*Living in Open Brokenness: Becoming the Mosaic God
Wants You to Be* - Jack P.
Hardcastle 2019-07-15

We live in a world where everyone has a difficult time admitting weakness, failure, and especially brokenness. The process of being ?broken? does not mean that we are somehow separated from God- in fact, it is the opposite! It is in our brokenness that we are drawn to God, and to each other. This book will challenge you in your thinking about who we need to be individually, in our families, and as a church, especially in the culture we are currently living in. God has asked us to share our brokenness with each other, so that all our broken pieces together create a beautiful mosaic. In this process, we create a new paradigm that can change the world and move to a place of acceptance for all broken people- as broken people ourselves.

Experiencing the Beauty of Brokenness - Charles MORRIS
2020-02-07

Are you interested in an inspirational Bible study teaching that challenges your faith and changes your Christian living? Do you long for study guides in a Christian book that will address men's issues and women's issues with devotion, faith, prayer, meditation, worship, ministry, evangelism, and discipleship? This beautifully designed workbook steps the reader beyond religion and education into the personal testimonies and spirituality of our Lord's personal brokenness displayed in the gospel books of the New Testament. It is in the heart of

How To Become The Person God Wants You To Be

God to see us broken and poured out. Jesus said to love God with all your heart and to love God with all your might. If we do this, we will reap the benefits of pleasing God and not man. A true disciple will understand that brokenness is before the Lord and not before men and that brokenness is a lifestyle and not a one-time event. This model is the only discipleship that fits the Scriptures on pleasing God and following Jesus. The Father desires that you walk in the mind of the Spirit while becoming the person God wants you to become. "EXPERIENCING THE BEAUTY OF BROKENNESS" is a discipleship workbook complete with a detailed 70-day intensive Bible study on discipleship and brokenness. This study is comprehensive with the Bible verses on following Jesus, spiritual disciplines for the Christian life, and promises for the crucified life. This study is also filled with Scriptures on pleasing God and having the mind of Christ. The Apostle

Paul told young Timothy that all who love God will be persecuted (2 Tim.3:12). Believing Paul's words to Timothy means that the broken Christian will be hated as he/she seeks daily to walk with Jesus on the way of the cross. Walk with me as we embrace the pure discipleship essentials of God working through us while learning to love God with your whole heart, mind, and soul. Then and only then will we know the joy that the Father has for us, and we can proclaim, "I like the Christian life."

and feel, what we desire and long for, the way we see each other and how we seek to live our lives in the world. We could say our friendship with God creates the climate in which you and I become the people God wants us to be. In his latest book, Friendship with God, Trevor Hudson digs into these two interwoven themes of friendship and personal transformation. He explains that friendship is a helpful analogy for the intimate kind of relationship God wants with us. Put very simply, the gospel invites you and me into friendship with God. When we become friends with Jesus, we are drawn into God's greater dream for the world. This indeed is the purpose of our lives on earth. We are created to become friends of God and to partner with God in making his dream a greater reality in the world around us. Topics that are addressed include: Living Beyond Loneliness God's Passionate Longing for Friendship Getting to Know Our Friend Understanding Prayer as Deepening Friendship Looking Outward Together Exploring Our Friend's Address Book Discerning What Our Friend Wants Us to Do Blessing Others as Our Friend Has Blessed Us Facing Our Fears with Our Friend Asking Our Friend the Hardest Question The creator God who loves us and set the whole universe into existence, and who sustains our lives in the immediacy of each moment, wants our intimate friendship. As you explore this good news you will be encouraged to see your faith and your life in a totally new way.

As you take this journey, you will discover how God wants to bless you in your relationships so you can experience ultimate joy and so God can be glorified as you pass your blessings on to others. After Seminary, David Derby started a consulting agency to help businesses and to encourage Christians to discover their potential. His programs are enriched by his experiences as a juvenile corrections facility counselor, behavior style analyst, teacher, pastor, business owner, missionary mobilizer, and foster parent to more than 70 youth. While on mission projects in remote areas of India, David met grass-root level church planters of whom many live on less than one dollar a day, have little or no education, and suffer persecution for sharing their faith. The Lord used this experience to lead David to write the Indian edition of this book, which has been translated into six Indian languages, and thousands have been taught from it throughout India. David was denied reentry into India in 2011. The Indian immigration authorities refuse to give an explanation for this decision. But it appears David was reported by radical anti-Christian Hindu officials who saw the growth of the local churches after his visits to their areas.

Spiritual Building Blocks - Marshall Welch 2015-09-26
Spiritual Building Blocks takes the greatest commandment and uses it as the cornerstone in building a spiritual foundation to help notice God's presence in our everyday lives. Part 1 begins by unpacking the greatest commandment into six essential parts: God, the self, our neighbor, our head, our heart, and our hands. The opening chapters answer common questions about spirituality and its relationship with religion. Part 2 presents a variety of spiritual practices and exercises using our head, heart, and hands as building blocks to nurture our spiritual lives as we love God, the self, and our neighbors. Some of these practices may be new while others may be familiar but reframed in a new way. Personal stories by everyday people illustrate many of these exercises. Spiritual Building Blocks was written for individuals or small groups interested in deepening their spiritual lives.

Nourishment for the Spiritual Pilgrimage -

Vernon T. Jones 2017-02-16

"In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed" (Mark 1:35). Jesus taught by his words and actions. He went by himself to pray when he was tired, when faced with upcoming trying events, or when he just wanted to be alone in the presence of his Lord. He gave us guidance about what to pray, how to pray, and why to pray, and was very familiar with the Hebrew Scriptures. Thus, if we want to become Jesus' disciple we should follow his model and invest time and emotional energy into prayer, Bible study, and reflection. <>Nourishment For The Spiritual Pilgrimage provides an aid for those who want to participate in the spiritual pilgrimage of becoming a lifelong disciple of Jesus Christ. It offers insight and support for those who daily want to turn their hearts, souls, and minds to God's will in their lives, as they strive to help in bringing about God's kingdom in this present time. There are countless other devotionals, but hopefully this can offer something that many of the others may not, a specific focus on the concept of discipleship.

How To Become The Person God Wants You To Be
