Marketing the Arts - Finola Kerrigan 2010-04-27

In recent years, there have been significant shifts in arts marketing, both as a practice and an academic discipline. The relationship between art and the market is increasingly complex and dynamic, requiring a transformation in the way the arts are marketed. Marketing the Arts argues that arts marketing is not about the simple application of mainstream managerial marketing to the arts. With contributions from international scholars of marketing and consumer studies, this book engages directly with a range of contemporary themes, including: The importance of arts consumption and its social dimensions The importance of

~~the aesthetic experience itself,~~
and how to research it Arts policy development The art versus commerce debate The role of the arts marketer as market-maker The artist as brand or entrepreneur This exciting new book covers topics as diverse as Damien Hirst's 'For the Love of God', Liverpool's brand makeover, Manga scanlation, Gob Squad, Surrealism, Bluegrass music, Miles Davis and Andy Warhol, and is sure to enthuse students and enlighten practitioners.

Revitalize Your Relationship

- Erin Aquin 2020-10-10

habits and insecurities--to creating the wildly beautiful relationship and life you want, on purpose. Filled with hands-on exercises you can apply to improve your relationship immediately, Revitalize Your Relationship distills wisdom from author and Master Life Coach, Erin Aquin's years of coaching experience. Read this book if you are ready to:
* End arguments
* Let go of past resentment
* Ask for and get what you want in your life
* Have more love and joy in every relationship
* Enjoy a thriving partnership
In short, you will learn how to create Wild, Beautiful Love.
** Advance Praise for Revitalize Your Relationship **
"Yes to ALL of this. Erin has captured the true principles to improving your relationship. There is tons of advice out there that doesn't get to the core of what works. This book gets at that core to deliver the real awareness, understanding and insight every person needs in order to create the relationship they want. Read and apply EVERYTHING she says." ~ Dr. Chavonne Perotte

Life + Marriage Coach and author of Voices In Your Ear
"Erin is highly intuitive and the messages she brings into the world land with so much resonance. I know that this book will give you a chance to believe in love again and find ways to build bridges where you might not believe they exist. This book is real and raw and gets to the heart of things - pun intended. I know this book will help so many people not only understand their partners but understand how to love themselves as well." ~ Alea Lovely Author of Me, Myself, and Why and host of the Spiritual Shit podcast
"I've had the privilege of knowing Erin Aquin for many years and I've seen her build a beautiful life. Erin knows that our lives naturally unfold from our innermost being and she knows how to guide you to discover your own deepest self. And she has that rare ability to support you to align your life with your true desires and aspirations. If you are looking for someone to help you create the relationship and the life that you truly want, you could do no better than to pick up this book and work with Erin Aquin."

~Jeff Carreira Meditation teacher and author of The Art of Conscious Contentment"Real. Truthful. Loving. This book will give you everything you need to change the most important relationships in your life, including the one with yourself. Erin has done it and can absolutely show you the way.

Authors are a lot like yoga instructors (and she is both): we all have the one who gets the message across for us--gets us to show up and practice week after week. So even if this is the 27th book you've picked up, keep going. She may be the one that finally lands in that sweet spot of learning and loving for you. Enjoy the gift that is this book."~Caryn Gillen Business Coach and author of I Wanted It

Administrative System Innovation and Building a Public Service-Oriented Government - Marc Holzer
2019-11-15

From the late 1970s until the present day, the New Public Management movement flourished in the United Kingdom, New Zealand, Australia and a number of other countries over the globe. Nowadays, governments across the world are more service-oriented than previously, and administrative system innovations are encouraging new ways of improving public services. Increasingly, more and more countries are witnessing administrative innovations to provide better, quicker, and more efficient and effective service to the public. To this end, this collection of essays highlights public service theory and practices. While some chapters concentrate on innovation in administrative systems, others pay attention to more theoretic and practical issues. A few examine municipal-level public service and innovation, whereas others focus on environment, community policing, public infrastructure, partnership governance, and e-service and e-participation, as well as citizen participation. The book represents an excellent, updated resource for scholars, students and practitioners in the broad field of public administration, public policy, public affairs and public management.

Creating Local Arts Together - Brian Schrag 2013-06-01

Creating Local Arts Together is a manual designed to guide an individual or group into a local community's efforts at integrating its arts with the values and purposes of God's kingdom. The practical, playful text reduces experience-based scholarly insights gained from multiple decades of incarnational ministry around the world into a flexible seven-step process. This manual is the second book in a two-volume set on the principles and practices of ethnodoxology. The first volume, entitled Worship and Mission for the Global Church: An Ethnodoxology Handbook, presents in textbook format the central "Foundations," "Stories," and "Tools" designed to equip readers in exploring more fully this important new field of research and ministry.

The Art of People - Dave Kerpen 2016-03-15

What does it take to win success and influence? Some people think that in today's hyper-competitive world, it's the tough, take-no-prisoners type who comes out on top. But in reality, argues New York Times bestselling author Dave Kerpen, it's actually those with the best people skills who win the day. Those who build the right relationships. Those who truly understand and connect with their colleagues, their customers, their partners. Those who can teach, lead, and inspire. In a world where we are constantly connected, and social media has become the primary way we communicate, the key to getting ahead is being the person others like, respect, and trust. Because no matter who you are or what profession you're in, success is contingent less on what you can do for yourself, but on what other people are willing to do for you. Here, through 53 bite-sized, easy-to-execute, and often counterintuitive tips, you'll learn to master the 11 People Skills that will get you more of what you want at work, at home, and in life. For example, you'll learn:

The Art Of Partnering Building Relationships And Getting Things Done

- The single most important question you can ever ask to win attention in a meeting
- The one simple key to networking that nobody talks about
- How to remain top of mind for thousands of people, everyday
- Why it usually pays to be the one to give the bad news
- How to blow off the right people
- And why, when in doubt, buy him a Bonsai

A book best described as "How to Win Friends and Influence People for today's world," The Art of People shows how to charm and win over anyone to be more successful at work and outside of it.

Fearful Avoidant

Attachment - Janis Bryans Psy.D

Do you feel disconnected with your partner? Does their hot & cold attitude confuse you, leaving you feeling that you can't communicate your needs? Are you worried about drifting apart? Attachment styles are the way that we connect with other people. They are generally developed by infants and further refined by children, adolescents and adults. Many of the fears, beliefs and behavioral patterns you emulate as an adult are derived from how you felt in the first few years of life. People who develop a fearful avoidant attachment style often desire closeness. They seek intimacy from partners. However, they may be unable to achieve the deep connection that they long for. The reason for this is because their attachment experiences have taught them to be fearful of intimacy. In some cases, their personality leads them to reject close bonds. This can spur a cycle of rocky relationships and extreme emotional highs and lows. A person with a fearful avoidant attachment lives in an ambivalent state of being, afraid of being both too close to or too distant from others. Understanding fearful avoidant attachment can help you to understand why you react the way you do in relationships. If you believe that a loved one has this style of attachment, understanding where the instincts come from may also help you to respond to them. People with fearful avoidant attachment may show signs of:

- Stormy, highly emotional relationships.
- Conflicting feelings about relationships (desiring a romantic relationship and being fearful of being hurt or left by a significant other).
- A negative view of themselves and elevated anxiety.
- A tendency to seek out faults in partners or friends so that they can create an excuse to leave a relationship.
- A fear or anxiety about being inadequate for a partner or relationship.
- Withdrawing from relationships when things get intimate or emotional.
- A resistance to commitment and intimacy. They attempt to keep their feelings at bay but are unable to; they can't just avoid their anxiety or run away from their feelings. Instead, they are overwhelmed by their reactions and often experience emotional storms. The person who is close to a fearful avoidant may feel: - Unvalued. - Not good enough. - Tentative. - As though they are doing something wrong. - Emotionally deprived. - Unimportant. - Unable to truly connect. - Held at arm's length. - Confused. - Lonely. - Abandoned and depressed. Such feelings, if experienced too often or too intensely, may ultimately make a relationship non-sustainable. The good news is that you can change the attachment style. It may take time, work and a great deal of understanding from people in life. However, it is possible for to build intimate, secure relationships that fulfill and help you to feel safe. If you do not intervene immediately, those who have a relationship with a fearful avoidant person will end up having to settle for a relationship made up of distances, misunderstandings and conflicts until the relationship is totally broken. Everything that you have built together will be lost forever. Understanding and managing

THE ART OF RELATIONSHIPS - RICHARD MARTINEZ 2021-07-19

Do you feel that your current relationship is hopeless, that the passion is gone, and that the person you are with does not understand you, value you, or provide what you need?

Everything that matters most in life revolves around people. Our relationships determine our quality of life. Therefore, toxic relationships will create a dysfunctional life. The relationship with our partner is the most intimate, since we share more time, space, and energy with that person than any other. The way we treat our partner, and the relationship with our children and the rest of our family, are great challenges, yet they are the most important and enriching relationships in our lives.

Dreamcrafting - Paul Levesque 2003-02-16

Many people set out to achieve a dream-starting a business or learning to play the piano or publishing a book-but they don't succeed, and the dream fizzles away. In many cases, these people have lots of skills and expertise, such as deep knowledge of the business or career they are interested in, so why don't they succeed? Paul Levesque and Art McNeil have discovered that making a dream come true requires cultivating skills of a higher order-macroskills-that inevitably spell the difference between success and failure no matter what the specifics of a person's dreams are. These are the skills Dreamcrafting outlines in detail.

The Art Of Partnering Building Relationships And Getting Things Done

Getting Things Done - David Allen 2011-09-22

Is your workload overwhelming? Does it just keep mounting up while your stress levels reach fever pitch? In Getting Things Done David Allen teaches you how to keep a clear head, relax and organise your thoughts while implementing the methods that he has introduced at organisations like Microsoft, Lockheed and the US Department of Justice: Learn the 'do it, delegate it, defer it, drop it' principle to empty your in-tray. Handle e-mail, paperwork and unexpected demands in a system of self-management. Plan and progress projects. Reassess goals and stay focused. Apply the two minute rule when deciding what to do now and what to defer. Overcome feelings of anxiety and being overwhelmed. With clear and specific methods and advice, David Allen's tried and trusted formula for business efficiency could transform the way you operate and your experience of work.

Partnering - Jean Oelwang 2022-03-10

Some of the most successful people in the world all have a secret power: their partnerships. Our individualistic society has created a cult of self-interest. The result: fear, division, and domination, which has crushed our ability to relate meaningfully to each other and diminished our ability to innovate and collaborate. Jean Oelwang, founding CEO and Trustee of Virgin Unite, has interviewed over 60 business and life partnerships - including Desmond and Leah Tutu, and Ben and Jerry - revealing how to nurture relationships with depth and purpose. These kinds of deep connections have a profound ripple effect on everything we do, supporting us to achieve more, withstand anything and amplify impact. Enduring partnerships are the foundation of a meaningful life as well as the backbone of any successful organisation. In this book she unpicks the values that connect great partners, offering practical tools for staying in sync, disagreeing respectfully and a blueprint for expanding small partnerships into large-scale collaborations. Packed with wisdom to nourish the relationships that give us strength and meaning, Partnering is a call-to-action for individuals resisting individualism to lead with purpose and impact.

Nes Ammim - Gert van Klinken 2021

Today, Europe is a favoured destination for refugees from all over the world. We might have forgotten an earlier exodus during the aftermath of the Second World War in the opposite direction. Jewish survivors of the Holocaust aimed for Palestine, and after 1948, the State of Israel. Protestants from the Netherlands, Switzerland, America and Germany intended to join the Jewish people in their new homeland by building the village Nes Ammim. The Netherlands had been occupied during the war; Switzerland had remained neutral. Germany carried the taints of guilt and defeat, the United States the laurels of the victor. What made them work together? And why did the Americans and the Swiss withdraw in 1967, the year of the Six-Day War? The many questions surrounding this village do not end here. Nes Ammim was founded near Akko in 1962. Just fourteen years earlier, a majority of the local population had been Druze or Arab. Most of the Arabs ended up as refugees, and their land was repurposed for the kibbutzim. How did Protestants relate to these events? It is not the intention of the author to impose present-day views onto the Christian founders of Nes Ammim. The challenge of understanding their mindset within the context of their time is exactly what makes them so fascinating.
