

I Love Her Shes My Best Friend

After the Snap Cadence Keys 2024-02-08 I finally get the nerve to tell my best friend I'm in love with him and he has the audacity to ask me to be his fake girlfriend. Alayna I've been secretly in love with my best friend, Dom, for years, but after his latest scandal, I can't do it anymore. I can't keep letting him take advantage of our friendship...or breaking my heart every time I have to watch him hook up with some model or actress or [insert any woman who's not me here]. I'm done. But Dom's stubborn, and when I try to end our friendship, he won't hear it, until I confess the secret I've held onto for dear life. Instead of responding like I expect him to, he has the nerve to try to convince me to be his fake girlfriend for a PR stunt to clean up his image. Seriously? Dominic When I come over to my best friend's house to convince her to be my fake girlfriend, the last thing I expect is for her to tell me she's in love with me. I may act fast on the football field, but when it comes to my personal life, I'm a guy who needs time to process. But I know one thing with certainty: I can't lose Laney. When I'm forced to face the feelings I've ignored for years, I start seeing all the ways I've let her down, and worse, made her feel like she's not the most important person in my world. I have six months to convince her to not give up on me. Six months to show her I'm not going to keep letting her down anymore. Six months to prove to her I love her as much as she loves me. Because losing her would be cutting my own heart out, and that's not an option. After the Snap is a steamy best friends to lovers standalone sports romance. It is book six in the LA Wolves Football series.

to check on me at least five times a day. * You helped me sew 106 name tapes into my daughter's clothes before she went to sleep-away camp for the first time. Then you let me cry on your shoulder when she left on the bus. * You think I'm smart, capable,

The Ramblings and Correlations of an Intergenerational Mind

Billie G 2023-05-26 I grew up in Vancouver where I've run the gamut of alcoholism, addiction, dysfunction, and every other intergenerational effect around. I am a Heiltsuk, born in Bella Bella, BC. My name is Billie, and I am known on a popular social media site and from my childhood as Billie G. I am the sixth daughter of a handsome carver/fisherman and a beautiful mom who worked in the cannery in Namu, BC. I am a proud mom of four beautiful sons, Martin, Gregory, Miguel and Jamie. I am a grandmother, an aunt, a daughter and a niece, sister, cousin and friend. I had absolutely no idea why my people and I are so broken. I had no idea what intergenerational effects were until I went to college and then university. Before I had the privilege of earning an education, I had no idea why I'd led a life stagnant and laden with dysfunction or why I could not just 'be healthy.' I did not understand why I had to take the long rough and tough way around towards healing. I have since earned a Bachelor of Social Work degree from an indigenous perspective and I have learned a lot about me and my life and how I've been affected by intergenerational effects. I understand now why I am so stigmatized. I understand now who I am and where I come from. I have recognized not a lot of people, indigenous or otherwise, are unaware of what intergenerational effects are. I have correlated some effects with my life in hopes of giving more clarity in how they affect me and my people. These are my views, this is my understanding, and this is my life. These are The Ramblings and Correlations of an Intergenerational Mind.

Social Justice Art Marit Dewhurst 2014-11-01 In this lively and groundbreaking book, arts educator Marit Dewhurst examines why art is an effective way to engage students in thinking about the role they might play in addressing social injustice. Based on interviews and observations of sixteen high schoolers participating in an activist arts class at a New York City museum, Dewhurst identifies three learning processes common to the act of creating art that have an impact on social justice: connecting, questioning, and translating. Noting that "one of the challenges of social justice art education has been the difficulty of naming effective strategies that can be used across multiple contexts," Dewhurst outlines core strategies for an "activist arts pedagogy" and offers concrete suggestions for educators seeking to incorporate activist art projects inside or outside formal school settings. Social Justice Art seeks to give common language to educators and others who are looking to expand and refine their practices in an emerging field, whether they work in art education, social justice programming, or youth development.

Break the Rules Roxie Noir She's my best friend's kid sister. Now she's not a kid any more. As a forest ranger, I believe in the simple life. I prefer cabins to apartments, trails over freeways, and trees to people. My life is orderly, predictable, and quiet. Until it's hit by a woman I never saw coming -- Hurricane June. She's fierce. She's feisty. She has a laugh like the first day of spring, and she's so pretty that I can't breathe when I look at her. June will only be in town for a few months—just while job-hunting. She won't last until winter, but how can I resist? Except I have to. She's my best, oldest, and most loyal friend's baby sister.

Betraying him would be the worst thing I've ever done. Not betraying him might be the hardest. Especially once we start working together on a secret project. All this spending time together, sneaking around at night, and lying to her brother about what we're doing sure feels like more than friendship. June might break my heart. Her brother might break my nose. But I guess some things were made to be broken. Break the Rules is the third book in the Loveless Brothers series, and can be read as a total standalone. It's for fans of high-heat, low-angst romantic comedies and anyone who's ever had a crush on their brother's best friend. This one's got all the sibling banter you love, meddling brothers, a mountain man who's quiet in the streets and anything but in the sheets, tons of steam, and all the small town charm you can handle. Of course, it's also got an HEA. (And yes, it bangs.) This series is for fans of Elsie Silver, Claire Kingsley, Lucy Score, Kate Canterbury, and Pippa Grant.
