Love & Self-Esteem - Birgit Roswell

2020-03-13

#TOP RATED AUTHOR ON LOVE AND RELATIONSHIPS Do you have someone you love? Do they have low self-esteem? Do you love them too much that they drive you nuts? Are you wondering how you can love them even though they have low self-esteem? Well, you have come to the right place. When you have suffered low self-esteem, learning to love yourself can be pretty tough. What about loving someone else with low self-esteem, isn't that most difficult? Loving someone with low self-esteem can feel like you are not good enough for them. There are times when you feel like running away from your loved one because everything you do feels unworthy. I was in the same position you are now, and I know what you must be going through. The truth is, while low self-esteem is easy to explain, it is hard to understand for some. It's a feeling of shame about who you are. Such a person does not love themselves and trying to show them, love is even more difficult - they are stuck in that skin, hate, and self-pity, and you are the only one that can help them overcome. One thing you must note is that your loved one - whether spouse, partner, sister, friend, or parent - will make mistakes. Big mistakes because of their low self-esteem. But will you just abandon your loved one because of this? Definitely, NOT. In this book, Love & Low Self-Esteem, you will learn: What it means to have a low self-esteem Where low self-esteem comes from How unconditional self-love helps us love others unconditionally A step-by-step guide

The Last Act of Love - Cathy Rentzenbrink 2015 In the summer of 1990 - two weeks before his GCSE results, which turned out to be the best in his school - Cathy Rentzenbrink's brother Matty was knocked down by a car on the way home from a night out, suffering serious head injuries.
He was left in a permanent vegetative state.
Over the following years, Cathy and her parents took care of Matty - they built an extension onto the village pub where they lived and worked; they talked to him, fed him, bathed him, loved him. But there came a point at which it seemed the best thing they could do for Matty - and for themselves - was let him go. With unflinching honesty and raw emotional power, Cathy describes the unimaginable pain of losing her brother and the decision that changed her family's lives forever. As she delves into the past and reclaims memories that have lain buried for many years, Cathy reconnects with the bright, funny, adoring brother she lost and is finally able to see the end of his life as it really was - a last act of love. Powerful, intimate and intensely moving, this is a personal journey with universal resonance - a story of unconditional love, of grief, survival and the strength of the ties that bind. It's a story that will speak to anyone who has lost someone close to them, to anyone who has fiercely loved a sibling, and to anyone who has ever wondered whether prolonging a loved one's life might be more heartbreaking than saying goodbye.

In Love in Pain - Janice Moss 2015-10-10

In love In Pain reveals the strange, but so true correlation between love and pain. Being in love is associated with happiness and joy in the normal scheme of things. But in reality, there is often times so much pain associated with loving someone unconditionally. This book addresses the many sources of pain associated with loving. The pain of lies, deceit, disappointment, discovery, and the very harsh pain of being forced to accept reality instead of the perfect fantasy relationships we dream up for ourselves. In Love in Pain is a study of how women behave in relationships. It takes a candid look at the destructive behaviors women adopt while trying to find and maintain love. It is the rational mind in touch with the emotions of a woman. It is a candid look at how willing they are to give away parts of themselves to keep or attract men that if women truly are healthy they would not tolerate. The book reads like a suspense/romance novel style. But can serve as an personal examination and inventory that each woman can use to evaluate her life. Each story is a fictionalized depletion of a real life scenario. Where a woman finds herself faced with important decisions that will affect and effect her life and relationships. The stories of In Love In Pain are not designed to focus on men and how they treat women, but on how the woman's behavior, the woman's decisions and response to the stimuli created by love or obsession affects her life and her relationships. Each woman in the stories had to make decisions about how she would pilot her own life and how she would determine when it was appropriate for her to cut her losses and come to grips with a relationship where the love is overshadowed by the pain. The primary focus: how each woman responds to what she perceives as love and how she behaves in order to try to keep that love. In Love In Pain reveals the hard part of relationships and how women in love will put themselves in physical, emotional, spiritual and physical danger to keep the facade of a relationship that is not nourishing, supportive or fulfilling. Caitlyn, Dedra, Yasmine, Marva and Sherese are in love. Each one has some heavy decisions regarding that love. Can love conquer all things? Will Caitlyn's love be able to overcome her husband's second family? Is Dedra's love enough to endure a prison term? Will Yasmine's love be enough for her and her husband? Will Marva and Sherese's love overcome a con artist and lazy man? These women are faced with hard decisions but they don't have to face them alone. Each character has a pot on the stove boiling and it's about to boil over. Caitlyn finds out that everything she thought was her own is not, Dedra realizes that if loving her baby daddy is wrong she finally wants to be right. Yasmine understands that love must be a two-way street, while Marva's heart unfortunately cashes a check one too many times for her husband and Sherese can't see the gift in her situation. If the truth be known, what many if not most of the characters are looking for is not love, but rather, an in-love experience and that is exactly what they got. But they stayed too long and that experience turned to pain. Women when you finish reading it.

Conveniently lay it around so that your man will pick it up. This book holds a very special message for men and women. I recently read this book and I would recommend this book to anyone who has loved someone too much only to find out they were not worthy of you. I went away from this book with a sense of hope and understanding of why people stay. The characters are people we know and love and in the best of trying to be there can be difficult and painful to watch. The author manages to give realistic outcomes for her characters. My hope is when you read this book you will know that you are not alone and there is help out there if you are willing to ask and accept it.

When She Knows She Is Loved - Paul Goosey
Bennett 2020-08-26

I learned early in my life what love is.
Unfortunately, I learned late in life how to love. I was always receiving love and thought what I was giving in return was love. I thought love was a measurable thing and how someone loved me was the way I was to love them in return. To me, that was what I thought loving was all about. As I grew from a child to an adult, I realized that whenever I decided I loved someone, that feeling never changed. It was the weirdest thing. After whatever hurt they may have caused and however their feelings may have changed towards me, my feelings for them never changed. I'm not an expert when it comes to loving, but I'm experienced enough to know what I feel and what I want to share. I get the feeling that if I could put my heart in everyone else's chest, love would continuously flow freely, and joy would be the order of everyone's day.

But it doesn't work that way. Love is as unique as a fingerprint. No two people loves the same.
So I would encourage everyone who will take time to read and try to understand my thoughts, hopefully, you will realize that love is about channeling that feeling you feel when you're loved to everyone else, and then and only then you will know love.

An Inspiration About Life Or Love - Sibusiso Tshabangu 2020-03-05

this is a once in a lifetime, to get an opportunity to share in a true insight about love, life, and relationships, how we can get comfortable in relationships, about life and loving each other, how you can undermine the presence of someone's life in your life. It begins with you as a person before you can even go further, that you should always give everything that you have, don't undermined love for someone in your life.
The world has changed so much that we have reached a certain stage in life where a lot of things have come in between life and loving each other, the world has been mastered by a lot of people in life, if you are not careful when loving a human being, you can fall on the wrong side of life. You can work through life until you become a Master at your field but that just defines the part of life alone, life defines your individual purpose, but love calls you into focusing on learning how to live with someone, with understanding in a peaceful and loving environment for the other that has come in your life as well. You must learn how to value love in your life as the presence of someone in your life could never be repeated again, a lot of people before they can go through a situation of breakdown in life they have lost their focus because they didn't realise how important is love and loving someone. Man and woman must learn to value life and love in this world, before you can get lost because of lacking seriousness in relationships. Without love human beings can get lost more than they can ever imagine, the world has been created in two forms, love and life. You can't neglect one and be normal, you will feel the strain of living without the other, whether you want to master life or not you must understand the importance of both in life. An inspiration about life or love is a reflection about life and love, and how people should acknowledge the time they have spent with each other in relationships, how so much that you have done has formed part of who you are. So much that you can have in a relationship can feel like it is something that you can be able to find somewhere, but nothing can ever offer you more than what you have already, and remember that what you have is for the rest of your life. When you give yourself to love, love with everything that you have, don't hold back on love or look down on someone who loves you, give your heart to your partner so that you can be satisfied with how you have loved a person. There is so much that can come between in life, when you are not careful about love, or when you have neglected your duties to love someone, with everything that there is in life, the world has become so binding that if you undermined loving someone, you can become very vulnerable to everything that there is in life. Life cannot harm you when you are committed to loving your partner only when you overlook your obligation to love your partner, you can become a victim of life like that. So take every opportunity available to love and use it wisely, because you cannot always have everything your way in life.

Why Does Love Hurt so Good? - Ondray Pearson

Why Does Love Hurt So Good? It's hard to explain why we stay with someone who isn't treating or loving them the way they should. Staying, some would say is foolish, unhealthy and not normal, and they're right, but for you to understand the why, you must experience loving someone first hand because until you do, you have no idea the power that love has over many of us. Within these stories, you will read and experience what people will do to have someone love them. Sex, lies, deception, betrayal, abuse, and infidelity were just a few of the traits used to obtain what they thought would make them happy in their relationship. As you read, you will, at some point, have to rethink what you thought you knew about love because, contrary to what many think and believe, not all love is good love that we receive from those we love. Readers are talking: Avis Parter, from Fayetteville, North Carolina, says, "It truly touched my soul, I saw myself in it. I loved it; I cried because it was so my life. I needed this book three years ago." Deborah Antrum, St. Louis, Missouri, says, "I read your book, and I love it! I let my daughter read also. I am looking forward to what you have in the making; you have my FULL support."
