Women Unveiled, Vol. 2 - Erika Etienne

2020-12-31

Do you ever wonder what the secret is for women who face struggles but still seem to keep it all together? Are you complimented for your display of strength but wish others knew that your life is not perfectly molded and that you sometimes miss a beat? In Women Unveiled, Vol. 2: Secrets of Strong Women, eleven women, led by Erika Etienne, give transparent accounts about the secrets behind their strength. There are many misconceptions when defining a woman's strength and even misguided thoughts that she may never shed a tear or reach a breaking point. However, these stories reveal that women handle and overcome difficult situations only with an abundance of the Lord's grace and support from divinely placed people who help shoulder the burden. These stories will demonstrate real-life examples of what relying on God to conquer life's difficulties looks like. Through them, you will learn to trust God's plan for victory when the circumstances you face seem to point to failure.

Strong Female Lead - Arwa Mahdawi 2021-11-25

'Fascinating . . . the most incredible argument for why a female model of leadership might actually be the more powerful and sustainable one' Scarlett Curtis 'A bold, rigorous and lyrical work which feels both timely and essential' Musa Okwonga, author of One of Them Women have been told to 'lean in' and act like men to get ahead. But as our systems crumble, isn't it time we had a different plan? While some at the top are telling us 'it is what it is' as we face financial collapse, a global pandemic, the devastation of our environment and the disintegration of democracies, a new generation of leaders are showing the world how to be better. They're building trust, investing wisely and actively decisively - and they've got one thing in common. In Strong Female Lead, Arwa Mahdawi investigates the qualities of female leaders who show us how it's done, drawing on original research and interviews with Madeleine Albright, Mary Robinson, Audrey Tang and many others and answering a vital question: what can women in power teach all of us about leadership?

One Strong Woman - 2018-09

Eye Was in the Dark - Madalyn Murray
2020-03-22

There was a young woman who went through hell just to come out right to love. However; her parents and others around her failed her as young and grown. It's up to this young woman to come out of the darkness and into the light of what love truly like before she stays in the dark. In life mathematics is the key of unlocking all doors of reality in today's society. And that light can make a person life bright. No one can live for you but you and be the master of your life, by taking control over self. There are many who suffer and then you have those that chose to stay in the dark. There is no savior that is coming to save you but your own damn self. There are times we wonder in life why things happen to us in life and not willing to accept accountability of the things that have taken place within our lives. In order to be better one must have to be prepared to do better and come out of the top.

Strong Woman - Karren Brady 2012-03-29
Karren Brady is now one of the most high-profile business women in the UK following on her success with the BBC Junior Apprentice this summer, and the forthcoming series 6 of The Apprentice where she'll be Sir Alan Sugar's right-hand woman judging the contestants. She has been voted Business Woman of the Year twice in the past four years and is a constant feature in many of the high-profile weekly magazines. Karren has spent 16 years as a managing director in the English Premier League - firstly at Birmingham City (where she made her name) and since last year at West Ham United, where she recently sacked the popular manager Gianfranco Zola. This is a strong-minded, talented woman breaking through the glass ceiling of a male-dominated industry, beating the boys at their own game, and she wants to tell you how she did it, and how she plans to stay there. Along the way this will be an extremely enjoyable ride through her career thus far in the footballing and media worlds, providing humorous insights into the type of players, managers, celebrities, and pundits she has had to deal with. The shocking way the majority of Premier League clubs are run, the financial state most of them are in, and the rules she thinks need to be enforced to get back to a healthy state. Allied to this, will be her take on the business world in general, the state of the country's finances post-credit crunch, and of course her new-found success in the TV world with Sir Alan Sugar, and most recently Sir Phillip Green.

13 Things Mentally Strong Women Don't Do - Amy Morin 2019-01-10

The emergence of the #MeToo and #TimesUp movements have awakened society and encouraged women to find their voice and claim back their power. Contending with a host of difficult issues that demand psychological strength - in this crucial book, prominent psychotherapist and licensed clinical social worker Amy Morin gives women the techniques to build mental muscle in 13 steps. Delving into critical issues like sexism, social media, social comparison, and social pressure, Amy offers thoughtful, intelligent advice, practical tips, and specific strategies; combining them with her personal experiences, stories from former patients, and both well-known and untold examples from women from across industries and pop culture. Throughout, she explores the areas women - and society at large - must focus on to become (and remain) mentally strong. Amy reveals that healthy, mentally tough women don't insist on perfection; they don't compare themselves to other people; they don't see vulnerability as a weakness; they don't let self-doubt stop them from reaching their goals. Insightful, grounded, and extremely timely, 13 THINGS MENTALLY STRONG WOMEN DON'T DO can help every woman flourish - and Amy will take readers on this journey with her, every step of the way.
