Dorothy Eliza Nevitte Southworth 2022-09-15 'For Woman's Love' is a romance novel written by Emma Dorothy Eliza Nevitte Southworth. The lead character of the book is Cora Haught, an orphan with some fortune to her name. After their parents' death, she and her brother were brought up by their grandfather, Aaron Rockharrrt. And so begin the tale of their life in that glorious day in June, where a long, deep, green valley lay low between two lofty ridges of the Cumberland mountains, running north and south for ten miles, and near the boundary lines of three States. This lovely vale was watered by a merry, sparkling little river called the Whirligig, which furnished the power for the huge machinery of the great firm of Rockharrrt & Sons, proprietors of the Plutus iron mines and the North End foundries, which supplied the mighty engines on the great lines of railroad from the East to the West, and whose massive buildings, forges, furnaces, store-houses and laborers' cottages occupied all the ground between the foot of the mountain and the banks of the river, on both sides of the Whirligig, at the upper or north end of the valley, where a substantial bridge connected the two shores. This settlement, called, from its position, North End, was quite a thriving little village. North End was not only blessed with a mission church, having a schoolroom in its basement, but it was provided with a post-office, a telegraph, a drug store, kept by a regular physician, who dispensed his own physic (advice and medicine, one dollar), and a general store, where everything needed to eat, drink, wear or use (except drugs), was kept for sale.

you to laugh yet. Listen, if I count how many times I have been friend-zoned, you'll feel depressed on my behalf. The last one was many years ago when I was studying in Singapore. The next day, after my heartbreak, my roommate, Michael, called me and said, "Barack Obama is around. He's at Orchard to meet with Lee Kuan Yew-come, come, come." Michael didn't know what I was going through. He was at Orchard having fun, but I was at home feeling heartbroken and Obama wasn't the solution I needed at that moment-I needed a relationship expert. Luckily, I have become that person I needed and I'll guide you through the ups and downs of how women work, how to get any woman without being friend-zoned and many more things acclaimed dating gurus won't tell you.
