Love Conquers All - Lisa Fikes 2010-12

Do you want love to mark your life? Do you want love to saturate your relationships? Do you want love to bless your steps? Do you want love to define your reputation? If you want more love in your life, then you must learn how to show love to others and receive love at its source, from the Creator. Lisa Fikes, author of Journey to Purpose, now presents her readers with Love Conquers All, an exciting opportunity to gauge the ways that love presently influences our lives, to learn more about the nature of true love in the Scriptures, and to practice love in our relationships. Love Conquers All is a practical workbook in which Lisa uses the defining passage on love, 1 Corinthians 13, as a springboard for a meaningful two-way discussion of what God says about love. Lisa leads the reader in an examination of love through the Bible that flows naturally into self-examination of what we believe about love and how those beliefs shape our actions. In Love Conquers All, you will find: Nugget sections, in which Lisa teaches practically about love Journal sections, in which you record your own thoughts and feelings about love Prayer sections, in which you join with Lisa to petition our heavenly Father for wisdom about love Scripture richly woven through each page to turn your heart and mind continually to God as you read and write

Omnia Vincit Amor - M. H. Ent 2006-03-31

"Omnia Vincit Amor" translated to English means Love Conquers All. Translated once more through the mind of a young man looking for a reason to exist, means to do what you love... and I love to write. When I close my eyes I hear words that correspond to my feelings. These words dance in my head and change order, meaning and annunciation until they settle like grains of sugar in a glass of Kool Aid. Some words I have absolutely no idea what they meant where I picked them up but they always seem to pertain to my demeanor at the time of the writings conception. I don't question this mental word play; I just put pen to paper or fingers to keyboard and see what happens. The following works are a result of this randomly scatterbrained writing process. There is no formula, outline or structure to my writings which is what I believe to be a summary of my mind and is as close to it as you can get without knowing me intimately. My goal is to share my life via ink in the hope that others can relate to, or at least understand me as I am a fan of differentiation & variety. "To create is the most individualistic of human traits" and these poems are as individual as the people who read them. I am only a writer, some people like to read, and some would rather listen. Whatever you do, do it and love it with a passion

Love Conquers All - Lenny & Vandy Singleton 2015-04-30

Do you believe in miracles? Do you want to believe that Love (with a capital "L") does indeed conquer all? Love Conquers All is a story about a white woman finding a long-lost black friend after twenty-eight years. Lenny has been incarcerated for more than nineteen plus years for six "grab and dash" robberies committed in six days while he was under the influence of alcohol and crack cocaine. Now facing two life sentences plus one hundred years, Lenny has been sentenced to die in prison even though there has not been one victim impact statement made against him. In their journey through his incarceration, her divorce, discovering cancer, and having major surgeries to prevent paralysis from the neck down, they fall inexplicably in Love - with a capital "L." But they must overcome huge obstacles, for both have received death sentences. Written in letter format, this story is raw, honest, and true-to-life in describing their spiritual transformations. It is a self-help manual, an examination of the brain and a testament to the power of our thoughts to create our reality. It is an honest exploration of many of the systems that make up our world: the criminal justice system, the healthcare system, religious systems, the education system, government systems, and the judicial system. It examines nature and man's relationship to it. It shows the family unit in all of its dysfunction and includes an examination of humanity's uglier side in terms of how it deals with racism, addiction, disparity, injustice, mental illness, obesity, apathy, complacency, and shame and sin. But more importantly, it is a story of redemption, gratitude, hope, and grace. This story offers a discovery of how miracles occur. It pays homage to the truth that Love does indeed conquer all.

Love Conquers All - Richard Michael Pasichnyk 2019-01-29

By weaving together scientific studies from psychology, sociology, health and happiness, historical accounts, child and infant research, physiology, medicine and a myriad of other disciplines, a more complete understanding of the human experience emerges. In the process, we learn about those experiences that change us, make us sick or diseased, change the way in which we view the world, and how we perceive love. Certain aspects of missing love create all the troubles that plague us and today's world, because we live in a world that has failed to teach love. This book provides a new approach to love that is sacred, all encompassing, and healing for individuals and for the world as a whole. And the conclusion is that when love is understood, love conquers all of the individual, social and global problems. So be ready to take a journey through the beauty and perils of the human mind and the power of love. The brain is an amazing organ that has incredible abilities, but it is easily influenced by love or its absence. The mind is more than the brain; minds can be joined and communicate without words. The mind is easily influenced by the absence of certain aspects of love, involving touch, positive words, positive gestures, independence and being allowed to express anger in a healthy way. So important are these factors that they show up in studies of mental and physical diseases. They influence the depth and expression of love without us knowing it. Preferences for certain types of foods, colors, love interests, and a myriad of other types of conditioning surface, and make us and the world what it has become. The questions abound: Are minds connected? Is your past effecting your present? Does the unconscious affect your love life? What do dreams tell us about ourselves? Does color affect the way we see things and respond in various circumstances? Why are some people affected by physical disease and disorders, and others mental problems? Why do some people have different sexual orientations or gender identity, and is it a choice or not? Why do people use drugs and use some foods that act like drugs? We are seeing all types of violence increase in today's world - Why? Why do some people become involved in criminal acts? People too often are bothered by others who are not like themselves - Why? What is the underlying reality that we often miss? How do we improve our lives and reach a loving perspective? Most of the time we don't see things as they are but how we are. All of these questions and more are answered using information from studies and research on these subjects. - And not from opinion. What is missing from our lives is an understanding of what all-encompassing love really is and put into practice. "Love Conquers All" will make you, your loved ones, society and the world at large a much better place.

Love Conquers All - Aleloise Hardy Cromartie Lady Lolo 2018-01-29

Through the good, the bad and what may seem the ugly, never cease to pray. Meditate on God's promise: Deuteronomy 31:6 Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the Lord your God goes with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you. Put away selfish pride. Strive to love the way Jesus showed His love in Galatians 5:22: But the fruit of the spirit is love... Sit back and watch the manifestation when LOVE CONQUERS ALL

True Love Conquers All - Susan R. E. Wall 2021-08-31

Inspired by the letters written between her parents, True Love Conquers All fuses fact and fiction to tell the story of a British Army soldier posted to Germany in 1953 who falls passionately in love with a German secretary - at a time when both nations were scarred by a war that had only recently ended. It's a story of Hitler's rise to power told through the eyes of a German national who was there, the social histories of two nations who suddenly found themselves as friends...and a bold reminder that love transcends any and all adversity.
