There are a lot of producers who claim their movie is a Coming of Age film, but how many of them actually are? Here you will find out exactly which ones are in the genre. A book that took years to write, and covers only the movies that fit into the realm of Coming Of Age. I am the first and, as far as I know only person to write a book dedicated to girls in coming of age movies, and I do so having compiled a list of over 800 titles, plus, I also show you how to find even more videos from independent film makers. Yeah, you've heard of Blue Is The Warmest Color, and Angela, but what about No Bikini or Happy Birthday Kristinka? The guide lists the popular titles, but also little known films. They are listed by title, and if known year of release, and all have descriptions. It used to be that Coming of Age meant tween girls, but now any age up to 17 is being considered by movie makers as being Coming of Age, so I have compiled a list of girls of all ages up to 17. Some of these movies won awards, and some of them were banned in other countries as being too controversial. You are getting a list of movies from around the world, including USA, Russia, Japan, Germany, Belgium, France, England, Ireland, Israel, Turkey, China, Brazil, Mexico, Argentina, Australia, and Sweden.
