How are values such as carnival and suburbia expressed visually? Based on an examination of over 20,000 images, the authors argue that phenomena such as selfies and memes must be analysed in their local context. The book aims to highlight the importance of visual images today in patrolling and controlling the moral values of populations, and explores the changing role of photography from that of recording and representation, to that of communication, where an image not only documents an experience but also enhances it, making the moment itself more exciting.

Sin in Soft Focus Mark A. Vieira 2003-03-01 In the spring of 1934, Hollywood faced what the Los Angeles Times called "the most serious crisis of its history." The film capital was under siege by censorship advocates who launched a boycott, demanding that the film industry enforce the Production Code it had adopted in 1930. For nearly five years, defiant producers had cited artistic freedom and flouted the Code, which forbade vulgarity, profanity, nudity, excessive violence, illegal drugs, adultery, "sex perversion," "white slavery," racial mingling, "lustful kissing," and suggestive dancing. In July 1934, the controversial films were outlawed. Today they are called "pre-Code." Sin in Soft Focus showcases a scintillating era in film history and tells how filmmakers sidestepped the Code. Mark A. Vieira draws on extensive research, interviews, and correspondence in the Production Code Administration files to tell the engaging, suspenseful, and often humorous story of the struggle between Hollywood and its reformers, weaving history, politics, and film into a full-blooded narrative. Illustrated with 275 film stills, many of them rare, the book captures the stunning visual artistry of the era.

The Second Sex Simone de Beauvoir 1997 Of all the writing that emerged from the existentialist movement, Simone de Beauvoir's groundbreaking study of women will probably have the most extensive and enduring impact. It is at once a work of anthropology and sociology, of biology and psychoanalysis, from the pen of a writer and novelist of penetrating imaginative power. THE SECOND SEX stands, five decades after its first appearance, as the first landmark in the modern feminist upsurge that has transformed perceptions of the social relationship of man and womankind in our time

Hotwife Gema Gemma V. Avril 2018-04-12 DESCRIPTION "An autobiographical erotic novel, written by a woman for women." "A story about love and passion, with torrid sex scenes written with special wit." Gema is a common housewife, until she finally gives in to her husband's desires of seeing her with another man. This first book of this series tells the beginning of Gema as hotwife and her husband, Daniel, as a consenting cuckold. After her husband's tiring insistence, Gema, reluctantly, accepts to flirt with a strange in a disco. Her only goal is to teach Daniel a lesson, convinced that he will back off in the last moment. But what was going to be a mere flirt, or at most, a single one-night-stand, soon turns into a full-fledged, romantic affaire. Gema has difficulties separating the passion she feels for her lover from the love she feels for her husband. She has trouble making loyalty and consensual infidelity compatible. Meantime, as her lover manages to step by step remove her sexual inhibitions, his influence over her increases. Gema starts doing things for her lover that she would not do for her husband. As the story goes, Gema evolves. However, she continues having to deal with a set of opposed feeling that endanger her marriage. On top of that, she ends up promising something to her lover, which will have unforeseen consequences. At the same time, Daniel undergoes his own evolution and must deal with his own inhibitions. "My husband, my real husband in my real life, has been pressing me for years to cuckold him, quite like Gema's husband in the book. I resisted for years, until I finally gave in. I wished I had done it before, but fear and lack of knowledge about this world stopped me from doing it earlier. Unfortunately, there isn't much erotic literature out there about the world of consensual infidelity, which is appropriate for women. We women need, above all, a context for sex, a setting, the evolution of the actors, so that we can identify ourselves with them. For that reason, I have decided to share my own experiences as a hotwife in the format of an erotic novel, based on my own life. Join me and Gema in discovery of a new significance for love, fidelity and passion! Join us in this sexual exploration that questions the usual precepts of our society!" BIOGRAPHY OF THE AUTHOR Gemma V. Avril was born in 1977. She is mother, is married, and lives in Madrid. A few years ago, she decided to give in to her husband's cuckold fantasies and initiated an affair with another man. That was her first step into the hotwife lifestyle. She started to write her experiences under gemaesposacaliente.blogspot.com. Encouraged by her followers, she decided to take the step into serious writing, with the hope of sharing her experiences with a broader audience, and of helping couples interested in this lifestyle to take their first step. It is oftentimes women who are afraid of it, and the author hopes that her story will help them to overcome their prejudices. Gemma loves being in contact with her readers and for that reason she started a second blog under gemaesposacaliente.tumblr.com. In that blog, Gemma was telling her current story as a hotwife almost in real-time, in graphical format. Although that blog is temporarily paused, due to the changes in the Tumblr platform, Gema plans to resume it. In the meantime, she continues to respond to question in her Blogspot account.
