A broad and illustrated guide to many aspects of Chester's long history.

Religion, Community and Territory - Stephen James Yeates 2006

A three-part volume, consisting of synthesis, and a two-part gazetteer. Examines what is known about the development of religion in the area of the Severn Valley from the Late Bronze Age to the foundation of the minsters in the early medieval period. The second part of the survey is concerned with the association of religion, community and territory, and consequently deals with the ways in which these aspects were interrelated. A framework is proposed for explaining the long-term development of communities in the region from late prehistory to the historical period.

Roman Sculpture from the North West Midlands - Martin Henig 2004-08-12

This is the first comprehensive catalogue of the sculpture from this region of Roman Britain. The sculptures were carved locally, and provide an index of Romanisation in the far north-west of the Roman Empire - in particular at Devra (Chester), Viroconium (Wroxeter), and at Letcetum (Wall, Staffs). The works range in quality from highly accomplished and decorative altars and tombstones, to rather ham-fisted efforts which hint that it was not always possible to attract sculptors to these relatively remote places. Such factors are discussed in an extended introduction.

Eagles Over Britannia - Guy De la Bédoyère 2001

The Tribe of Witches - Stephen James Yeates 2008

"Discussions concerning pre-Christian religion in Western Europe have, for many years, been considered problematic due to a lack of texts, material culture, and the theoretical framework into which place-name studies have been constructed. This study examines the relationship between two groups of peoples, or tribes, the Iron Age Dobunni and the early medieval people known as Hwicce, whose territories in the Severn Valley and Cotswolds overlapped."--BOOK JACKET.
