Body/Sex/Work - Carol Wolkowitz 2013-02-27

Body/Sex/Work focuses on the intimate, embodied and sexualised labour that occurs within body work and sex work. Bringing together an internationally renowned group of academics, it explores, empirically and theoretically, labour processes, workplace relations, regulation and resistance in some of the many work sites that make up the body work and sex work sectors. The book makes a key contribution to research recognising the embodiment of labour and the body, reframing the key questions in critical studies of work and employment. Key Benefits: - The first book that draws together the sub-disciplines of body work and sex work - Written by leading international experts - Contains cutting edge empirical research on contemporary topics Body/Sex/Work is an ideal companion for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students of labour and organisation studies, body studies, gender, and sexuality. It will also appeal to researchers and lecturers in these fields.

Equal Pay for Equal Work - International Labour Office 1958

Unbearable to the Human Heart - Panudda Boonpala 2002

Child trafficking is emerging as a global issue affecting millions of children and families around the world. This report explores emerging policy responses and lessons learned from efforts to combat this complex problem. Aspects discussed include: defining the problem; the links between trafficking and child labour; initiatives at local, national, regional and international level; the empowerment of individuals; education as prevention; law enforcement; mapping and situational analysis.

Equal Pay Protection in Industrialised Market Economies - François Eyraud 1993

Publications Catalogue - International Labour Office 2000

Equality at Work - International Labour Office 2007

This volume examines established and emerging trends in workplace discrimination and provides a global picture of the struggle to overcome the problem. The report addresses established discrimination issues and the persistence of economic, social, and moral implications caused by chronic racial, ethnic, and sex discrimination in employment. It also investigates recently recognized forms of discrimination, including those based on age and sexual orientation, and emerging forms such as genetic and lifestyle discrimination. Various institutional and policy responses to combat all kinds of discrimination in the workplace are highlighted. The book examines the effectiveness and accessibility of strategies such as affirmative action, procurement policy, and active labor market policies. It presents an action plan for eliminating discrimination and promoting equality as part of the decent work agenda at national and global levels.

Problems and Opportunities of Employment and Re-employment of Older Workers in Commerce and Offices - International Labour Office 1974

Conference paper on problems of and employment opportunities for older workers in commerce and as office workers, particularly in the developed countries - covers the factors negatively affecting the employment situation of older workers, some measures to combat discrimination, retirement age issues, etc. References and statistical tables. Conference held in Geneva 1974 September 17 to 27.

The Sex Sector - Organisation internationale du travail 1998

This book includes case studies from Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, and Thailand, showing prostitution's well organized and highly diversified economic bases, and explaining why it is difficult for policymakers and legislators to define a clear legal stance on adult prostitution, or to implement effective social programs.

Time for Equality at Work - 2003

This is the fourth global report under the follow-up to the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work. It examines diverse forms of discrimination at work and considers various policy and practical responses to tackle this problem. The book finds that the benefits of eliminating discrimination in the workplace go beyond the individual level and extend to the economy and to society, leading to the efficient use of human resources and diverse talents, improved worker morale and motivation, better labour relations and productivity gains.

Economically Active Population Estimates and Projections, 1950-2025: World summary - International Labour Office 1986

Statistical tables, population, population growth, labour force and labour force participation, trends and projections, developing countries, developed countries - presents international, regional level and national level data by sex, age group, economic sector and annual employment growth rates.

In the Twilight Zone - Maggie Black 1995

Based on studies on child labour in both the regular part of the tourist industry and in its "'twilight zone'" in four major tourist destinations where child work was common - Kenya, Mexico, the Philippines and Sri Lanka - this report challenges many assumptions about child involvement in the industry, and highlights the distorting effect of sensationalist reporting on "'child sex"'. Youthful good looks and charm are often key qualifications for jobs in bars and hotels, and employees may be exposed to sexual enticement, but many girls described as "'child prostitutes'" in journalistic account.
