Infiltrating Culture Mireille Rosello 1996 Mireille Rosello's analysis explodes the notion of binary oppositions: the insider/outsider, black/white, straight/queer, rich/poor, solid/fluid. The infiltrator, she argues, is an ambivalent figure, one who penetrates a closed territory only to expose the fantasy upon which power relations are founded.

Texting Women Cristiano Marquez 2019-11-22 If you are reading my book's description it's because maybe you are having trouble finding a girlfriend, isn't it? It's likely that among the photos you posted online there isn't one in which you look like Leonardo di Caprio and that you think physical appearance is the only way to impress woman. Or maybe your girlfriend never texts you until you do, and when she answers, hours later, it's with a simple or . Or perhaps you're one of those guys who's convinced he can get the attention of a beautiful girl by simply texting her " Hi! " or " Hey! "? I guess I must give you a hint then, pal: Women are different from men! And naturally, they think differently, they love differently! And this is because before loving with their body women always love with their mind... In my book, "Texting Women", I give you the right tips, quick and simple, to learn everything there is to know about texting a woman, and especially to understand how to get the timing right. In your opinion, what's every man's main goal when texting a woman he likes? Easy! That she always texts him back - the sooner the better - and eagerly! But clearly, to be able get there one must study the method and train hard - as if it were a physical activity - and put all of the following steps into practice: Mindset: work on yourself. Remember how as a child you were told to always be yourself? Well, forget that! Unless you want to die alone... The thing is, there is no "self". Which self? There can be many different selves, you can be whatever you want, you can improve: To manipulate girls, first you must be able to manipulate yourself. Skills: The main skill consists in figuring out who is the girl you're writing to, what she likes, what language frequencies she travels on. By doing that, you will be able to become the mirror in which she sees herself, and in you and in your texts she will recognize a part of herself and of her mind. Techniques: The right techniques allow you to seduce girls by doing nothing, you have to get to the point where, whatever you write them, they start answering with long messages, as if they were talking about themselves with a psychologist. This way girls feel like they're seducing themselves with their own mind and will increasingly feel the need to answer your texts. Secrets: once you have completed all the previous steps, you should not be in a hurry to meet or see them, enjoy the moment and let them stew in their own juice. Raise the conversation's level by talking about spicy stuff, that's when they'll go crazy, and that's how when you'll see them in person they will already be completely obsessed with you and they will be yours. In the end it's going to be you the one not texting them back.

It argues that sentimental postmodernism deepened leftist political engagement.

Criticism and Dissent in the Middle Ages Rita Copeland 1996-06-06 What were the boundaries between 'official' and 'subversive', 'orthodox' and 'dissenting' critical practices in the Middle Ages? Placing medieval critical and intellectual discourses within their cultural and ideological frameworks, Criticism and Dissent in the Middle Ages examines conflicts of gender, violence, academic freedom, hermeneutical authority, sacramentalism and heresy among so-called official as well as dissenting critical orders. Pedagogies, theories of grammar and rhetoric, poetics and hermeneutics, academic 'sciences', clerical professionalism, literacy, visual images, theology, and textual cultures of heresy are all considered. This 1996 collection of essays by major scholars examines medieval critical discourse, theories of textuality and interpretation, and representations of learning and knowledge - as contesting and contested institutional practices within and between Latin and vernacular cultures.

Fragile Minds and Vulnerable Souls Sarah L. Leonard 2015 Fragile Minds and Vulnerable Souls investigates the creation of "obscene writings and images" as a category of print in nineteenth-century Germany. Sarah L. Leonard charts the process through which texts of many kinds—from popular medical works to stereoscope cards—were deemed dangerous to the intellectual and emotional lives of vulnerable consumers. She shows that these definitions often hinged as much on the content of texts as on their perceived capacity to distort the intellect and inflame the imagination. Leonard tracks the legal and mercantile channels through which sexually explicit material traveled as Prussian expansion opened new routes for the movement of culture and ideas. Official conceptions of obscenity were forged through a heterogeneous body of laws, police ordinances, and expert commentary. Many texts acquired the stigma of immorality because they served nonelite readers and passed through suspect spaces; books and pamphlets sold by peddlers or borrowed from fly-by-night lending libraries were deemed particularly dangerous. Early on, teachers and theologians warned against the effects of these materials on the mind and soul; in the latter half of the century, as the study of inner life was increasingly medicalized, physicians became the leading experts on the detrimental side effects of the obscene. In Fragile Minds and Vulnerable Souls, Leonard shows how distinctly German legal and medical traditions of theorizing obscenity gave rise to a new understanding about the mind and soul that endured into the next century.

Women, Seduction, and Betrayal in Biblical Narrative Alice Bach 1997-08-28 This accessible, readable book looks at the cultural study of the Bible, challenging the traditional mode of reading the women in the Bible. Alice Bach applies literary theory, cultural representations of biblical figures, films, and paintings to a close reading of a group of biblical texts revolving around the 'wicked' literary figures in the Bible. She compares the biblical character of the wife of Potiphar with the Second Temple Period narratives and rabbinic midrashim that expand her story. She then reads Bathsheba against a Yiddish novel by David Pinski, and finally looks at the Biblical Salome against a very different Salome created by Oscar Wilde, and the selection of Salomes created by Hollywood. Bach argues that biblical characters have a life in the mind of the reader independent of the stories in which they were created, thus making the reader the site at which the texts and the cultures that produced them come together.
