How We Disappeared - Jing-Jing Lee 2019-04-04

Shortlisted for the 2020 Singapore Literature Prize Longlisted for the HWA Debut Crown Singapore, 1942. As Japanese troops sweep down Malaysia and into Singapore, a village is ransacked. Only three survivors remain, one of them a tiny child. In a neighbouring village, seventeen-year-old Wang Di is bundled into the back of a troop carrier and shipped off to a Japanese military rape camp. In the year 2000, her mind is still haunted by her experiences there, but she has long been silent about her memories of that time. It takes twelve-year-old Kevin, and the mumbled confession he overhears from his ailing grandmother, to set in motion a journey into the unknown to discover the truth. Weaving together two timelines and two life-changing secrets, How We Disappeared is an evocative, profoundly moving and utterly dazzling novel heralding the arrival of a new literary star.

Archaeology of the Unconscious - Alessandra Aloisi 2019-07-10

In reconstructing the birth and development of the notion of 'unconscious', historians of ideas have heavily relied on the Freudian concept of Unbewusstes, retroactively projecting the psychoanalytic unconscious over a constellation of diverse cultural experiences taking place in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries between France and Germany. Archaeology of the Unconscious aims to challenge this perspective by adopting an unusual and thought-provoking viewpoint as the one offered by the Italian case from the 1770s to the immediate aftermath of WWI, when Italo Svevo's La coscienza di Zeno provides Italy with the first example of a 'psychoanalytic novel'. Italy's vibrant culture of the long nineteenth century, characterised by the sedimentation, circulation, intersection, and synergy of different cultural, philosophical, and literary traditions, proves itself to be a privileged object of inquiry for an archaeological study of the unconscious; a study whose object is not the alleged 'origin' of a pre-made theoretical construct, but rather the stratifications by which that specific construct was assembled. In line with Michel Foucault's Archéologie du savoir (1969), this volume will analyze the formation and the circulation, across different authors and texts, of a network of ideas and discourses on interconnected themes, including dreams, memory, recollection, desire, imagination, fantasy, madness, creativity, inspiration, magnetism, and somnambulism. Alongside questioning pre-given narratives of the 'history of the unconscious', this book will employ the Italian 'difference' as a powerful perspective from whence to address the undeveloped potentialities of the pre-Freudian unconscious, beyond uniquely psychoanalytical viewpoints. The Lover - A.B. Yehoshua 2012-05-14

A husband seeks his wife's lover who is lost in the turbulence of Israel's Yom Kippur War. As the story of his quest unfolds and grows in intensity, the main protagonists are drawn into the search and transformed by it: through the different perspective of husband, wife, teenage daughter, young Arab emerges a complex picture of the uneasy present, the tension between generations, between Israel's past and future, between Jews and Arabs. The Lover was A.B. Yehoshua's first novel and immediately brought him international recognition. It is brilliant, compassionate and highly original and as accomplished as all his later works.

Grazie a lui, Anna ha ritrovato la voglia di sognare e di innamorarsi. Ma quando il padre di Anna viene eletto presidente degli Stati Uniti, la stampa internazionale si intromette sempre di più nella vita privata dei due ragazzi e la loro storia d'amore rischia di uscire allo scoperto. Nel frattempo si avvicina il processo nei confronti di Carter Thomas, il criminale che aveva rapito Anna. E se venisse scagionato? La sua assoluzione sarebbe una vera minaccia. Con me sarai al sicuro - Kirsty Moseley 2018-11-15T00:00:00+01:00

Ma tutto cambia il giorno del suo sedicesimo compleanno: Jack, il suo fidanzato, viene ucciso a colpi di pistola davanti ai suoi occhi e lei viene rapita dall'assassino, Carter Thomas, un trafficante di armi e di droga. Dopo dieci lunghissimi mesi di prigionia, Anna viene finalmente liberata, ma quella terribile esperienza l'ha segnata per sempre, nel corpo e nello spirito. In più, sebbene Carter sia stato messo in carcere, Anna e la sua famiglia non sono affatto al sicuro: su di loro incombono minacce di morte e la possibilità che la condanna dell'assassino sia ribaltata... A proteggere Anna e la sua famiglia viene chiamato Ashton Taylor, un giovane agente delle forze speciali. Determinato e coraggioso, lotterà con tutto se stesso per dare ad Anna la sicurezza di cui ha bisogno, ma soprattutto per restituirle la voglia di sognare e, forse, anche quella di innamorarsi...

The 16 stories in this collection deal with confrontation, struggle, and survival amidst the unforgiving violence of nature. Set in the hauntingly beautiful and dangerously remote lands of southern Patagonia and Tierra del Fuego, the narration acquires a magical tone in describing the strife of man in the doubly isolating landscape of human nature within the surrounding environment.

La Femme de Gilles - Madeleine Bourdouxhe 2016-11-15

"A haunting, slim novel which has the mesmeric inevitability of a classical tragedy." --Independent on Sunday La Femme de Gilles tells the story of a fatal love triangle—written on the eve of World War II. Set among the dusty lanes and rolling valleys of rural 1930s Belgium, La Femme de Gilles is the tale of a young mother, Elisa, whose world is overturned when she discovers that her husband, Gilles, has fallen in love with her younger sister, Victorine. Devastated, Elisa unravels. As controlled as Elena Ferrante's The Days of Abandonment and as propulsive as Jenny Offill's Dept. of Speculation, La Femme de Gilles is a hauntingly contemporary story of desperation and lust and obsession, from an essential early-feminist writer. Just after her novel was first published in 1937, Madeleine Bourdouxhe disassociated herself from her publisher (which had been taken over by the Nazis) and spent most of World War II in Brussels, actively working for the resistance. Though she continued to write, her work was largely overlooked by history . . . until now.
