Get Over Yourself! - Patti Novak 2008-12-30
True love doesn't just happen, notes professional matchmaker Patti Novak. You have to work for it—and want it. Forget eight-minute speed dates or online dating sites with twenty-page questionnaires that promise a scientifically calculated perfect match. The fact that you both like golf, stamp collecting, and pizza with anchovies is great, but it won't mean a thing if you don't feel that zing. But before there can be sparks, there have to be dates. And before the first date, you need to get over yourself! Taking a tough-love approach, and in her signature straight-shooting style, Patti will show you how to fix what needs to be fixed, reach your core, and identify who you are and what you want in a partner. She uses a three-part common-sense formula: • Getting Over What? Assess your dating weaknesses, recognize what's not working, and adjust your expectations. Delve into your personal history and past relationships, and pinpoint the issues that have been holding you back. • Almost Over It Fine-tune your attitude, your look, and your behavior to maximize your dating chances. Novak lays out strategies to help you deal with the brutal dating monsters you find along the way. • Over It Learn the do's and don'ts of the first date, the second date, and beyond. Remember, it's not a job interview or therapy session. Pretend you're meeting a new friend, not a prospective husband or wife. Finding your one and only isn't about having the right shoes or a flat stomach. It's about being true to yourself, being vulnerable, and being ready for love. Whether you're new to the dating scene, divorced and looking, or just trying to reach that second date, Get Over Yourself! will help you get the love you've always wanted and deserve.

How to Attract and Approach a Woman - Roman G. Turkowsky 2012-04-04

Picture this. If you are a guy that has spent any time in any place at all trying to talk to a woman, you know how this scene goes. You see the woman of your dreams. Okay, this may be a little exaggeration. But you see a pretty woman somewhere. Of course, when you see her, you naturally want to go talk to her. Thus far, you haven't done a thing wrong. You walk over to her and say hi. She greets you back, not incredibly interested. As pretty as she is, there is no doubt that she has been randomly approached by men that look just as good, if not better than you on a regular basis. This is just to be expected, no matter how good you think you look, or actually do. She is just used to it. You introduce yourself and offer your hand to shake. She accepts your hand and tells you her name. Once again, you are doing just fine. This is where the story starts to go downhill, though. There is an awkward pause as she looks at you expecting you to say something else. After all, you approached her. You try desperately to think of something to say. All that comes out is three strikes in a single question because you have nothing better to say. She answers you absently, and looks around for someone that she knows to talk to, greeting them from across the room. She smiles and takes off, politely casting a “nice to meet you” over her shoulder as she runs off with her friends, planning to talk about you when she gets over there and not talk to you for the rest of the night. And you have failed. Now, your question or statement, whatever it was, can be one of many different things. No matter what you said to her or asked her, the message portrayed was the same exact thing. And she read the message loud and clear. What was the message? It is simply: I have nothing to say. That is why she walked away from you without any interest whatsoever. That is why she will not remember your name in fifteen minutes, if she remembers it that long. And that is why you are going home alone.

to flirt with beauties, cheerfully and easy to become acquainted, and generally feel myself a worthy man. I'm sure this is a normal desire, inherent in all men. While studying at a prestigious university, I played hockey, and I had a favorite girl with whom I felt well, and whom I planned to marry. However, life made its own adjustments to my script. At the moment when I thought everything was fine, my girlfriend cheated on me and we parted ways. I was injured, my hockey player career went to the bottom, and in a deep depression, I was expelled from university. It was after painful betrayal that I realized I had been cowering in my comfort zone for a long time. I had not developed myself as a man. I caught myself at the terrible thought that I absolutely did not understand women. I did not know how to become acquainted with them or interact. For me, it was a challenge to squeeze out, "Hello." Not to mention dating and seduction. For a long time, I felt absolutely apathy and did not know what to do. When I had to choose whether to become a slave of chance and circumstance or become master of my own destiny and repair the situation at the root, I got down to business. I have been going out on the streets, in parks, and cafes to meet girls for 4-5 hours. I received a lot of refusals, but the inner conviction that there was nowhere to fall further, and the desire to prove I'm worth something as a man helped me withstand a period of stress, awkward situations, and hundreds of "No." A few years later, dating became quite a natural process for me., I better understood women and had success in seduction. Further, I honed the skill of meeting women to the worked-out actions that were given easily, as soon as I understood the female psychology and the main question of "what do they want?." This realization brought me to a completely new level, and I began to enjoy the process of dating, communication, and seduction of beautiful women. Parallel to my successes in communication with women, developing self-confidence, leadership, and charisma, I launched a number of businesses and reached a state where I could devote most of my time to self-development, hobbies, and travel. Many friends began to ask me for advice and for help in dealing with women. Helping them, I realized I like to share experiences with men whose emotions are so familiar to me, so I decided to share key insights and practical advice in my books. In this book, I formulate four key stages that inevitably lead you to seduce women, namely: -an acquaintance; -a date; -rapprochement; -going to your place. I try to present the most useful beliefs and psychological tricks to understand how best to invite a girl to a date, where to go, what to talk about, how to behave, at what moment to reapproach, and how to correctly and confidently take her home for a mind-blowing night. I'm sure, after reading, you'll understand how much simpler it is than it seems. Applying my advice and principles, you'll seduce a lot of beauties that you are worthy of.

You are worth it, buddy!

Conversational Style - Deborah Tannen

2005-07-21

This revised edition of Deborah Tannen's first discourse analysis book, Conversational Style--first published in 1984--presents an approach to analyzing conversation that later became the hallmark and foundation of her extensive body of work in discourse analysis, including the monograph Talking Voices, as well as her well-known popular books You Just Don't Understand, That's Not What I Meant!, and Talking from 9 to 5, among others. Carefully examining the discourse of six speakers over the course of a two-and-a-half hour Thanksgiving dinner conversation, Tannen analyzes the features that make up the speakers' conversational styles, and in particular how aspects of what she calls a 'high-involvement style' have a positive effect when used with others who share the style, but a negative effect with those whose styles differ.

This revised edition includes a new preface and an afterword in which Tannen discusses the book's place in the evolution of her work. Conversational Style is written in an accessible and non-technical style that should appeal to scholars and students of discourse analysis (in fields like linguistics, anthropology, communication, sociology, and psychology) as well as general readers fascinated by Tannen's popular work. This book is an ideal text for use in introductory classes in linguistics and discourse analysis.

I Am Malala - Malala Yousafzai 2014-11-13
Winner of the 2014 Nobel Peace Prize In 2009 Malala Yousafzai began writing a blog on BBC Urdu about life in the Swat Valley as the Taliban gained control, at times banning girls from attending school. When her identity was discovered, Malala began to appear in both Pakistani and international media, advocating the freedom to pursue education for all. In October 2012, gunmen boarded Malala's school bus and shot her in the face, a bullet passing through her head and into her shoulder. Remarkably, Malala survived the shooting. At a very young age, Malala Yousafzai has become a worldwide symbol of courage and hope. Her shooting has sparked a wave of solidarity across Pakistan, not to mention globally, for the right to education, freedom from terror and female emancipation.
