The Grey Woman Elizabeth Gaskell 2020-10-26 Anna, a German mill-owner's daughter, marries a French aristocrat and moves to France. She discovers that her husband killed his previous wife and that he is trying to kill her as well. Quick, intriguing, and with an extremely interesting plot, 'The Grey Woman' (1861) is a short story by Elizabeth Gaskell for anyone who enjoys a good gothic shudder. Incredibly progressive for its time, it is about the survival of the ill-treated woman who has decided that enough is enough. Elizabeth Cleghorn Gaskell (1810-1865) was an English novelist, short story writer, and biographer, best known for her novels 'North and South' and 'Wives and Daughters' as well as her biography of Charlotte Brontë. Gaskell was viewed as a minor author until the 1950s where it became evident that her depiction of industrial environments and social problems was brilliant and poignant.

How to Get Her Interested in You Kent Lamarc 2018-12-22 Love, the topic of thousands of novels for many centuries, as well as one of the most discussed subjects in our society today, is still being widely misunderstood. As the number of single people in the world increases, scientists have tried to identify the causes that make anyone fall in love without any success. What they did find were tendencies that this book reorganized in order to lead into a specific path. We do know by now that love is basically a subjective experience depending foremost on personal assumptions. Nevertheless, if we combine what many experts have found, it's possible to reach a certain number of practical deductions. With this information in hand, we can dramatically increase our chances of finding the ideal partner. Considering such premise, the steps here presented describe a combination of scientifically proven facts that intend to show the easiest and quickest way to find a partner. The informational content clarifies the interaction of thoughts and behaviors between both genders, while describing the whole perspective of what seduction is, allowing a better control of the dating game. Dating is, above all, an experience of self-acknowledgment and it's based on this principle that this book proposes a self-analysis to our attitude towards finding it and overcoming personal barriers.

Dying To Get Her Man Judy Fitzwater 2016-04-26 On the coldest day in Macon, Georgia's recent history, Suzanne Gray dressed herself in white, tied a blue ribbon in her hair, gathered a bouquet of white roses, typed a suicide note, lay herself down on her lover's grave, and froze to death. Or did she? Suzanne's niece doesn't think so. Neither does mystery writer Jennifer Marsh. Not only was the note not signed, but, well, honestly the whole thing sounds fishy to Jennifer and she can't let it go. Sam Culpepper, the reporter on the case and Jennifer's boyfriend, not only appears to be hiding some of the details from Jennifer but seems more interested in taking their relationship to the next level than discussing work. So why, then, does an engagement announcement for Sam and his ex-girlfriend appear in the paper the next day? Did Suzanne commit suicide or was she murdered? Did Suzanne's lover really die from a slip on the stairs? Does Sam have another relationship that Jennifer knew nothing about? What will it take to solve these mysteries? When the bullets start to fly, Jennifer knows that she'd better figure out what's happening, or she'll be paying with more than her heart... she'll be paying with her life. "Jennifer Marsh is a delight—resourceful, funny, and impulsive..." Laura Lippman "...the solution to the mystery is a kicker..." The Mystery Review

The Diary of A Young Girl (Deluxe Hardbound Edition) Anne Frank 2022-12-06 A thirteen-year-old Jewish girl and her family abandoned their house in Amsterdam and went into hiding in 1942, when Nazis occupied Holland. They and another family stayed cloistered in the "Secret Annex" of an old office building for the next two years, until their whereabouts were revealed to the Gestapo. They suffered starvation, boredom, the daily cruelties of living in tight quarters, and the ever-present prospect of discovery and death because they were cut off from the outside world. Anne Frank kept a diary throughout this time, recording vivid recollections of her events. Her story is a fascinating meditation on human tenacity and weakness, as well as a riveting self-portrait of a sensitive and vibrant young woman whose promising future was sadly cut short.

Zora Neale Hurston Deborah G. Plant 2007-08-30 This new biography takes into account the whole woman—not just the prolific author of such great works as Their Eyes Were Watching God, Moses, Man of the Mountain, Jonah's Gourd Vine, Mules and Men, as well as essays, folklore, short stories, and poetry—but the philosopher and the spiritual soul, examining how each is reflected in her career, fiction and nonfiction publications, social and political activity, and, ultimately, her death. When we ask what animated the woman who achieved all that she did, we must necessarily probe further. Not one of the other existing biographies discusses or analyzes Hurston's spirituality in any sustained sense, even though this spirituality played a significant role in her life and works. As author Deborah G. Plant shows, Zora Neale Hurston's ability to achieve and to endure all she did came from the courage of her convictions—a belief in self that was profoundly centered and anchored in spirituality.
