2020-11-03

The book determines about the experiences one can face or have already faced in their 'love life'. It has been allotted into three phases which pretty much sums up all about How you sense or perceive when someone has fallen for you, when you two fall for each other and also when you fall for someone. How to Fall in Love with Anyone - Mandy Len Catron
2018-02-01

In 2014, 33-year-old Mandy Len Catron went on a date with an acquaintance. They decided to try an experiment: inspired by a study designed to create romantic feelings, Mandy and Mark spent the evening asking each other 36 increasingly intimate questions, wondering if it would lead to them falling in love. In How to Fall in Love with Anyone, this experiment is Catron's starting point for investigating what it means to love someone and to be loved, and how we present our love to the world. What makes love last? Can love ever work the way it seems to in films, books and social media? Is there a "right" way to fall in love? In these candid, charming and wise essays, Catron blends memoir with cultural and social commentary on the psychology, biology, history and literature of love. How to Fall in Love with Anyone is a deeply personal, yet universal investigation into the one thing we all want—or think we want—more than anything. Includes “To Fall in Love with Anyone, Do This”, one of the most popular essays to appear in the New York Times’ “Modern Love” column “In our age of total romantic confusion, Mandy Len Catron is a voice of good sense, warm humor, and consoling wisdom. Through the lens of her own relationships, she teaches us—with a deft, convincing intelligence—some of the vital moves in the art of love.” —Alain de Botton, internationally bestselling author of How Proust Can Change Your Life and The Course of Love MANDY LEN CATRON lives in Vancouver, British Columbia. Her writing has appeared in the New York Times and the Washington Post. She writes about love and love stories at The Love Story Project, and teaches English and creative writing at the University of British Columbia.

To my crush - Brendon Thutso
2019-10-15

This book is a concoction of the poet's thoughts on a person they have an unquenchable crush on. The poet is not a very direct person and uses metaphors, riddles, and many other language tricks to embody what they intend to say. In the poem, "The Dream", the poet talks about watching the earth flood as he sits at the brink of the cumulonimbus, but as he continues through the poem it unravels to the reader that the poet is not talking about the real flood or cumulonimbus, instead the poet uses all those meteorological terms as a way to censor their language. In many other poems like "imagine", the poet expresses their love and admiration for their crush and the things they wish they could do together.

Get the Guy - Matthew Hussey

In this book, Matthew Hussey - the world's leading relationship coach and New York Times bestselling author - offers advice on how to find your ideal partner - and, importantly, how to keep them. Using simple steps, Matthew guides us through the complex maze of dating and shows just how to find the right man, get the right man and keep the wrong person, and when to commit to the right one. But our brains often get in the way. We make poor decisions, which thwart us on our quest to find lasting love. Drawing from years of research, behavioral scientist turned dating coach Logan Ury reveals the hidden forces that cause those mistakes. But awareness on its own doesn't lead to results. You have to actually change your behavior. Ury shows you how. This "simple-to-use guide" (Lori Gottlieb, New York Times bestselling author of Maybe You Should Talk to Someone) focuses on a different decision in each chapter, incorporating insights from behavioral science, original research, and real-life stories. You'll learn: - What's holding you back in dating (and how to break the pattern) -What really matters in a long-term partner (and what really doesn't) -How to overcome the perils of online dating (and make the apps work for you) -How to meet more people in real life (while doing activities you love) -How to make dates fun again (so they stop feeling like job interviews) -Why "the spark" is a myth (but you'll find love anyway) This "data-driven" (Time), step-by-step guide to relationships, complete with hands-on exercises, is designed to transform your life. How to Not Die Alone will help you find, build, and keep the relationship of your dreams. Even after so many years, I still can feel the warmth of the sand on my feet. It was July 2007, and as soon as I came out of the bus, I ran straight towards my home, just to glimpse at my mother's face. I had waited for many years for that day as I was going to live with my mother. With heart and mind, full of dreams and expectations, I stepped into a new phase of my life, but I had no idea that destiny had other plans for me.
