"We'd better not let my sis see us like this..." My girlfriend's younger twin sister has somehow become my new stepsister?! "You sound really nervous right now. You're just so adorable, bro." It's been a month since I've started dating Haruka, my first ever girlfriend. We even finally reached first base today—holding hands! "What a bad boyfriend you are. To think you're daydreaming about your little sister while you're holding hands with your girlfriend, of all people!" Today's also special for a different reason—my dad's getting remarried, which means I get a new stepsister. Her name is Shigure, and she's pretty much the spitting image of Haruka. That's no surprise though, given that she's actually Haruka's long-lost twin sister! Due to family circumstances, they were split up at birth. "It's okay, bro. I look exactly like sis does, right down to... well, you know. I don't blame you at all." Her presence adds a new, twisted form of love that tangles itself into our protagonist's passionate love life! He can't possibly tell his girlfriend what's been going on! Be sure to check out this saucy romcom with a raunchy and rather needy stepsister!

THE THIRTEENTH JUROR - Nelda Holder 2015-11-13

The death of Michael Brown, Jr., in Ferguson, Missouri, on August 9, 2014, has become a touchstone for reform in three areas of American society: the high incidence of black citizens killed by white policemen; the pattern and effect of systemic racism in the country's criminal justice system; the need for study and reform of current federal and state grand jury systems. The Thirteenth Juror illustrates the pitfalls of the grand jury system by inviting readers to take a seat with the 12 people selected as grand jurors in the Michael Brown case, and to share the evidence and process they went through. Details that were not openly or adequately questioned are highlighted, and the impact of the posture and attitude of the prosecuting attorneys is explored. Disparities are uncovered in the narrative of Ferguson Police Officer Darren Wilson, who was responsible for Brown's death, and the process of informing - or misinforming - jury members regarding the law(s) governing their deliberations is given critical attention. Ultimately, throughout the 24 days of testimony, the deeply human side of this tragedy is shared. And measured against the history of the grand jury process itself, this is a case study illustrating the need for examination and reform.
