Impossible Exchange Jean Baudrillard, 2020-05-05 Working his way through the various spheres and systems of everyday life the political the juridical the economical the aesthetic the biological among others he finds that they are all characterized by the same non equivalence and hence the same eccentricity Literally they have no meaning outside themselves and cannot be exchanged for anything Politics is laden with signs and meanings but seen from the outside it has no meaning Schemes for genetic experimentation and investigation are becoming infinitely ramified and the more ramified they become the more the crucial question is left unanswered who rules over life Who rules over death Baudrillard's conclusion is that the true formula of contemporary nihilism lies here the nihilism of value itself This is our fate and from this stem both the happiest and the most baleful consequences This book might be said to be the exploration first of the fateful consequences and subsequently by a poetic transference of situation of the fortunate happy consequences of impossible exchange
