The Vienna Gestapo, 1938-1945 - Elisabeth
Boeckl-Klamper 2022-01-14

The Vienna Gestapo headquarters was the largest of its kind in the German Reich and the most important instrument of Nazi terror in Austria, responsible for the persecution of Jews, suppression of resistance and policing of forced labourers. Of the more than fifty thousand people arrested by the Vienna Gestapo, many were subjected to torturous interrogation before being either sent to concentration camps or handed over to the Nazi judiciary for prosecution. This comprehensive survey by three expert historians focuses on these victims of repression and persecution as well as the structure of the Vienna Gestapo and the perpetrators of its crimes.

Zur Ordnung der Anerkennung - Paul Vehse

Paul Vehse untersucht

Anerkennungsproblematiken, die in der Gedenkstättenpädagogik im Bestreben um ein anerkennendes Gedenken an die Verfolgten des Nationalsozialismus entstehen. In der mit Judith Butler fundierten Studie werden die von Axel Honneth formulierten Anerkennungsformen analytisch gewendet und in zwei ausführlichen Fallstudien die Anerkennungsstrategien der pädagogischen Mitarbeiter rekonstruiert. Die Ausschlüsse und Hierarchisierungen, die diese Strategien produzieren, werden vor dem Hintergrund der gegenwärtigen Anerkennungsordnung eingeordnet und diskutiert. Die Studie liefert einen Beitrag zur Analyse von Anerkennung und formuliert Implikationen für die Gedenkstättenpädagogik. Opposing Fascism - Tim Kirk 1999-03-04

This innovative volume draws together a series of perspectives on the everyday experience of Europeans in the 'age of fascism'. The contributions go beyond the conventional stereotypes of organized resistance to examine the tensions and ambiguities within the communities, both national and local, that opposed fascism. The authors show that under the pressures of civil conflict, occupation, and even everyday life, motives were rarely as pure and political alignments seldom as straightforward as our reassuring collective memories of fascism and war have led us to believe. The combination of original research and engagement with relevant debates makes this collection invaluable both for researchers in the social and political history of World War II and for students of modern European history. Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Aging - Douglas C. Kimmel 2006

This volume fills a unique gap. Gerontologists seldom focus on special concerns of gay and lesbian older adults, lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender aging organizations rarely address issues of aging, and the mental health field has demonstrated an ability to marginalize both aging and homosexuality. This book lays out the state of knowledge with respect to lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender aging—physical health, sexuality, family ties, victimization, and legal and financial concerns. The references at the end of individual chapters and the bibliographical material at the end of the book provide an invaluable resource. For any gerontologist intrigued by the interplay of historical changes and individual aging, it is difficult to imagine a more powerful example than Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Aging. Evolution of attitudes toward homosexuality, the emergence of HIV/AIDS, and legal protections beginning to be afforded to same-sex relationships are all part of the changing world that has shaped and been shaped by lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender individuals who are now old.

ZU SPÄT? - 2015-06-24

Gay Berlin - Robert Beachy 2014-11-18

An unprecedented examination of the ways in which the uninhibited urban sexuality, sexual experimentation, and medical advances of pre-Weimar Berlin created and molded our modern understanding of sexual orientation and gay identity. Known already in the 1850s for the friendly company of its “warm brothers” (German slang for men who love other men), Berlin, before the turn of the twentieth century, became a place where scholars, activists, and medical professionals could explore and begin to educate both themselves and Europe about new and emerging sexual identities. From Karl Heinrich Ulrichs, a German activist described by some as the first openly gay man, to the world of Berlin’s vast homosexual subcultures, to a major sex scandal that enraptured the daily newspapers and shook the court of Emperor William II—and on through some of the very first sex reassignment surgeries—Robert Beachy uncovers the long-forgotten events and characters that continue to shape and influence the way we think of sexuality today. Chapter by chapter Beachy's scholarship illuminates forgotten firsts, including the life and work of Dr. Magnus Hirschfeld, first to claim (in 1896) that same-sex desire is an immutable, biologically determined characteristic, and founder of the Institute for Sexual Science. Though raided and closed down by the Nazis in 1933, the institute served as, among other things, "a veritable incubator for the science of tran-sexuality," scene of one of the world's first sex reassignment surgeries. Fascinating, surprising, and informative—Gay Berlin is certain to be counted as a foundational cultural examination of human sexuality.

How We Desire - Carolin Emcke 2018-05-28

What if, instead of discovering our sexuality only once, during puberty, we discover it again later—and then again, after that? What if our sexuality reinvents itself every time our desire shifts, every time the object of our desire changes? What if the nature of our desire is constantly changing—growing deeper, lighter, wilder, more reckless, more tender, more selfish, more devoted, more radical? How We Desire is an enthralling essay about gender, sexuality and love by one of Germany's most admired writers. It's about growing up, and discovering the contours of desire and difference, about understanding that we sometimes 'slip into norms the way we slip into clothes, putting them on because they're laid out ready for us'. In telling her own story, Emcke draws back the veil on how we experience desire, no matter what our sexual orientation. And she examines how prejudice against homosexuality has survived its decriminalisation in the west. This marvellous book pays homage to the radical magic and liberating tenderness of desire itself. Carolin Emcke was born in 1967. She studied philosophy, politics and history in London, Frankfurt and at Harvard. From 1998 to 2013 she reported from war and crisis zones including Kosovo, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Iraq, Gaza and Haiti. She has written a number of books, and in 2016 she received the Peace Prize of the German Book Trade, which has also been won by Svetlana Alexievich, Orhan Pamuk and Susan Sontag. How We Desire is the first book by Carolin Emcke to be translated into English. 'Hypnotic.' Sydney Morning Herald 'A beautiful account of discovering and rediscovering one's identity.' Otago Daily Times 'Delicate and vulnerable, angry, passionate, clever and thoughtful. An amazing work.' Westdeutsche

Allgemeine Zeitung 'Her words tremble with fury...A compelling conversation, urging readers to rethink the borderlands of the erotic.'
Australian 'Huge intellect and tremendous energy.' Radio NZ

Fundamental Questions - Ulla Weber

2021-05-11

Mit "Fundamental Questions" legt die Max-Planck-Gesellschaft zum ersten Mal einen Sammelband zur Geschlechterforschung vor. Dank des breiten Spektrums der in der Forschungsgesellschaft vertretenen Fachrichtungen und Fachkulturen präsentieren die aus verschiedenen Instituten stammenden AutorInnen Erkenntnisse aus zahlreichen Forschungsfeldern: Recht, Kunstgeschichte, Wissenschaftsgeschichte, Neurowissenschaften und Informatik. Ebenso vielgestaltig sind die Ansätze, Themen, Fragestellungen und Methodik der versammelten Beiträge. Diese Vielfalt zeigt in bester Art und Weise, dass die Integration der Geschlechterperspektive nicht nur für angewandte Wissenschaft und Entwicklung, sondern ebenso für die Grundlagenforschung gewinnbringend ist. Mit Beiträgen von Dr. Laura A. Bechthold, Elifcan Celebi, Dr. Marina Chugunova, Dr. Luisa Stella de Oliveira Coutinho Silva, Svenja Friess, Ph.D. Giorgia Gastaldon, Dr. Lisa Hanstein, Dr. Philine Helas, Prof. Karin Hoisl, Ph.D. Michael E. Rose, Esra Sarioglu, Isabel Valera und Dr. Ulla Weber.

Männer mit "Makel" - Bernhard Gotto

Die Nachkriegszeit gilt als Phase der "Remaskulinisierung". Gesellschaftlich akzeptierte Vorstellungen von Männlichkeit, die auf Leistungskraft, Gemeinschaftsorientierung und Heterosexualität fußten, setzten Männer, die "anders" waren, unter Konformitätsdruck. Aber wie wirkten sich die Selbstbehauptungsversuche von Kriegsversehrten, Obdachlosen oder Homosexuellen auf das vorherrschende Männlichkeitsideal aus? Dieser Sammelband beleuchtet die Erfahrungsgeschichte der Männer mit "Makel" und differenziert die oft apostrophierte These einer "Krise der Männlichkeit" in den 1950er und 1960er Jahren. Erkennbar werden so Antriebskräfte und Hemmnisse der Individualisierung und Pluralisierung von Lebensentwürfen in der jungen Bundesrepublik.

Ishtyle - Kareem Khubchandani 2020-07-16
Ishtyle follows queer South Asian men across borders into gay neighborhoods, nightclubs, bars, and house parties in Bangalore and Chicago. Bringing the cultural practices they are most familiar with into these spaces, these men accent the aesthetics of nightlife cultures through performance. Kareem Khubchandani develops the notion of "ishtyle" to name this accented style, while also showing how brown bodies inadvertently become accents themselves, ornamental inclusions in the racialized grammar of desire. Ishtyle allows us to reimagine a global class perpetually represented as docile and desexualized workers caught in the web of global capitalism. The book highlights a different kind of labor, the embodied work these men do to feel queer and sexy together. Engaging major themes in queer studies, Khubchandani explains how his interlocutors' performances stage relationships between: colonial law and public sexuality; film divas and queer fans; and race, caste, and desire. Ultimately, the book demonstrates that the unlikely site of nightlife can be a productive venue for the study of global politics and its institutional hierarchies.

der deutschen Nation und des Reiches melde ich vor der Geschichte nunmehr den Eintritt meiner Heimat in das Deutsche Reich." Mit diesen Worten beschließt Adolf Hitler am 15. März 1938 seine Rede am Wiener Heldenplatz. 250.000 Menschen, die auch aus den umliegenden Bundesländern eingetroffen sind, jubeln ihm zu. Im nunmehr 8. Band der Reihe "Nationalsozialismus in den Bundesländern" beschäftigen sich die Autoren unter anderem mit folgenden Fragen: Wie kommt es zum Aufstieg der Nationalsozialisten? Was begeistert die Wienerinnen und Wiener daran? Wie erleben junge Menschen diese Zeit und wie ergeht es den Wiener Jüdinnen und Juden? Was passiert am "Spiegelgrund"? Wie verläuft der Bombenkrieg in Wien? An wen richtet sich der Band Das Buch adressiert eine interessierte LeserInnenschaft und wird daher in einer leicht verständlichen Sprache ohne komplexe wissenschaftliche Terminologie und weitgehend ohne wissenschaftlichen Apparat geschrieben.

Es fasst die Erkenntnisse der (lokalen) Geschichtswissenschaft somit für einen breiten Kreis an Interessierten zusammen.

Agency and the Holocaust - Thomas Kühne
2021-05-13

The book assembles case studies on the human dimension of the Holocaust as illuminated in the academic work of preeminent Holocaust scholar Deborah Dwork, the founding director of the Strassler Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies, home of the first doctoral program focusing solely on the Holocaust and other genocides. Written by fourteen of her former doctoral students, its chapters explore how agency, a key category in recent Holocaust studies and the work of Dwork, works in a variety of different 'small' settings - such as a specific locale or region, an organization, or a group of individuals.

A Badge of Injury - Sébastien Tremblay
2023-12-04

A Badge of Injury is a contribution to both the fields of queer and global history. It analyses gay and lesbian transregional cultural communication networks from the 1970s to the 2000s, focusing on the importance of National Socialism, visual culture, and memory in the queer Atlantic. Provincializing Euro-American queer history, it illustrates how a history of concepts which encompasses the visual offers a greater depth of analysis of the transfer of ideas across regions than texts alone would offer. It also underlines how gay and lesbian history needs to be reframed under a queer lens and understood in a global perspective. Following the journey of the Pink Triangle and its many iterations, A Badge of Injury pinpoints the roles of cultural memory and power in the creation of gay and lesbian transregional narratives of pride or the construction of the historical queer subject. Beyond a success story, the book dives into some of the shortcomings of Euro-American queer history and the power of the negative, writing an emancipatory yet critical story of the era.

Queer in Europe during the Second World War

- Régis Schlagdenhauffen 2018-09-18

At the height of the Second World War, Switzerland decriminalised homosexuality. At the same time, France chose to introduce a law punishing homosexual relationships in certain circumstances. These two examples illustrate contradictory attitudes adopted by European states towards homosexuals during the Second World War. Going beyond the issue of the persecution of homosexuals and the central role played by Nazi Germany between 1939 and 1945, this book is the first to examine the daily lives of homosexual men and women in wartime. By bringing together European specialists on the subject, it relates a different history, one which was indeed marked by repression but also by enlistment in armies at war and resistance groups, not to mention collaboration. Chapter by chapter, it enables us to better understand why the Second World War was a turning point for gays and lesbians in Europe and why our continent is a leader in the fight against discrimination. For the Council of Europe, this book contributes to two separate programmes, the Passing on the Remembrance of the Holocaust and Prevention of Crimes against Humanity programme and the Promoting Human Rights and Equality for LGBT People programme, within the framework of Committee of Ministers Recommendation CM/Rec(2010)5 on combating discrimination on grounds of sexual orientation or gender identity programme. It also continues work towards acknowledging all of the victims of the Nazi regime. Régis Schlagdenhauffen is a lecturer at the École des hautes études en sciences sociales (EHESS), head of the gender-based social history department, member of the Laboratory of Excellence "Writing a new history of Europe" (LabEx EHNE) and co-author of the Council of Europe pedagogical factsheets for teachers entitled "Victims of Nazism. Human Rights Leagues in Europe

(1898-2016) - Wolfgang Schmale 2017

When the French Ligue des droits de l'homme was founded in 1898, it was the world's first league for human rights. Over the following decades, human rights leagues were formed in many other countries following its example, and from 1922, they advocated for a universal human rights ideal under the auspices of a shared umbrella organization. The majority of these leagues were forced to interrupt their activities at some point, especially during the National Socialist period. After World War II, many leagues experienced a renaissance. Not least through their cooperation with the United Nations, they significantly contributed to the global acceptance of the very idea of human rights in the second half of the 20th century. The contributors in this volume break new ground: they provide a so-far lacking overview of international research on human rights leagues, synthesizing it and identifying research desiderata. Some of the presented civil society associations, like those in Eastern Europe, have never before been subject to scholarly consideration.

Homosexualität und Nationalsozialismus in Wien
- Andreas Brunner 2023-09-28

Erst in jüngster Zeit richtete die Forschung ihren Fokus auf die Geschichte jener Personen, die in der NS-Zeit wegen gleichgeschlechtlicher Handlungen verfolgt wurden. Elf Beiträge beleuchten in diesem Band die ideologisch begründete Jagd auf Homosexuelle als »Volksfeinde«, die juristische Dimension der Ausgrenzung, die Stereotypisierung weiblicher Homosexueller und die unterschiedlichen Arbeitsweisen von Kripo und Gestapo. Die Akten der Jugendgerichtsbarkeit werden analysiert und die intersektionale Verfolgung jüdischer Homosexueller dargestellt. Beiträge über die Funktion von medizinischen Gutachten in Gerichtsverfahren gegen und die Bedrohung durch die sogenannte »freiwillige Entmannung« schließen den Sammelband ab. QWIEN, das Zentrum für queere Geschichte, legte in den letzten zehn Jahren auf der Basis von Strafakten eine umfangreiche Opferdatenbank an und begann die Schicksale der Verfolgten zu erforschen. Das Buch erscheint gleichzeitig mit der Eröffnung des Denkmals ARCUS (Schatten eines Regenbogens) für Männer und Frauen, die Opfer der Homosexuellen-Verfolgung in der NS-Zeit wurden. Es befindet sich im Zentrum Wiens, am Karlsplatz.

Die Lebenssituationen homosexueller Menschen in Deutschland und Europa wurden in der zweiten Hälfte des 20. mussten. Ausgehend von den Nachwirkungen der NS-Homosexuellenverfolgung in den Nachkriegsgesellschaften der Bundesrepublik Deutschland, der DDR und Österreichs, betrachtet dieser Band die Vielfalt von Repressionen nach 1945. Die thematische Breite reicht von der Ausgrenzung innerhalb der Kommunistischen Partei über die Kriminalisierung homosexueller Handlungen im Strafrecht und antilesbische Ausrichtungen im Familienrecht bis hin zur homophoben Diskriminierung innerhalb der Bundeswehr. Untersucht werden auch die Rolle der Kirchen als Seismographen sexueller Ausgrenzung oder
