How Do You Say "I Love You" In Japanese?!

Vol.02 (BL Manga) - Yuiko

Hiro is a big movie fan who works in the promotion department of a film distributor. Recently, he's been hearing some nasty rumors about Jiheo Park, a handsome Korean actor who's rising in popularity. When Jiheo visits Japan to promote his latest movie, Hiro ends up being the one he's assigned to work with. Upon actually meeting Jiheo, Hiro's disappointed that the Korean actor seems just as unfriendly as the rumors say. But later that evening when he's working overtime, Hiro gets a surprise call from a local police station! Apparently, Jiheo's luggage has been stolen! A tantalizing, mature, and purehearted BL story about overcoming language barriers using both physical and emotional means.

Marina's Cloud 9 - Marina A. Popova 2022-05-08

Life is difficult, sometimes even incomprehensible. To each our own, we live in a way we think is right. One moves mountains; the other one is content with simple happiness. In this life, we stumble and learn not to; we love, and we grieve; we doubt, and we fight; our world sometimes turns upside down, and we learn to live anew. This short story collection touch on the most emotional topics, such as the destructive and healing power of love, the price of beauty, loneliness and sorrow, motherhood, the impact of kindness. These stories resonate with everyone, make you think, and at times, even shed a tear.

Historical Romance Fiction - Lisa Fletcher 2008-01-01

Lisa Fletcher moves the debate about the value and appeal of heterosexual romance onto new ground, testing the claims of speech-act and performativity theorists on everything from popular classics by Georgette Heyer, to 'bodice rippers,' to historical fiction by John Fowles and A. S. Byatt. Nominating 'I love you' as the romance novel's defining speech act, Fletcher offers a lively mix of theoretical arguments and suggestive close readings.
