How to Improve Your Marriage Without Talking About It Patricia Love, Ed.D. 2008-04-29 Men are right. The "relationship talk" does not help. Dr. Patricia Love's and Dr. Steven Stosny's How to Improve Your Marriage Without Talking About It reveals the stunning truth about marital happiness: • Love is not about better communication. It's about connection. • You'll never get a closer relationship with your man by talking to him like you talk to one of your girlfriends. • Male emotions are like women's sexuality: you can't be too direct too quickly. • There are four ways to connect with a man: touch, activity, sex, routines. • Men want closer marriages just as much as women do, but not if they have to act like a woman. • Talking makes women move closer; it makes men move away. • The secret of the silent male is this: his wife supplies the meaning in his life. • The stunning truth about love is that talking doesn't help. Drs. Patricia Love and Steven Stosny have studied this all-too-familiar dynamic between men and women and have reached a truly shocking conclusion. Even with the best of intentions, talking about your relationship doesn't bring you together, and it will eventually drive you apart. The reason for this is that underneath most couples' fights, there is a biological difference at work. A woman's vulnerability to fear and anxiety makes her draw closer, while a man's subtle sensitivity to shame makes him pull away in response. This is why so many married couples fall into the archetypal roles of nagging wife/stonewalling husband, and why improving a marriage can't happen through words. How to Improve Your Marriage Without Talking About It teaches couples how to get closer in ways that don't require "trying to turn a man into a woman." Rich in stories of couples who have turned their marriages around, and full of practical advice about the behaviors that make and break marriages, this essential guide will help couples find love beyond words.

Find Your Perfect Partner Wayne C. Allen 2012-12-01 You've likely realized that the screwy relationships you have been in were the direct result of you not thinking about how to create an excellent one. Pretending the important, life-altering decision to relate is "a matter of the heart" is not only stupid, it doesn't work! Many moons ago, psychotherapist Wayne C. Allen made a clear decision about his "next" relationship. He decided that his brain (not just his heart) needed to be in charge of the process. He came up with a strategy for finding the person he wanted -- He called it...The List of 50. His strategy worked. He met his perfect partner (in 2017, they've been together 34 years!) Wayne began sharing the process with his clients -- soon, they demanded a book... and Find Your Perfect Partner is the result. Written by a therapist with over 30 years of experience, this book gives you the tools you need to actually think through what kind of person you want to be with. His clients have tested this process for the last 30 years, and now it's available to you! Here's a quote from a client: "When I showed my List of 50 to one friend he said, "Do you have a short list that us mere mortals could aspire to?" My answer was, "I had a short list and it got me my ex-husband. I'm being more particular now." Find Your Perfect Partner is a guide to figuring out the whole attraction / dating / relationship thing. You'll discover: ~reasons for failed relationships and the high divorce rate ~how hormones get in the way ~how past relationships are great guides to getting the next one right ~why you need to think about what works in your successful friendships ~which traits must be a match between you and your perfect partner This book examines what doesn't work, then helps you to map out what's been missing from your past relationships. It gives you an easy to follow strategy for re-setting your mental filters, so that the next person you meet is a much better fit. You'll have a better sense of why compatibility is so important, and have a time tested method for both opening your eyes to new possibilities, and for finding your perfect partner. Follow along with the text, work through the exercises, and put the book's insights into practice. You'll be amazed with the results. One more quote! "My list has been an active part of my relationship building since I drafted it. I have modified the list several times, based on how relationships worked out. It was also interesting to note, how few elements of my list my ex-wife matched, similar to what you said about your first marriage. I feel that using the process you recommend does improve the quality of the choices you make. Of course, building the other relating skills will complement this as well."

Being a Good Husband and Father Lexington Nyama 2017-12-08 This is an educational book for those who are in a relationship, whether they are married or not. As long as they are in a relationship, they need to know about these things; also it is not only for men but also for females because some women have no idea what to expect from their man. This will help them find a basic foundation of what to expect from their man, as this also helps man to know what to do for their woman. If relationships are not solved and if people are not educated about relationships, this world will never be at peace because it is all because of relationships. We have all these problems we are facing nowadays, as the world's problem started with two people who were in a relationship, which was written in the Bible. If they both knew what their responsibilities were in their relationship, the woman would have not gone and searched for food while the man was home sitting. I believe that if couples could know what they are supposed to do and what they are not supposed to do in relationship, we will make the world a better place to live.

Love Letters to My Spouse Maia Berens 2022-01-01 I am a teacher. I teach about relationships because after two failed marriages (and add another two that failed for my husband), I just had to learn how to do it and how to get it right. It is said, "We teach what we have to learn." Anyone who knows me will tell you that when I decide to do anything, I do it with all of me. When something works for me and helps me grow and improves the quality of my life, I am steadfast. Since I began to learn how emotions work, and then began to recognize mine and the effects of healing those old ones that never got expressed, I have been 100% committed to use what I learned and the results in my life have been almost unbelievable. A few years ago I started looking at what we had in our relationship that most others don't seem to. I wondered, "What are our secrets? And can I help others with them too?" Following are those things that we believe have created the quality and depth of our relationship and we believe they can do the same for you. When my husband died in 2015, we had had 31 years of a highly successful marriage and we'd like you to have the same. The book is divided into 10 chapters. The chapter headings are the 10 main secrets that we have learned and want to offer you. They are: Secret 1. You have to be real and you have to feel good enough about yourself to be real. Secret 2. Making your commitment to the relationship and not each other works way better. Secret 3. You can't expect your partner to do anything you are unwilling to do like forgiving and giving up being right. Secret 4. You have to learn how to communicate honestly and appropriately. Secret 5. You have to remember that love includes compassion and non-judgment. Secret 6 . You have to be aware when the connection is dying and do something about it. Secret 7. You have to let them know they're doing a good job. Secret 8. You have to own up when you've messed up - and learn from it. Secret 9. You have to get that a good relationship is sacred and make time for it. Secret 10. You have to own the whole job - take full responsibility. After four failed marriages between us, we were determined to learn how to make this a good one. We learned. There are some very special things we noticed after all of those years and we wanted to help you learn them too so you can wake up one day and notice how many years have gone by and you still have the relationship of your dreams.

ROMANSWERS Carl E. Pickhardt Ph.D. 2001-05-03 ROMANSWERS – Practical answers to common questions troubling relationships, romance, and marriage. by Carl Pickhardt Ph.D. In a fast changing, increasingly complex world, committed caring relationships seem harder to maintain than ever before, yet the desire for these unions remains strong, whether in dating, cohabitation, significant partnerships, or marriage. Although about half of marriages end in divorce, more than half divorced people elect to remarry. From answering questions about relationships over the internet for a year and a half (for Cox Interactive Media/Austin 360), certain abiding concerns kept recurring. Not only did people want answers; they also wanted instruction about the nature of certain problems built into the nature of chosen caring relationships, problems that in many cases won't go away. In response to this desire for help in managing these basic problems, ROMANSWERS was written. Each of the twenty-seven sections in the book is built around a topic of concern that is subjected to four questions, the answers to which provide understandings many people seek. A list of all the sections and questions that are answered follow. ABUSE § "When I give everything to a man, and do everything he wants, why do I end up getting pushed around, demeaned, and cheated on?" § "When my boyfriend loses his temper, cuts me down in anger, later says he's sorry and didn't mean what he said, should I accept his apologies when he keeps doing it again?" § "Why does a man from a loving, healthy, and giving family background keep getting into relationships with women who turn out to be exploitive, even turning abusive when they don't get their way?" § "After two abusive wives, is it just a matter of time before I get over my hurt and general anger at women?" AFFAIRS § "To regain my trust, should my husband be completely honest and describe the sexual details of his affair so we can get through this unhappiness and start moving on?" § "Is it the wife's fault when her husband has an affair, and how does the couple recover the marriage?" § "How am I ever going to get beyond superficial relationships with women after my fiancée, whom I love more than ever, broke off our engagement by having an affair?" § "When your wife comes back from a high school reunion having had a fling (not sexual) with an old flame, what needs to happen to make the marriage okay?" ATTRACTION § "Why would a stunning, dynamic, confident, and high salaried woman put off the kind of men she wants to meet, and attract the kind she doesn't?" § "Although I would never cheat on someone I was involved with and still care about, do you think it's okay to date her best friend now that I've broken up with my ex?" § "When the woman I'm ready to marry says she wants a man who can offer her everything from A to Z, and some un-definable Z is lacking in me, what is missing in my attractiveness to her?" § "What should I do about a man I first met on the internet who, without asking me, is now planning a future for us, a guy it turns out I don't really know, who doesn't really know me?" BREAKING UP § "Since my girlfriend has broken up with me and I don't know why, is it worthwhile my finding out, or is it better to avoid further hurt and just let the relationship go?" § "How do you break up without causing the other person a lot pain, and then go from being romantic to just being good friends?" § "Why is breaking up so hard to do, and why would a man act so angry when he is really feeling hurt?" § "How do I recover my self-respect and remove a man from my life who convinced me I was crazy to doubt his word when he kept lying to me, and who won't let me go now that I've broken off with him?" CHANGE § "Is it okay, once a couple becomes married, to change and take each other for granted, not acting romantic anymore?" § "Is my boyfriend going to continue his disg

STRONG IN THE STORM Mutea Rukwaru 2017-12-20 Marriage is one of the oldest institutions in the world. It is an institution bedeviled with a lot of challenges. It is ironical that you are given a marriage certificate without having graduated. You don't even graduate in the college of marriage. There are no leaves, half terms or holidays. Marriage is a relationship and all relationships have disagreements. How successful relationships are has a lot to do with how those disagreements are handled. Most of the problems encountered in marriage is due to the fantasy we have about marriage life. From the moment Romeo sets his eyes on Juliet to the fairy-tale climax when Cinderella captures her prince, young people are taught that falling in love is the one and only essential requirement for marriage. If you wish to make your marriage work, then the love between you can't simply be based on feelings. That's because feelings change like moods. If romance were the sole factor determining the duration of a union, most marriages would end in less than a year. Love must be both a feeling and a decision. Most marital relationships are weakened by the issues of sex, money, identity and extended family members. In today's world time is becoming elusive. Remember a time a husband and wife devote to one another determines the quality of their relationship. The stresses of life whether they are financial, parental, family related or work related can negatively impact on marriage and lead to unnecessary arguments. Spouses who don't prioritize their time together get caught in the trap of drifting away from one another due to the pressures of life. As time goes on and children get older and jobs become demanding you may not realize that your needs are changing and you dread change. With time you will find that by investing in your marriage and spending time with one another, you will limit the number of disagreements you have. Your sexual life will improve and you are less likely to be involved in extramarital affairs. The quality of your marriage is the single most important factor in raising healthy, well-adjusted children. Husbands and wives who love and respect each other raise children who have healthy values, self-esteem and good relationship skills. Wives should not neglect their husbands. Remember your husband was there before your children were born and he'll be there long after your children have moved on in life. If you show contempt toward your husband, your daughter will treat her husband that way and your son will expect his wife to have contempt for him. Your husband needs to occupy the number one spot in your heart. You cannot place your children or extended family ahead of him in your heart. If you don't put him first, not only will that injure him, but it will destroy your relationship and eventually make him run away and this will harm the lives of your children. Oftentimes men feel like they only get their wife's attention after everyone else the kids, the pets and the women have had their needs met. He gets what's left over after everyone else is taken care off. It is also important to note that happily married spouses are satisfied with their sexual relationships. A spouse who makes you feel important, who is kind, gentle, exciting and good with children and who is sexually satisfying and prone to sexual experimentation most powerfully influences your marital satisfaction. You can add zest to your love life by enhancing appeal as a spouse by having more intimate conversations and by showing more consideration and non sexual affection. Then add some novelty and creativity to your lovemaking. Sex is so critical in marriage and any relationship at marriage level devoid of it is at risk. Sex can heal illnesses and alleviate depression. From a man's perspective, there are not many things more important than sex. Sex not only fulfils a physical need in men and women but it also fulfils a psychological need. In reference to men sex heals a man the same way food, sleep and medicine can heal an injured sick body. Men are intensely physical and so the physical act of sex plays a big role in their lives. Women enjoy sex nearly as much as men do-they just don't obsess it quite as much. It is of interest to note that if a man's wife is not interested in him physically for whatever reason, of which probably it isn't necessarily her fault, and some young girls come along who shows an interest in him as a man, many men are easily swayed into having these needs fulfilled. Some of it may be due to ego, but much of that need involves the fact that a man cannot feel truly loved if he is not having his physical needs met. When both men and women are satisfied sexually they will all be having satisfied marriage lives. Sex is such a great power in the world. But it is women who have tremendous sexual power. What does this power look like? What are the dynamics of sex? Why do spouses stray? Is it a matter of life and death? What are the complex reasons behind extramarital sex? Is sex so critical that without proper handling families will degenerate to the primordial times where "sexual punalua" ("sexual communism") was the practice? Take an exciting walk through "strong in the storm" to find answers to this life's maze. When you unearth the mystery of this labyrinth, then you will be in a position to advice colleagues, friends and those in the byways of orchestra of life how to paddle this tricky canoe. In a nutshell, a husband and wife should sail the seas of life in the same boat, rowing together, trimming the sails together and making sure the whole operation runs smoothly together, but ironically many spouses are actually in two different boats. Yet the two won't truly become one until they do get into the same boat.

The Secrets of Happily Married Women Scott Haltzman 2009-01-05 From the authors of the best-selling The Secrets of Happily Married Men comes the much-anticipated follow-up book The Secrets of Happily Married

Women. In their first book, Dr. Haltzman and his coauthor Theresa Foy DiGeronmio outlined a recipe for men about growing a happy marriage: treat marriage with the same sense of purpose, resolve, and single-minded devotion that they have for their job. Although that workplace formula works well for men, an entirely different set of criteria resonate with women. In The Secrets of Happily Married Women, Dr. Haltzman tells us stories from real women who are happy in their relationships. These women know how to get more out of their partners by doing less, by not trying so hard to make men perfect, not dragging them to couples therapy, not expecting them to think or behave like a woman. These are women from Dr. Haltzman's clinical practice and culled from thousands of contributors to his Web site www.HappilyMarriedWomen.com. They have learned to understand how men really work and tap into men's powerful hard-wired desire to please women and "be a better man."
