For Woman's Love Emma Dorothy Eliza Nevitte Southworth 2022-09-15 'For Woman's Love' is a romance novel written by Emma Dorothy Eliza Nevitte Southworth. The lead character of the book is Cora Haught, an orphan with some fortune to her name. After their parents' death, she and her brother were brought up by their grandfather, Aaron Rockharrt. And so begin the tale of their life in that glorious day in June, where a long, deep, green valley lay low between two lofty ridges of the Cumberland mountains, running north and south for ten miles, and near the boundary lines of three States. This lovely vale was watered by a merry, sparkling little river called the Whirligig, which furnished the power for the huge machinery of the great firm of Rockharrt & Sons, proprietors of the Plutus iron mines and the North End foundries, which supplied the mighty engines on the great lines of railroad from the East to the West, and whose massive buildings, forges, furnaces, store-houses and laborers' cottages occupied all the ground between the foot of the mountain and the banks of the river, on both sides of the Whirligig, at the upper or north end of the valley, where a substantial bridge connected the two shores. This settlement, called, from its position, North End, was quite a thriving little

"Tears are her method of communicating her melancholy, her questions, her adoration, her depression, her affliction and her pride."... This established a major connection with the Holy messenger, "Master, you are a virtuoso. You considered everything. A lady is surely superb" Master said. "To be sure she is. She has strength that astonishes a man. She can deal with inconvenience and worry about substantial concerns. She holds bliss, love and feelings. She grins when she wants to shout. She sings when she wants to cry, cries when cheerful and giggles when apprehensive. She battles for what she has faith in. Her affection is unequivocal. Her heart is broken when a closest relative or a companion passes on yet she finds strength to continue ahead with life" The Heavenly messenger asked: So she is an ideal being? The lord replied: No. She has only one downside "She frequently fails to remember what she is worth". Skip this stage and you'll be in trouble... You've been lied to by dating gurus. Listen, my case was worse than yours. I thought it was because I came from a not-so-rich family or because I wasn't too tall and handsome. The truth is: I was in my head. I was the one killing myself-just the same way you're mentally sabotaging yourself without knowing. I wish someone had told me all the things I discovered throughout my struggles in understanding women-it would've saved me time and energy. Imagine the shame and pains you feel emotionally, but you have no one to run to for help except Google, yet there are too many inaccurate info by "acclaimed gurus" trying to fill your brain with pickup lines. Sometimes, you feel resentful towards women because they either rejected or friend-zoned you. This makes you feel undesirable and angry.
