Why Men Fall Out of Love - Michael French 2007

The groundbreaking book that breaks the silence of the male code. Why do men fall out of love? It's rarely a simple issue of attraction, sex, or money trouble. In this provocative no-holds-barred guide, Michael French brings unparalleled insight into the male psyche and reveals why so many men feel trapped, unhappy, or unfulfilled, and what women can do about it. Based on interviews with men from all ages and walks of life this grippingly honest book illustrates why, when it comes to relationships, so many men feel "outgunned and outmatched" by women. Discover: * The 4 relationship busters that lead couples to flounder and sink-the loss of intimacy / the quest for validation / the perfection impulse / the fading of attraction-and strategies for dealing with them head-on * Six key reasons why men fall out of love-from issues of identity, power, and fear to stereotypes about who they really are and what they want * The truth about men and (mis)communication-and ways for them to open up * Three questions a woman needs to ask a man before she becomes emotionally involved * The Relationship Audit-how couples can figure out what is driving them apart and find ways to mend their relationship By finally bringing men's true feelings to the surface, Michael French offers a dramatic new approach to understanding men and their hidden emotions. This guide illuminates the deeper reasons why men fall out of love and, more important, shows how relationships can be healed. "An impressive, insightful, and completely accessible view deep into the heart's of men and their struggle with love." -Joel D. Block, Ph.D., author of Naked Intimacy "Read this brilliant book and untie the knot of life- why does love fade?" -Susan Braudy, former editor of Ms. Magazine Secrets of "Men are from Mars, Women are from

Venus" - PAUL CARNEGIE 2019-11-25 Reading through the book Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus which was written by American author and relationship counselor John Gray, after he had earned degrees in meditation and taken a correspondence course in psychology. The book was published on January 1, 1992. It provides a practical and proven way for men and women to improve their communication by acknowledging the differences between their needs, desires, and behaviors. Absolutely, there is no other relationship guide on the market that will give you the same level of evidence-based insight sure to help you strengthen and nurture your relationships for years to come more than this book. In the book Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus, the author opines that most prevalent relationship challenges between men and women are as a result of fundamental psychological differences between the sexes, which the author demonstrates by means of its eponymous metaphor: that men and women are from separate planets, that is, men are from Mars while women are from Venus; and that each sex is wont to its own planet's society and customs, but not to those of the other. One example John Gray gave was that men's complaint that if they offer solutions to problems that women bring up in conversation, the women are not necessarily interested in solving those problems, but mainly want to discuss about them. The book avers each sex can be understood in terms of their unique ways they respond to stress and stressful situations. In the book, the author wrote: "When a man can listen to a woman's feelings without getting angry and frustrated, he gives her a wonderful gift. He makes it safe for her to express herself. The more she is able to express herself, the more she feels heard and understood, and the more she is able to give a man the loving trust, acceptance, appreciation, admiration, approval, and encouragement that he needs." This explains that when a man genuinely listens to the emotions of a woman by not being upset, he is showing her she is safe with him and understood as well. And she reciprocates this gesture with love, trust and encouragement a man needs. Likewise, when he stated that, "Men are motivated when they feel needed while women are motivated when they feel cherished." This is just the basic fact of a successful relationship or marriage by the author. In the world of many self-help books we are, there are very few titles that can be compared with the popularity of John Gray's Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus. Interestingly, when this title was first published in 1992, it not only helped educate countless men and women from around the globe, but it managed to nestle its way into popular culture and become an instant classic. In spite of the fun, metaphoric and catchy title, this book essentially tackles a very serious relationship issues in many male or female relationships we have today -which can be said to be a lack of effective communication. In lieu of focusing blame on one person or one gender, this book dives into some of the inherent differences between the way males and females communicate. As it is a well known fact that communication is one of the most central factors in finding the right balance, genuine love and loyalty in a long term relationship. Well, based on the concept that men and women are living on different “planets,” this book helps to not only identify these differences for the opposing gender, but to offer solutions on how both men and women can meet in the middle to have better, more productive communication strategies. The author deliberately lays big emphasis placed on love - since it is a relationship advice book. One of the biggest takeaways about love from the book actually has nothing to do with talking, it is all about showing. This is one of the biggest keys to keeping the love alive in long-term relationships. This is a very important lesson to note throughout the book, Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus, as communication isn't always about talking or telling someone something, it is often about showing them or using non-verbal communication in order to get your message across. According to Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus, men will give and give until they are pleased with what they have done. This can be with emotions, money, effort, work, or physical objects. However, women will typically give with the hope that the man will return the gesture. This is where a lot of disconnect can happen. Now, let's take a vivid look at where communication falls short. Where communication falls short Both man and woman may feel as though they are doing everything they can to show their love and that they are giving love the way they want to receive it. But, the opposing party may not recognize this, and may actually think that their partner is not showing love at all. This is one tip that both men and women should keep in the back of their minds as they continue to take John Gray's relationship advice, as many communication disconnects or crumbles, it may actually stem from this one major issue. If both parties can understand that the other partner simply has a different interpretation of what it means to show and give love, they can move forward. To cap it all, everyone has a different love language. How To Improve Communication In A Relationship There are so many little things that men and women can both do in order to improve their communication lines, yet one of the classic disconnects between these two genders often comes when women are not as direct with men while communicating. There is an old story about men and women communicating that perfectly depict how this lack of directness can cause misunderstandings. A man and a woman are driving down the street. The woman points at the ice cream store and says "look! The ice cream store is open." The man says "Yes, it is," and keeps driving. Later that evening, the woman is upset and asks "Why didn't you stop for ice cream when I asked?" The man is confused and says, "I never heard you ask to stop for ice cream." It may be either small or inconsequential example, but it is one that many people in male or female relationships can relate to. What went wrong? Both parties thought they said and heard different things in the same conversation. This is one of the reasons why communication tends to be more effective when women are more direct. According to John Gray, if a woman wants to go do something with a man, she shouldn't just ask him what he wants to do. She should, instead, tell him what she wants to do, and then ask him to join. This is an instance of direct communication that doesn't blur the lines and allows both parties to communicate more clearly. How to make communication work The following scenario was suggested by: - The woman gives the man three options of what she wants to do on a date, a week in advance. - The man gets to decide, but doesn't tell the woman until the date happens. - This allows the woman to anticipate the date all week, while the man gets to feel as though he made a decision, while still receiving clear communication on what types of dates the woman wanted to go on. It may sound like a lot of work, but the key is to start with direct communication on the woman's part. It can open up new doorways to successful interaction that both parties may have never thought were possible. In addition, emotions have great impact as regards how we communicate. They can entice us to say certain things, hold different things in, or even respond in ways we may have never thought we would. Emotions can also alter our body language and the way we give off signals to one another, even when we don't realize we are doing it. Yes, it can be safe to state that women's emotions go up and down and have really high-highs and really low-lows. In general, women's emotions tend to fluctuate more than men's do. Men tend to be a bit steadier with their emotions, which can be both positive and negative. While they may not have as deep of a dive into depression, they may also not experience as high of a high when they are happy. All this now depends on how each sex processes "alone time." As well, men are much more prone to want alone time when they feel scared or uncomfortable. Men need to be left alone where they feel safe. It scientifically helps them to build up their testosterone and think more clearly. If given the time to retreat to his safe space, a man will come out of this "alone time" once he has handled the problem internally and finally. On the other hand, a woman may feel better by talking it out. She may not understand why her male partner wants to spend time alone processing the issue. Allowing women and men to process emotions in a way that is comfortable and natural to them is an essential component to keeping communications lines free and open. You Should Learn To Show Appreciation So much of Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus is about the differences between men and women, but there is one big similarity between men and women in relationships—showing understanding is key. Men and women are different. They are different physically, biologically, emotionally, almost in every way. Yet, the reason so many of these relationships can work out in the end is because these differences provide a balance. You just need to find that balance. Get to know your partner more intimately If you sincerely take the time to really get to understand your partner, it can go a long way in helping them feel loved, valued, and appreciated. Men and women are different, and it is important to accept and understand this. You may be speaking different languages, but if you take the time to really talk to your partner and attempt to understand the place they are coming from it can speak volumes. For instance, take the time to do things like ask questions, put yourself in the other person's shoes, or even read relationship advice books, like Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus, to show the other person that you want to understand them better because you appreciate who they are and that you want to communicate more clearly and effectively. Mind you, this can help restore energy in your romantic relationship so that you and your partner can continue to keep your relationship as healthy as possible.

How to Become the Man Every Woman

Wants - Tatyana Jacques 2013-12

Why do some men find it easy to succeed with women...while others don't? What is the distinguishing feature between these two types of men? Individual differences...every man is attractive to specific women. Both men and women who might be considered unattractive to the average person succeed in attracting and winning highly desirable mates every day, everywhere. Your own experiences may suggest many such cases. Taste and preference in love is infinite. However, there is something in certain men that acts as a magnet in attracting different women! I have two pieces of news for you: one piece of news is good and the other is even better. 1. Good men are constantly in demand. Statistics show that for every single man there are several available women. In some countries there are ten or twenty available women to every single man. In reality women have to fight to get a good man. They have serious competition to win the heart of an eligible bachelor. 2. Age is no barrier. In comparison to their female counterparts, men in their later years who are of good character are much sought after. A good man can get a woman in any age group. Unfortunately, women fade quicker than men do. Often, their looks as well as their figure-shape diminish with age. How many books have been written on how to get or seduce a woman quickly? Many hundreds I would imagine-but what a waste of time! The secret formula for a successful man in the dating world is to become that good, attractive and desirable man. So, Let's Decode this Formula. Every woman likes good qualities in a man's personality, including confidence, honesty, power, generosity, as well as being resourceful and masculine. Also a sense of humor, the ability to lead with a combination of gentleness and kindness, and the ability to love and demonstrate commitment—yes, commitment will attract most women. Even contemporary professional or businesswomen who have focused on their careers throughout their lives want love and devotion. As evidenced in the movie Sex and the City, here is a good example of how, eventually, even "loose" women would have only one man in their lives, to be loved and be faithful to him alone. In addition, it is important to understand what a woman needs from a relationship, and what she values in a male. What qualities attract her to particular men, and what standards does she have? What does a man need to do to be delicately attuned to her ideals? One important element for any happy relationship (when a man chooses a woman) is that looks count, but his personality is what makes the woman stick around. The reality of attraction is finding out what works with different women. What draws women to a particular man and why do they choose to create a relationship with him? Another criteria for successful outcomes in dating for men is an ability to understand what qualities he is looking for in a woman when developing a relationship, and what level of commitment each party is prepared to invest in the relationship. Invest? Yes, creating a healthy relationship takes time, energy, affection, emotions, feelings and other resources. Some people fall in love many times throughout their lives. They become attracted to the opposite sex initially through appearance, but over time, they develop a loving relationship based on qualities of character and personality as well as values. Despite the fact that we all have our preferences when trying to attract the opposite sex, you have to remember, it is a male's personality and character traits that draw women like a magnet. Even money or a handsome appearance cannot help to build a good relationship with a desirable woman if the man is abusive, mean, or unfaithful. To become effective in dating, you may need to learn new behavior skills and develop a new attitude that will catch the attention of desirable women. By knowing the fundamental principles of what attracts females, you can then focus on becoming an attractive male yourself relationship with a handsome young man who is just a year younger than me but so much wisdom he could teach a teacher; still pursuing my Doctorate Degree in Business, and building a company from the ground up; has definitely put my life in the fast lane. The inspiration to my book was having seen male friends of mine who are battling their own love lives and or the family. I wanted to create a book to help guide them in a path where they too can understand where we women are coming from when we ask them a million and one questions about relationships and family. So in my book To Have, To Hold, and To Never Let Go, I am letting men know the inner thoughts and acts of women and show how we are not that much different from you guys in the sense of commitment. The same thoughts you men have us women have too; we just go about them a little differently. So in this book allow these chapters to guide you men on how To Have a Woman, Hold a Woman, and To Never Let Her Go.

The 7 Irresistible Qualities Men Want in a Woman - Bruce Bryans 2013-11-26 Discover What Quality Men Secretly Look For When Choosing "The One" A high-quality man who knows what he wants will NOT settle for just any woman to build a meaningful relationship with. Men like this want a woman who exudes high character. And though she may be beautiful on the outside, he expects her inner worth to be far superior to the women around her. Once a woman passes a man's "physical appearance" test that is specific to his personal tastes, it's her inner value (or lack thereof) that will either lose or keep his interest in her. Learning how to keep a man interested in you is as simple as figuring out what men want when it comes to choosing a partner for a long-term relationship. Sadly, many women either disqualify themselves from relationships with phenomenal men or they only seem to attract losers, players, and time-wasters because they failed to develop the inner qualities great guys actively look for in a potential wife or girlfriend. a relationship. Because of this, many women only learn how to understand men after painful trial and error or by fighting to get a man to open up emotionally. When a WoMan is Fedup - Ralston O'Connor 2010-05

According to a female friend of mine "show me a woman in her early 40's or younger who has never been married, and says that she does not want to get married and I will show you a liar." Unfortunately many of these women are in what they think are dead end relationships. These women are characterized as bitter and angry because of their relationship situations. This book will give you some insight into the habits you develop, things you do, and attitude that you portray that will only give the man in your life a serious moment of pause when the discussion of marriage arises. Admittedly the issues presented are from a decidedly male point of view, but the author believes that it was important that women got a clear idea into how the male mind works.

The Angry Therapist - John Kim 2017-04-18 Tackling relationships, career, and family issues, John Kim, LMFT, thinks of himself as a life-styledesigner, not a therapist. His radical new approach, that he sometimes calls "self-help in a shot glass" is easy, real, and to the point. He helps people make changes to their lives so that personal growth happens organically, just by living. Let's face it, therapy is a luxury. Few of us have the time or money to devote to going to an office every week. With anecdotes illustrating principles in action (in relatable and sometimes irreverent fashion) and stand-alone practices and exercises, Kim gives readers the tools and directions to focus on what's right with them instead of what's wrong. When John Kim was going through the end of a relationship, he began blogging as The Angry Therapist, documenting his personal journey post-divorce. Traditional therapists avoid transparency, but Kim preferred the language of "me too" as opposed to "you should." He blogged about his own shortcomings, revelations, views on relationships, and the world. He spoke a different therapeutic language —open, raw, and at times subversive — and people responded. The Angry Therapist blog, that inspired this book, has been featured in The Atlantic Monthly and on NPR.
