Modern Romance - Aziz Ansari 2015-06-16

The #1 New York Times Bestseller "An engaging look at the often head-scratching, frequently infuriating mating behaviors that shape our love lives." —Refinery 29 A hilarious, thoughtful, and in-depth exploration of the pleasures and perils of modern romance from Aziz Ansari, the star of Master of None and one of this generation's sharpest comedic voices At some point, every one of us embarks on a journey to find love. We meet people, date, get into and out of relationships, all with the hope of finding someone with whom we share a deep connection. This seems standard now, but it's wildly different from what people did even just decades ago. Single people today have more romantic options than at any point in human history. With technology, our abilities to connect with and sort through these options are staggering. So why are so many people frustrated? Some of our problems are unique to our time. "Why did this guy just text me an emoji of a pizza?" "Should I go out with this girl even though she listed Combos as one of her favorite snack foods? Combos?!" "My girlfriend just got a message from some dude named Nathan. Who's Nathan? Did he just send her a photo of his penis? Should I check just to be sure?" But the transformation of our romantic lives can't be explained by technology alone. In a short period of time, the whole culture of finding love has changed dramatically. A few decades ago, people would find a decent person who lived in their neighborhood. Their families would meet and, after deciding neither party seemed like a murderer, they would get married and soon have a kid, all by the time they were twenty-four. Today, people marry later than ever and spend years of their lives on a quest to find the perfect person, a soul mate. For years, Aziz Ansari has been aiming his comic insight at modern romance, but for Modern Romance, the book, he decided he needed to take things to another level. He teamed up with NYU sociologist Eric Klinenberg and designed a massive research project, including hundreds of interviews and focus groups conducted everywhere from Tokyo to Buenos Aires to Wichita. They analyzed behavioral data and surveys and created their own online research forum on Reddit, which drew thousands of messages. They enlisted the world's leading social scientists, including Andrew Cherlin, Eli Finkel, Helen Fisher, Sheena Iyengar, Barry Schwartz, Sherry Turkle, and Robb Willer. The result is unlike any social science or humor book we've seen before. In Modern Romance, Ansari combines his irreverent humor with cutting-edge social science to give us an unforgettable tour of our new romantic world.

she's been. Nora didn't choose a life of deception - she was born into it. As the daughter of a con artist who targeted criminal men, Nora always had to play a part. But when her mother fell for one of the men instead of conning him, Nora pulled the ultimate con herself: escape. For five years Nora's been playing at normal - but things are far from it when she finds herself held at gunpoint in the middle of a bank heist, along with Wes (her ex-boyfriend) and Iris (her secret new girlfriend and mutual friend of Wes ... awkward). Now it will take all of Nora's con artistry skills to get them out alive. Because the gunmen have no idea who she really is - that girl has been in hiding for far too long ... There's Something I Want to Tell You - Yuta Aoki 2015-02-02

Ever wondered what it's like to date Japanese men and women? How will culture affect your dating life? This book explores dating histories of 15 people of 8 nationalities, including straight and LGBT people. Some of them came to Japan because of their job, and some by their choice, but they have one thing in common: struggling with dating Japanese men and women. Nadia, a black American woman, met her Japanese fiance on a dark street when he approached her in a car. James, a white British man, saved a Japanese girl from a robber, and she became his first girlfriend. Sabina, a Russian model, talks about her sex life with her Japanese husband. Andre, a Jamaican man, married a Japanese woman for the promise of coming to Japan, which she didn't fulfil. Lily, a white American woman, realizes that there's something Japanese men have in common. ...and so on. Their stories are full of mistakes, cultural conflicts, sexy times, lessons learned, and happy moments. The author, who grew up in Japan, offers cultural perspective to each story to elucidate Japanese psyche. Welcome to the curious world of dating in Japan!

ended up here, which is the best place to discover all the things dating gurus will never tell you about approaching beautiful women the right way. In Chapter 1, WWWW, we gave a list of words that'll appear as we learn the craft of approaching a woman. We discussed the only two types of ways to woo her which are ID (Indirect opener) and DO (Direct Opener), and how they're applied with examples. We looked into nervousness. We looked into the Five WWWWs of starting a conversation with a woman which are: Where, When, Why, What, & Which. And we finally added extra examples of DO and ID. In Chapter 2, Operation Rejection, shortened as ORej. We talked on approaching women while having rejection as your most important outcome. If you're not rejected, it's a failure. Being rejected is a success. We looked into 7 different "How Tos" which are: how to woo a seated girl (in any settings); how to woo in class, school, gym centers, gatherings, events and parties; how to woo at the workplace or in an office; how to woo a girl who makes you nervous; how to woo a stubborn girl; how to woo a girl at the market or mall, and how to woo a girl on the queue (any queue) with some examples for each. In Chapter 3, ON/OFF, we discussed how Push and Pull (PP) works with some examples. We talked on the types of push and pull. We also looked into things you'll have or be that'll make you never to be nervous around girls. We gave an example on building rapport with Sad Anchor and other explanations. In Chapter 4, look inside to see what it's all about. In Chapter 5, Accidental Accusation, we talked on how to accuse a girl to start a conversation. This technique gets a woman hooked with curiosity. We looked into psychological compliments and humor with some examples of how they work. We briefly discussed how to treat a woman and how to book a date. I told some personal stories and gave some examples. We also discussed one of the keys to dating. We talked about flaking and how to handle women's insult and convert them to compliments. In Chapter 6, Legends' Magic. This is one of the most important chapters, because we gave some brief explanations on other things and finally looked into the magic formula to come up with your personal conversations. We discussed the mighty EARTH formulas. The three types and gave an example of each. We have iEarth, EARTH, and EARTHics. In Chapter 7, Kidding, we gave a list of childish and stupid pick-up lines which will not make sense to men, but women will laugh when they hear some of them. We gave an example on iSHY wooing/chatting technique. In Chapter 8, Mindset. We talked on how you should not start a conversation from the beginning, but always from the middle. We talked on how to woo a lady you haven't seen before. We equally discussed how to use arrogance and humor to woo a lady. We discussed a good-bad boy and a typical bad boy and much more Finally, we revealed something that'll FOREVER change your life in the dating game and stay ahead of other men with picture illustrations. A secret you can't find anywhere online or offline. marathoning her favorite TV shows (best friends totally included) with the smallest dash of adulating—working at the library to pay her share of the rent. The only thing missing from her perfect plan? Her girlfriend (who ended things when Alice confessed she's asexual). Alice is done with dating—no thank you, do not pass go, stick a fork in her, done. But then Alice meets Takumi and she can't stop thinking about him or the rom com-grade romance feels she did not ask for (uncertainty, butterflies, and swoons, oh my!). When her blissful summer takes an unexpected turn and Takumi becomes her knight with a shiny library-employee badge (close enough), Alice has to decide if she's willing to risk their friendship for a love that might not be reciprocated—or understood. Claire Kann's debut novel Let's Talk About Love, chosen by readers like you for Macmillan's young adult imprint Swoon Reads, gracefully explores the struggle with emerging adulthood and the complicated line between friendship and what it part memoir and part how-to guide. It chronicles the journey Christina and Stella have taken together, from the day they met, to the day Stella 'spoke' her first word, and the other breakthroughs they've had since. It also reveals the techniques Christina used to teach Stella, broken down into simple stages and actionable steps any dog owner can use to start communicating with their best four-legged friend. Filled with conversations that Stella and Christina have had, as well as the attention to developmental detail that only a speech-language pathologist could know, How Stella Learned to Talk is the indispensable dog book for you and your puppy pal.

The Charisma Myth - Olivia Fox Cabane

What if charisma could be taught? The charisma myth is the idea that charisma is a fundamental, inborn quality—you either have it (Bill Clinton, Steve Jobs, Oprah) or you don't. But that's simply not true, as Olivia Fox Cabane reveals. Charismatic behaviors can be learned and perfected by anyone. Drawing on techniques she originally developed for Harvard and MIT, Cabane breaks charisma down into its components. Becoming more charismatic doesn't mean transforming your fundamental personality. It's about adopting a series of specific practices that fit in with the personality you already have. The Charisma Myth shows you how to become more influential, more persuasive, and more inspiring.
