Basketball For Girls

Bibliographic Guide to Womens Studies 1998 - New York Public Library Staff 1999-08

Ebony - 1999

Basketball Year - Robin Roberts 2000

What is it like to be a professional basketball player in the WNBA? Glorious victories, adoring fans, and celebrity endorsements go hand-in-hand with grueling training camps, continuous traveling, and a 24-hour-a-day commitment to upholding the ideals of the WNBA. But perhaps the most striking aspect of being a woman pro, readers will find, is the awareness of being part of something special, and living this commitment out of sincere appreciation and desire, not because it's required. Through the pre-season, the season itself, and the off-season, readers follow the players as they practice, train, travel, go to school, pursue other careers, take care of families, interact with fans, and participate in a host of other activities.

Changing the Game: Asian Pacific American Female Athletes - Mia Wenjen

2021-07-08

Meet 17 Asian Pacific American female athletes from yesterday and today! From snowboarder Chloe Kim and hockey player Julie Chu to soccer player Natasha Kai-Marks, these champions will inspire us as we learn how they rose to compete at the highest level and how they pave the way for others to follow.

Dads for Daughters - Michelle Travis 2020-01-28

"The dude's playbook and toolbox for truly showing up for women at work as an advocate and a warrior for gender equality . . . Go Dads Go!" —W. Brad Johnson & David Smith, authors of Athena Rising Winner 2020 Living Now Gold Award, Family & Parenting Today's generation of feminist dads are raising confident, empowered daughters who believe they can achieve anything. But the world is still profoundly unequal for women and girls, with workplaces built by men for men, massive gender pay gaps, and deeply-ingrained gender stereotypes. Dads for Daughters offers fathers guidance for building a world where their daughters can thrive. The most successful leaders of all companies, from family businesses to lean startups, understand that leaders eat last. Your workplace can be a stage for the fight for equality and true leadership that empowers women. The guidance in this book will help you move from TED talks to daily action. Men who were raised with the second-wave feminism of The Feminine Mystique know that the personal is political. The confidence code for girls that you instill at home can lead to a better world for all women. Dads for Daughters is a feminist book for fathers invested in the gender equality fight. With this book, you'll find: Steps you can take today in your workplace and community to create a better tomorrow Inspiring stories from successful and empathetic fathers Resources to help you take action in the women's movement "If you're a dad who wants to create a fairer and more equal world for your daughters to thrive in, this book is a must-read!" —Jerry Yang, cofounder & former CEO of Yahoo! Inc.

Girls Play to Win Basketball - Tom Robinson 2010-07-01
She dribbles, she drives the lane for the lay-up! Women's basketball is emerging as one of the world's most exciting sports. From colleges in the United States to the Olympics to professional leagues around the world, thousands of people come to cheer on their favorite team. But you don't need thousands of fans to enjoy basketball. All you need is a ball and a basket. The history, the rules, and the heroines: these nonfiction accounts of women's sports relate the interesting insights of each sport, including the rules, game play, and standout athletes. Girls looking for role models as well as the "hows and whys" of their favorite game will find the answers in these fresh, accessible titles. Part history, part biography, and part instruction, Girls Play to Win allows readers to access "everything they want to know" about the game. More than an introduction, this series takes what is likely an existing interest and allows the reader to delve deeper. Content consultants are real-world experts that include Olympic athletes and coaches. Library Media Connection Editor's Choice

Girls' Basketball - Doug Williams 2014-09-01
