I Love Mondays - Michelle Cove 2012-10-30

A growing number of women today are fortunate enough to enjoy both parenting and having a meaningful career. These moms look forward to going back to work on Mondays (even if they don't admit it aloud), and many consider their job to be a major part of their identity, not just the "daily grind." But because moms who love their jobs and their families feel lucky to have both, they often feel they have no right to complain about the anxieties and stresses of balancing the two—which inevitably leads to even more anxiety and stress. In I Love Mondays, Michelle Cove shares the most common confessions she hears from working moms. From "I'm tired of apologizing when I try so hard to please everyone" to "I stress about falling behind at work when my kid needs extra attention," Cove explores the difficulties faced by working moms—and provides real-life anecdotes, helpful new perspectives, and mom-tested strategies for dealing each one. Full of hilarious—and humbling—stories from women who are trying to have it all, I Love Mondays will help working moms everywhere alleviate their anxiety, hone their work-home juggling skills, and boost their confidence in their roles as professionals and as parents.

Chinese Martial Arts Cinema - Stephen Teo 2015-11-13

This is the first comprehensive, fully-researched account of the historical and contemporary development of the traditional martial arts genre in the Chinese cinema known as wuxia (literal translation: martial chivalry) - a genre which audiences around the world became familiar with through the phenomenal 'crossover' hit Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon (2000). The book unveils rich layers of the wuxia tradition as it developed in the early Shanghai cinema in the late 1920s, and from the 1950s onwards, in the Hong Kong and Taiwan film industries. Key attractions of the book are analyses of: *The history of the tradition as it began in the Shanghai cinema, its rise and popularity as a serialized form in the silent cinema of the late 1920s, and its eventual prohibition by the government in 1931. *The fantastic characteristics of the genre, their relationship with folklore, myth and religion, and their similarities and differences with the kung fu sub-genre of martial arts cinema. *The protagonists and heroes of the genre, in particular the figure of the female knight-errant. *The chief personalities and masterpieces of the genre - directors such as King Hu, Chu Yuan, Zhang Che, Ang Lee, Zhang Yimou, and films such as Come Drink With Me (1966), The One-Armed Swordsman (1967), A Touch of Zen (1970-71), Hero (2002), House of Flying Daggers (2004), and Curse of the Golden Flower (2006).

Last Words from Montmartre - Qiu Miaojin 2014-06-03

An NYRB Classics Original When the pioneering Taiwanese novelist Qiu Miaojin committed suicide in 1995 at age twenty-six, she left behind her unpublished masterpiece, Last Words from Montmartre. Unfolding through a series of letters written by an unnamed narrator, Last Words tells the story of a passionate relationship between two young women—their sexual awakening, their gradual breakup, and the devastating aftermath of their broken love. In a style that veers between extremes, from self-deprecation to pathos, compulsive repetition to rhapsodic musings, reticence to vulnerability, Qiu's genre-bending novel is at once a psychological thriller, a sublime romance, and the author's own suicide note. The letters (which, Qiu tells us, can be read in any order) leap between Paris, Taipei, and Tokyo. They display wrenching insights into what it means to live between cultures, languages, and genders—until the genderless character Zoë appears, and the narrator's spiritual and physical identity is transformed. As powerfully raw and transcendent as Mishima's Confessions of a Mask, Goethe's The Sorrows of Young Werther, and Theresa Cha's Dictée, to name but a few, Last Words from Montmartre proves Qiu Miaojin to be one of the finest experimentalists and modernist Chinese-language writers of our generation.

How I Survived a Chinese "Reeducation" Camp - Gulbahar Haitiwaji 2024-06-18

The first memoir about the "reeducation" camps by a Uyghur woman, describing the insidious nature of oppression, the dehumanizing effects of torture and brainwashing, and the human drive to survive—and resist—under even the most horrific circumstances. This new paperback edition features a new introduction by the author. "I have written what I lived. The atrocious reality." — Gulbahar Haitiwaji to Paris Match For three years Gulbahar Haitiwaji was held in Chinese detention centers and "reeducation" camps, enduring interrogations, torture, hunger, police violence, brainwashing, forced sterilization, freezing cold, rats, and nights under the blinding fluorescent lights of her prison cell. Her only crime? Being a Uyghur. China's brutal repression of Uyghurs, a Turkish-speaking Muslim ethnic group, has been denounced as genocide and reported widely in media around the world. In 2019, the New York Times published the "Xinjiang Papers," leaked documents exposing the forced detention of more than one million Uyghurs in Chinese “reeducation” camps. The Chinese government denies that these camps are concentration camps, seeking to legitimize their existence in the name of the “total fight against Islamic terrorism, infiltration and separatism” and calling them “schools.” But none of this is true. Gulbahar only escaped thanks to the relentless efforts of her daughter, with the help of the French diplomatic corps. Others have not been so fortunate. In How I Survived a Chinese “Reeducation” Camp, Gulbahar tells her story, describing the insidious nature of oppression, the dehumanizing effects of torture and brainwashing, and the human drive to survive—and resist—under even the most horrific circumstances. This new paperback edition includes a new introduction by the author.

How to Attract Women - Zac Miller 2020-03-08

Can I Ask You a Question? What would life be like if you knew exactly how to attract women? If you could get the girls you've always wanted? If you could be a man women were sexually drawn to... would that change your life? Hi, my name is Zac Miller. In my many years here on earth I've had my share of experiences with women. And like most men, I wasn't born knowing what attracts women or what they want, but there came a point in my life where I was fed up and did something about it. Many men just say "women are crazy," and they leave it at that, not trying to understand them. I couldn't have that... While women are in fact crazy, I have put together a book which explains what they want, what attracts them to men, and how you can start attracting women. It's taken me many, many years, and many, many sleepless nights, but after all was said and done, I believe I have made the best book available when it comes teaching men everything it takes to successfully attract women. Here's What You'll Learn in This Book Chapter 1: Appearance - While it's been this way for many years, the advent of website profiles and dating apps has made a masculine appearance much more important for men in this day and age. Here I share with you the many ways you can appear more attractive to women, as well the ideal body type women are looking for in a man (hint: it's not abs). Chapters 2 & 3: Attractive & Unattractive Qualities - Ever notice how women are attracted to jerks and "bad boys?" It's because they display many attractive qualities women desire. In these chapters, I share with you what exactly these qualities are, while also going over attributes you need to stay away from, which push women away. Chapter 4 & 5: Talking to Women - Next, we go over how to talk to women and connect with them, in turn attracting them to you. I show you how to approach girls, get their contact information, and how to conversant with them afterwards to secure a date. I go over the number one mistake most guys make during this process, as well as the one quality that will put you above all other men when talking to women (hint: it's not a lifted truck). Chapter 6: The Date - We then go over how to handle the date. I show you exactly how to ask for the date, where to go, and what to do during the date. This includes conversation topics that release dopamine (feel good) chemicals in a woman's brain, as well as techniques you can employ during the date to keep her attention. I then go over what to do after the date to keep her interested in you for the long run to make her your girlfriend. Chapter 7: The What If's? - What if she flakes on the date? What if she says maybe? What if she starts losing interest? All these questions and more are handled in this chapter, showing you the exact techniques to employ to handle each situation, which will keep a woman interested in you. Appendix - I provide 70 opening messages, original to this book, to use when texting girls. These are unique, funny messages, which will make you stand out from other men. As a FREE bonus, only to buyers of this book, I provide you with my special report, Subconscious Attraction: 3 Techniques that Will Attract Her Subconsciously. These are perfect to use during the first date! If you want to become more successful with women and start getting the girls you've always desired, you can't risk not knowing this information. Go to the "Buy now with 1-click" button at the top of this page, and pick up How to Attract Women RIGHT NOW!
