Afraid to Fly S. L. Jennings 2015-06-02 Dominic Trevino had been called a lot of things. Manwhore. Womanizer. Slut. But he was most notoriously known as Dirty Dom. Because that was who he was...for the most part. It just wasn't all he was. His tortured past was as stained as his licentious reputation, and that was exactly how he'd designed it. It was the only way he knew how to cope with the ghosts that still kept him caged in horror and self-loathing. But the day Raven came tearing into his life-her temper as hot as her teeny tiny shorts-he knew he could never be placated with faceless hook-ups again. Still, he couldn't let her see who-and what-he really was inside. Raven freed him from his past...freed him from his pain. She saved him. Even though she didn't believe he was even worth saving. From the author of New York Times bestseller, Fear of Falling, comes a full-length, spin-off standalone about unbreakable friendships, the power of healing, and learning to love through forgiveness.

Profiled herein are 107 dazzling women, well-known and unknown, who had film and television appearances in the spy genre. They include superstars Doris Day in Caprice, Raquel Welch in Fathom, and Ann-Margret in Murderer's Row; international sex symbols Ursula Andress in Dr. No and Casino Royale, Elke Sommer in Deadlier Than the Male, and Senta Berger in The Spy with My Face; and forgotten lovelies Greta Chi in Fathom, Alizia Gur in From Russia with Love, and Maggie Thrett in Out of Sight. Each profile includes a filmography that lists the actresses' more notable films. Some include the actresses' candid comments and anecdotes about their films and television shows, the people they worked with, and their feelings about acting in the spy genre are offered throughout. A list of websites that provide further information on women in spy films and television is also included.

An Experiment in Love Hilary Mantel 2010-05-06 Following 'A Change in Climate', this brilliant novel from the double Man Booker prize-winning author of 'Wolf Hall' is a coming-of-age tale set in Seventies London.

THE WAVES Virginia Woolf 2017-12-06 The book is Virginia Woolf's most experimental novel, first published in 1931. It consists of soliloquies spoken by the book's six characters: Bernard, Susan, Rhoda, Neville, Jinny, and Louis. Also important is Percival, the seventh character, though readers never hear him speak through his own voice. The monologues that span the characters' lives are broken up by nine brief third-person interludes detailing a coastal scene at varying stages in a day from sunrise to sunset. As the six characters or "voices" alternately speak, Woolf explores concepts of individuality, self, and community. Each character is distinct, yet together they compose a gestalt about a silent central consciousness. Bernard is a story-teller, always seeking some elusive and apt phrase Louis is an outsider, who seeks acceptance and success; Neville desires love, seeking out a series of men, each of whom become the present object of his transcendent love; Jinny is a socialite, whose Weltanschauung corresponds to her physical, corporeal beauty; Susan flees the city, in preference for the countryside, where she grapples with the thrills and doubts of motherhood; and Rhoda is riddled with self-doubt and anxiety, always rejecting and indicting human compromise, always seeking out solitude. Percival is the god-like but morally flawed hero of the other six, who dies midway through the novel on an imperialist quest in British-dominated colonial India. Although Percival never speaks through a monologue of his own in The Waves, readers learn about him in detail as the other six characters repeatedly describe and reflect on him throughout the book. The novel follows its six narrators from childhood through adulthood. Adeline Virginia Woolf (25 January 1882 - 28 March 1941) was an English writer who is considered one of the foremost modernists of the twentieth century and a pioneer in the use of stream of consciousness as a narrative device.

But when a shadow falls over Bonnie, it's up to Cromwell to be her light, in the only way he knows how. He must help her find the lost song in her fragile heart. Mondo Exotica Francesco Adinolfi 2021-06-03T00:00:00+02:00 Lounge music, exotica, jazz criminale, spy music, easy listening, space age pop, library music, colonne sonore italiane e straniere di genere, nu jazz, electro swing. In una galleria di racconti pop e incursioni accademiche, spigolature, curiosità e interviste ai protagonisti, Mondo Exotica ricostruisce un universo di suoni e insoliti immaginari. La direttrice su cui si innestano questi racconti mobili, multidirezionali, capaci di sprigionare a loro volta visioni, tracce e altre connessioni, è rappresentata dalla generazione cocktail: la subcultura artistico-musicale che dagli anni novanta si è «appropriata» di generi e stili nati nei decenni cinquanta, sessanta e settanta, ancora oggi un caleidoscopio di influenze e ispirazioni. Un'indagine approfondita su come musica, cinema, televisione, pubblicità e moda possano rivelarsi armi subdole e infide, in grado di sollecitare i più imprevedibili esotismi e razzismi. Il risultato è un cocktail strepitoso, una pozione intossicante, tra Tiki style, american bar e night club all'italiana, Grandi esposizioni e giungle sottovetro, euforia delle prime avventure spaziali, colonialismo e orientalismo. A vent'anni dalla prima edizione, con nuove storie e una discografia ampliata, una guida definitiva, avvincente e originale alle musiche, alle manie e agli intrecci culturali più folli e incredibilmente strani.

Composing for the Cinema Ennio Morricone 2013-10-10 With nearly 400 scores to his credit, Ennio Morricone is one of the most prolific and influential film composers working today. In Composing for the Cinema, Morricone and musicologist Sergio Miceli present a series of lectures on the composition and analysis of film music. Adapted from several lectures and seminars, these lessons show how sound design can be analyzed and offer a variety of musical solutions to many different kinds of film. Drawing upon scores by himself and others, the composer also provides insight into his relationships with many of the directors with whom he has collaborated, including Sergio Leone, Giuseppe Tornatore, Franco Zeffirelli, Warren Beatty, Ridley Scott, Roland Joffé, the Taviani Brothers, and others. Delivered in a conversational mode that is both comprehensible and interesting, this groundbreaking work intertwines analysis with practical details of film music composition.

Learning from SARS Institute of Medicine 2004-04-26 The emergence of severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS) in late 2002 and 2003 challenged the global public health community to confront a novel epidemic that spread rapidly from its origins in southern China until it had reached more than 25 other countries within a matter of months. In addition to the number of patients infected with the SARS virus, the disease had profound economic and political repercussions in many of the affected regions. Recent reports of isolated new SARS cases and a fear that the disease could reemerge and spread have put public health officials on high alert for any indications of possible new outbreaks. This report examines the response to SARS by public health systems in individual countries, the biology of the SARS coronavirus and related coronaviruses in animals, the economic and political fallout of the SARS epidemic, quarantine law and other public health measures that apply to combating infectious diseases, and the role of international organizations and scientific cooperation in halting the spread of SARS. The report provides an illuminating survey of findings from the epidemic, along with an assessment of what might be needed in order to contain any future outbreaks of SARS or other emerging infections.
