A WOMAN'S GUIDE TO TRUE LOVE WITHOUT FIRST HAVING A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN - Sheldon Engel 2021-04-22

To those women who seek true love and who have known the perils of disappointment, hurt, and futility, this book is dedicated to providing such women with intuition and self-presentment techniques to increase their probability of successfully achieving a potential true love relationship with a man. Such intuition should also probably eliminate the woman's choosing a man destined to cause her pain and suffering without his having any remorse. As a successful divorce lawyer for over thirty-five years, I have often seen the causation of a divorce being love lost or the undeniable realization that love never existed in the marriage. However, I have also observed women divorcees overcome their fear of failure and hurt and, with the use of relevant intuition and her self-presentment, find and maintain a true love relationship with a man. The critical elements of the intuition a woman must embody and herself present to the man in order to have a chance of a long-term relationship of true love with such man is formulated on my experiences as a divorce lawyer and my personal encounters to discover and maintain true love with a woman. The described elements of the intuition in each's exercise depends on the woman's ability to ferret out the true character of the men she encounters in her quest to find true love. Of course, the effective utilization of a woman's intuition is regularly challenged by her needs, desperation, and anxiety. Confidence in the woman's intuition and her self-presentment persona must dominate over her immediate needs so that a woman can achieve the probability of success in finding and maintaining true love with a man. The woman's guide to true love is not only based on her development of her intuition to eliminate expeditiously the false male candidate but also retain a man whose positive attributes overcome his modifiable faults. Moreover, in judging a man by her intuition, the woman must also portray herself as being the one for her male partner. To secure true love and maintain such love, the woman's intuition must be coupled with the manner of presenting herself with honest, reflective characteristics of her being. The purpose of this book is not to clarify my achievements as a divorce lawyer. The purpose is to use my knowledge gained from such legal specialty as well as from the insight I developed as a product of the successes and failures in my personal quest to find and maintain true love with a woman, to give birth to the development of a woman's intuition and her self-presentation to her suitor, and to increase the probability of achieving true love without first having a nervous breakdown.

My Woman His Wife 3 - Anna J. 2012-11-01

It's been four years since Monica disrupted the Cinque household, but starting trouble is like riding a bike for Monica, and she's pedaling full steam ahead. The foundation of Jasmine and James Cinque's marriage has been shaky ever since they dared to bring a third person into their union. Now they're trying to repair the damage they've done, to regain trust and repair broken hearts. But with so much drama in their past, it won't be hard for Monica to come in and shake things up a little. If Monica is smart, though, she'll watch her back. With so many enemies gunning to take her down, Monica has to decide if Philly is where she wants to be or if she should run back to the ATL where it's safe. Or is it? Breaking up is hard to do, but making up proves to be just as challenging, especially if Monica has anything to do with it.

My Roots, My Love, My Destiny - Beatrice Akpu Inyang Eleje 2012-07-24

My Roots, My Love, My Destiny is the story of two strong women, told across an epic and rich canvas painted by two wars and two unique destinies. In her ninety-six years, Ogeri, author Beatrice Akpu Inyang Eleje's mother, experienced danger, heartbreak, and great love. Her journey spanned most of the twentieth century and was dictated by the societal norms, values, and traditions of the Nigeria of her time. Lovingly reconstructed, these are a few of Eleje's most beloved and revered memories of her mother. For the daughter, her journey was spent attempting to navigate rapidly changing waters. Caught between two colliding civilizations—the Western civilization and African culture and Nigeria—two cultures, and two world views, her path was less certain. While one world encouraged independence, the other demanded absolute filial obedience. Rebellion was inevitable. As Eleje listened to her mother speak of her life, the similarities emerged. Both women survived their husbands, and both knew the heartache of illness, loss, and uncertainty—as well as the joys of love in the most unexpected places. But through it all rings a life-sustaining truth worth celebrating: no matter how dark the tunnel, there is always light just around the corner ... if you can just lift your head to look. Designed to inspire younger women to persevere in the face of seemingly in-surmountable odds, the story of these two women proves that no matter what, you just need to take the next step—to-ward hope.

I've grown tired of meeting love's representative and I'm sure all of you are too. We have a need to be loved. A significant determinant of our happiness is whether we feel loved. After long hours of researching and days spent looking through the lenses of different people about love, I was able to give you all the truth. This was no easy task but one that needed to be tackled. There are three sides to a story: my side, your side, and the truth.

"MY WORLD MY WORK MY WOMAN ALL MY OWN" READING DANTE GABRIEL ROSSETTI IN HIS VISUAL AND TEXTUAL NARRATIVES - Yildiz Kilic 2014-08-15

Dante Gabriel Rossetti, Pre-Raphaelite extraordinaire, is unique as Victorian proto-expressionistic painter-poet, who relentlessly sought representation of a tormented personified-self through the communicative relationship between image and word. In this interdisciplinary study is considered the narrative interaction that unifies ideas and forms into a self-expressive dialectical that informs of autonomous individualism and gender politics as a social problematic. Rossetti, known universally as a charismatic and vibrantly passionate man, is tangibly revealed in the most tenderly transparent narratives to be a haunted and socially subjugated man who searched for self-definition as a man and as an artist. By an intricate analysis of key textual and visual narratives Yildiz Kilic provides an insightful and wholly original interpretation of Rossetti as Victorian victim and innovator.

Under My Thumb - Rhian Jones 2017-10-19

In the majority of mainstream writing and discussions on music, women appear purely in relation to men as muses, groupies or fangirls, with our own experiences, ideas and arguments dismissed or ignored. But this hasn't stopped generations of women from loving, being moved by and critically appreciating music, even - and sometimes especially - when we feel we shouldn't. Under My Thumb: Songs that Hate Women and the Women Who Love Them is a study of misogyny in music through the eyes of women. It brings together stories from journalists, critics, musicians and fans about artists or songs we love (or used to love) despite their questionable or troubling gender politics, and looks at how these issues interact with race, class and sexuality. As much celebration as critique, this collection explores the joys, tensions, contradictions and complexities of women loving music - however that music may feel about them. Featuring: murder ballads, country, metal, hip hop, emo, indie, Phil Spector, David Bowie, Guns N' Roses, 2Pac, the Rolling Stones, Bob Dylan, AC/DC, Elvis Costello, Jarvis Cocker, Kanye West, Swans, Eminem, Jay-Z, Taylor Swift, Combichrist and many more.
