also forced to wrestle with the decision that she is putting her own career on the line by sticking up for the LGBTQ employees of Serebi Diagnostics Inc. Though in love with Shondra, Pullum is unwilling to commit to Shondra. Her reason? She can't be with a person who is still lying to herself. Her demand, though simple, is almost impossible for Shondra to compromise. The only way to receive Pullum's love is to be truthful to the entire world. That will involve Shondra admitting to anyone and everyone that she is in fact, a lesbian. How will Shondra be able to pull herself from all this? ***** A subtle tingle of pleasure coursed up Shondra's spine. Racked by the earlier orgasms that was now slowly fading into its hedonistic oblivion, Shondra opened her eyes to look at Pullum. She was greeted with the view of the artist's head resting on her stomach. Pullum's scalp was like a planet, rising and falling to Shondra's breathing. Though she could not see Pullum's eyes, Shondra was relieved. It gave her the chance to gather her wits and courage about her. Finding herself under Pullum's discerning gaze often left her tongue-tied. "Have you thoughts about what I said the other day?" Shondra asked. She did not have to repeat the sentence. Her confession of love had not been reciprocated by the artist, who had looked away quietly when Shondra had professed those three important words. "I have," Pullum's voice came at a slight muffle near Shondra's abdomen. She lifted her head, so that their eyes met. In the darkness of the studio, the subtle glitter in Pullum's eyes remained iridescent, absorbing the rather pernicious rays of the city night life. There was a small furrow of worry in her face. "If you don't love me..." Shondra began, fearing the worst. Bonus FREE Books VIP Lesbian Romance Reader Group FREE BOOK EVERY WEEK

The only thing keeping old anger in check and him on the straight and narrow are the men he calls brothers and the club he calls home. He has no business taking the sexy woman doing shots in his club upstairs to his bed. They never should have crossed paths. But when Assistant District Attorney Scarlett Davis lays eyes on the hot as sin club owner, she decides he's the birthday present she wants to unwrap at the end of the evening. He tells himself it's one night. She convinces herself she deserves a short break from her latest case. But one night isn't enough and soon these two opposites are in deeper than they ever planned. When Scarlett's case collides with Tanner's past, she sees the dangerous man he's hidden beneath the cool veneer he presents to the world. Can she accept him for who he is? Or will she run from the bad boy who makes her feel so good?
