Addressing the Taboos - Zia U Sheikh Phd 2014-08-19

From the creation of the very first humans, Adam and Eve, marriage has been an institution chosen by God for the human race as being the only permitted way that a man and woman can spend their lives with each other. Marriage is often portrayed as a fairy-tale, with the couple living happily ever after. However, the reality is that there are always ups and downs in marriage, and dealing with marital issues is not something that you learn in school. This book is an invaluable resource for people that are intending to marry, or newlyweds, or have been married for many years. It answers many questions that people may have had about the marriage process; choosing the right spouse, the sensitive nature of intimacy and sex, and how to deal with problems and arguments as they come up. When we can deal with these problems in an expedient and efficient manner, it will result in a harmonious and blissful marriage, God willing. Hopefully, this book will provide all the appropriate resources for couples that want to fill their marriage with happiness and joy. This book is the second work by the author, his first being "Islam: Silencing the Critics."

Sex Wise - Pete Eaton, Ph.D. 2016-07-18

The answer to divorce based on satisfying individual sexual hunger for a happy marriage. He says, "My wife doesn't want sex." She says, "My husband doesn't want sex." Myth buster: It has nothing to do with loss of libido Excuses, excuses... Excuses, excuses... We can't have sex now because I'm too tired My back hurts I have a headache I'm going through the change o(Men on pause) I'm not in the mood I have too much on my mind, right now If I'm not going to have an orgasm, then why? I feel bloated and fat I don't want to feel pressured for sex Just not interested, right now Diminishing libido I'm too upset Representing a few of the most popular excuses. Why does my spouse, mate or partner have no interest in sex? What's really going on? Can it be fixed? In this brief book, Dr. Eaton explains Why it's happening How to prevent it What to do about it, if you're already there No psychological mumbo jumbo, because lack of sexual desire or psychology has nothing to do with it. There are two distinct physical types of humans in regard to sex. Dr. Pete explains how to tell the difference, how to find your own type and possible ways to proceed if you've paired up with the opposite type. A real how to book. In the matching of men and women in couples possibly leading to marriage, even though marriage is the leading cause of divorce and the most popular outcry amidst the divorce controversy with voices ringing in the halls of justice and accusations of infidelity and private investigators documenting the marital affairs of cheaters committing acts of adultery, etc, etc, etc... Women are often left wondering why men cheat? The truth of the matter is that it is not as rudimentary as being a men versus women issue at all. Even though the women get much less press than the men, the unfaithful wife is actually much more popular, but is much more stealthy in her approach to conducting her extramarital affairs. Dr. Pete Eaton reveals all in his book, Sex Wise, and tells the truth about relationship problems - especially when related to areas of sexual conduct - unraveling the secret to why men cheat and (even more) why women cheat, and it's not what you might expect, and it has nothing to do with lack of love! Dr. Eaton clearly explains that it is not the differences between men and women that are the reasons for divorce, rather it is due to a difference in the amount of innate sexual hunger which has nothing to do with men vs women, because both men and women are either hungry for sex, or not, and each have all different degrees of that hunger. Marriage problems are more due to compatibility issues due to mismatched sexual hunger. The insatiable desires of women and men are better of appropriately matched to other mates with the same sexual desires. The problem is with our mating methods when selecting a potential mate our species tends to put on its best face to impress and seduce potential mates to seal the deal. This leads to misrepresentation, i.e. women and men misrepresenting themselves as being sexually proficient with high levels of sexual desire, enough to satisfy any mate. You may have noticed that many of these sexually desirous individuals revert to their standard level of sexual desire. Also, presented are solutions for couples experiencing relationship problems due to differences in sexual hunger, breaking through the age old idea of infidelity and presenting ideas and examples of how to have and maintain a happy marriage, even if you are unequally matched in terms of sexual desire. Get prepared to enjoy the full satisfaction from your personal level of sexual desire, enjoy all the sexual activity to match the libido that you were born with, even if you are in a mismatched relationship. This could be the only real answer to how to save your marriage, even if you share sexual hungers on opposite ends of the spectrum."
