LOVE 420: High on Romance - Crist Chrysler

2015-02-22

Crist Chrysler, a collegiate lacrosse player in a long-distance relationship with his boyfriend from high school after they ended up at different colleges in neighboring states, wrote a love poem for his boyfriend every day that they were apart for over a year and a half. The fact that these poems were never meant to be shared outside the boys' relationship means that they are written with total candor. A raw and sometimes unsettling window into the private romantic, emotional, and sexual life of a young gay couple. A fascinating object of study, not just for the many issues of sexuality, sex, gender roles, and romance that are raised, but also for people to see the evolution of a poet's writing over a year and a half of practice every day.

How to Build Up a Loving Relationship -

The book you are about to read, How to Build Up a Loving Relationship, is a love story. Relationship glorifies the love of life in general, the love of beauty, and family. Each reading may provide a different understanding. The application of this book in your daily life depends largely on the step at which your personal love relationship is at the moment. The author voluntarily did not include exhaustive lists of dos and don'ts that have the magic to keep a relationship alive. The reason she explained is simple. The thing one can do depend too much on external factors like money and free time availability. However, she recommends all of us to love and respect our partners as much as we love and respect ourselves. The publication of this book fulfills an old promise the author made when she was in high school. She used to function as a freelance counselor to her peers and found some of the stories so interesting that she promised to write a book about love at the appropriate time. Of course, no one believed her. How to Build Up a Loving Relationship is easy to read and is even funny at times although the subject is a very serious one. The author wishes that this book will help you master the most complicated emotion.
