Meeting Your Match Online - Tamsen Butler 2009

Recent studies show that more than 20 million people will visit at least one online dating service a month. Internet dating has several advantages, among them the ability to discover everything about a potential partner before ever meeting them. You can learn their age, religious affiliations, education, expectations, interests, hobbies, and so on. Internet dating allows you to chat online and get to know someone before meeting them. There is also the ability to meet people on a varied schedule you do not have to meet them face-to-face right away. Other advantages include protection of your personal identity, the exchange of photos, the ability to be yourself, less cost, and the ability to search by sexual or ethnic preference, all of which will increase the chances of finding that special someone. Aside from the many advantages, online dating has disadvantages as well. For example, you could be starting an online relationship with someone who, in actuality, does not look like they do in their photos or their personality is not as they described, it might have to be a long distance relationship, or they have a hidden criminal agenda. This is why you need the assistance of this groundbreaking new book that covers it all, allowing you to find the right partner and make your online dates safe and secure. The book features many available online dating services, such as PerfectMatch, which employs a scientific method to locate matches. eHarmony has a compatibility system that only pairs you with compatible singles. Yahoo Personals helps you choose from thousands of members to find singles in your area. True.com is likely the only dating site that checks new members for criminal activity and marriage history. Match.com guarantees you will meet someone special within six months or they will extend your membership by six months at no cost to you. Also detailed are AmericanSingles.com, FriendFinder.com, Metrodate.com, Lavalife.com, Date.com, JDate.com, Great Expectations at GE-Dating.com and Chemistry.com. Also included are true stories from couples and singles who have been through the online dating process and have found it either worked or didn't work for them. Women Who Win at Love - Suzanne Venker 2019-10-08

Do you ever ask yourself why dating has become so damn hard? Do you wonder what makes some marriages last and others fall apart? Is your marriage struggling despite your best efforts to keep it together? Women who win at love don't have a gift you don't have. What makes them unique, explain author and relationship coach Suzanne Venker and anthropology professor John M. Townsend, Ph.D., is that they aren't at war with the men in their lives. Women who win at love reject the concept of sexual equality and embrace male and female nature instead.

Whether you're still single and mapping out your life, or you're divorced or unhappily married, Women Who Win at Love will permanently alter the way you view men and marriage, thus leading to your success in love. But you must be willing to step outside your comfort zone and accept countercultural truths. If you can do that, you've found the key. You know how to win at almost everything else. Isn't it time for you to win at love? In Women Who Win at Love, you will learn:

- the eight dating rules that lead to marriage
- why super successful women struggle in love
- what men want and what women want (hint: they're not the same)
- why love is not a reason to get married
- how to avoid the green grass syndrome
- why acting like a man lands women in a ditch

Secrets of "Men are from Mars, Women are from Venus" - PAUL CARNEGIE 2019-11-25

Reading through the book Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus which was written by American author and relationship counselor John Gray, after he had earned degrees in meditation and taken a correspondence course in psychology. The book was published on January 1, 1992. It provides a practical and proven way for men and women to improve their communication by acknowledging the differences between their needs, desires, and behaviors. Absolutely, there is no other relationship guide on the market that will give you the same level of evidence-based insight sure to help you strengthen and nurture your relationships for years to come more than this book. In the book Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus, the author opines that most prevalent relationship challenges between men and women are as a result of fundamental psychological differences between the sexes, which the author demonstrates by means of its eponymous metaphor: that men and women are from separate planets, that is, men are from Mars while women are from Venus; and that each sex is wont to its own planet's society and customs, but not to those of the other. One example John Gray gave was that men's complaint that if they offer solutions to problems that women bring up in conversation, the women are not necessarily interested in solving those problems, but mainly want to discuss about them. The book avers each sex can be understood in terms of their unique ways they respond to stress and stressful situations. In the book, the author wrote: "When a man can listen to a woman's feelings without getting angry and frustrated, he gives her a wonderful gift. He makes it safe for her to express herself. The more she is able to express herself, the more she feels heard and understood, and the more she is able to give a man the loving trust, acceptance, appreciation, admiration, approval, and encouragement that he needs." This explains that when a man genuinely listens to the emotions of a woman by not being upset, he is showing her she is safe with him and understood as well. And she reciprocates this gesture with love, trust and encouragement a man needs. Likewise, when he stated that, "Men are motivated when they feel needed while women are motivated when they feel cherished." This is just the basic fact of a successful relationship or marriage by the author. In the world of many self-help books we are, there are very few titles that can be compared with the popularity of John Gray's Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus. Interestingly, when this title was first published in 1992, it not only helped educate countless men and women from around the globe, but it managed to nestle its way into popular culture and become an instant classic. In spite of the fun, metaphoric and catchy title, this book essentially tackles a very serious relationship issues in many male or female relationships we have today -which can be said to be a lack of effective communication. In lieu of focusing blame on one person or one gender, this book dives into some of the inherent differences between the way males and females communicate. As it is a well known fact that communication is one of the most central factors in finding the right balance, genuine love and loyalty in a long term relationship. Well, based on the concept that men and women are living on different "planets," this book helps to not only identify these differences for the opposing gender, but to offer solutions on how both men and women can meet in the middle to have better, more productive communication strategies. The author deliberately lays big emphasis placed on love - since it is a relationship advice book. One of the biggest takeaways about love from the book actually has nothing to do with talking, it is all about showing. This is one of the biggest keys to keeping the love alive in long-term relationships. This is a very important lesson to note throughout the book, Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus, as communication isn't always about talking or telling someone something, it is often about showing them or using non-verbal communication in order to get your message across. According to Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus, men will give and give until they are pleased with what they have done. This can be with emotions, money, effort, work, or physical objects. However, women will typically give with the hope that the man will return the gesture. This is where a lot of disconnect can happen. Now, let's take a vivid look at where communication falls short. Where communication falls short Both man and woman may feel as though they are doing everything they can to show their love and that they are giving love the way they want to receive it. But, the opposing party may not recognize this, and may actually think that their partner is not showing love at all. This is one tip that both men and women should keep in the back of their minds as they continue to take John Gray's relationship advice, as many communication disconnects or crumbles, it may actually stem from this one major issue. If both parties can understand that the other partner simply has a different interpretation of what it means to show and give love, they can move forward. To cap it all, everyone has a different love language. How To Improve Communication In A Relationship There are so many little things that men and women can both do in order to improve their communication lines, yet one of the classic disconnects between these two genders often comes when women are not as direct with men while communicating. There is an old story about men and women communicating that perfectly depict how this lack of directness can cause misunderstandings. A man and a woman are driving down the street. The woman points at the ice cream store and says "look! The ice cream store is open." The man says "Yes, it is," and keeps driving. Later that evening, the woman is upset and asks "Why didn't you stop for ice cream when I asked?" The man is confused and says, "I never heard you ask to stop for ice cream." It may be either small or inconsequential example, but it is one that many people in male or female relationships can relate to. What went wrong? Both parties thought they said and heard different things in the same conversation. This is one of the reasons why communication tends to be more effective when women are more direct. According to John Gray, if a woman wants to go do something with a man, she shouldn't just ask him what he wants to do. She should, instead, tell him what she wants to do, and then ask him to join. This is an instance of direct communication that doesn't blur the lines and allows both parties to communicate more clearly. How to make communication work The following scenario was suggested by: - The woman gives the man three options of what she wants to do on a date, a week in advance. - The man gets to decide, but doesn't tell the woman until the date happens. - This allows the woman to anticipate the date all week, while the man gets to feel as though he made a decision, while still receiving clear communication on what types of dates the woman wanted to go on. It may sound like a lot of work, but the key is to start with direct communication on the woman's part. It can open up new doorways to successful interaction that both parties may have never thought were possible. In addition, emotions have great impact as regards how we communicate. They can entice us to say certain things, hold different things in, or even respond in ways we may have never thought we would. Emotions can also alter our body language and the way we give off signals to one another, even when we don't realize we are doing it. Yes, it can be safe to state that women's emotions go up and down and have really high-highs and really low-lows. In general, women's emotions tend to fluctuate more than men's do. Men tend to be a bit steadier with their emotions, which can be both positive and negative. While they may not have as deep of a dive into depression, they may also not experience as high of a high when they are happy. All this now depend on how each sex processes "alone time." As well, men are much more prone to want alone time when they feel scared or uncomfortable. Men need to be left alone where they feel safe. It scientifically helps them to build up their testosterone and think more clearly. If given the time to retreat to his safe space, a man will come out of this "alone time" once he has handled the problem internally and finally. On the other hand, a woman may feel better by talking it out. She may not understand why her male partner wants to spend time alone processing the issue. Allowing women and men to process emotions in a way that is comfortable and natural to them is an essential component to keeping communications lines free and open. You Should Learn To Show Appreciation So much of Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus is about the differences between men and women, but there is one big similarity between men and women in relationships—showing understanding is key. Men and women are different. They are different physically, biologically, emotionally, almost in every way. Yet, the reason so many of these relationships can work out in the end is because these differences provide a balance. You just need to find that balance. Get to know your partner more intimately If you sincerely take the time to really get to understand your partner, it can go a long way in helping them feel loved, valued, and appreciated. Men and women are different, and it is important to accept and understand this. You may be speaking different languages, but if you take the time to really talk to your partner and attempt to understand the place they are coming from it can speak volumes. For instance, take the time to do things like ask questions, put yourself in the other person's shoes, or even read relationship advice books, like Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus, to show the other person that you want to understand them better because you appreciate who they are and that you want to communicate more clearly and effectively. Mind you, this can help restore energy in your romantic relationship so that you and your partner can continue to keep your relationship as healthy as possible.

Why Men Fail Women & Why Women Fail Men: Relationships, Marriage and Sex - Miz Mzwakhe Tancredi 2020-07-14

Dating Deal Breakers That Drive Men Away - Bruce Bryans 2020-05-29

Discover the Most Common Dating "Red Flags" that Scare Good Men Away Commitment-ready, relationship-minded men have a low tolerance policy for any factor that might make a woman appear "unequipped" to take on a serious relationship. Just like the goodhearted women who want nothing more than to find the right man to love and someday build a life with, relationship-minded men want desperately to avoid falling in love with someone that could make their life a living hell. Because of this, guys like this are VERY discriminating when assessing a woman's long-term relationship potential. And they won't think twice about dismissing a woman once they realize she's not really "Girlfriend Material", and thus, not worth their time and attention. Relationship-minded men are less likely to waste a woman's time because their time is extremely precious to them. Because they value commitment, relationships, social and family ties very highly, they date with the intention of finding a woman they can someday build a life with. Discover the Hidden Factors Men Use to Determine if a Woman is Worth Dating As a man matures he becomes less trusting of a woman's physical beauty and charm. Instead, when evaluating her long-term relationship potential, he places greater attention on the quality of her personal character (or lack thereof), as well as those things that have a direct or indirect influence upon her character; such as the people, places, and things in her life. After a woman has passed a man's physical appearance test, he will gauge her level of chemistry with him (the way she makes him feel). And once a man realizes that he has a good enough amount of chemistry with a woman, over time he will slowly evaluate various aspects of her character in order to determine if she is, in fact, a woman worth dating for long-term love and perhaps even marriage. How to Avoid Chasing Men Away and Finally Get the Relationship You Want Because commitment-minded men are more likely to assess a woman's relationship potential based on her character rather than her physical appearance or interpersonal chemistry alone, this short and concise book focuses on the most common deal-breaking "red flags" that stem from a woman's character (as well as those things that affect her character). This book was designed to provide women with an inside look at how men think and what men want in a woman when they're ready for a serious relationship. In it, you're going to see things from a man's point of view, as you discover the various aspects about a woman's life and behavior that might force a man to lose interest in her and disappear without a trace. Here's what you're going to learn inside: The one area of your life that high-quality men are DEEPLY concerned about, and how they secretly use it to judge your character (or lack thereof). How to easily maintain a DEEP emotional connection to a man by avoiding one simple relationship mistake. (Hint: This is the one mistake many women unknowingly struggle with.) An irritating habit that causes high-quality men to stop pursuing a woman almost INSTANTLY. How to be a high-value woman in the MOST important area of a man's life and make him see you as potential "Wife Material." A "man-repelling" female attitude that DRIVES good men away, and pushes them into the arms of "lesser" women. How to avoid KILLING a man's natural desire to please you by giving him the one thing ALL men desperately crave but would NEVER ask for from a woman. And much, much more... Would You Like to Know More? Get started now and discover the most common relationship-killers that cause men to quickly lose interest, pull away, and disappear. The Hidden Lover - William July II 2007-12-18

The relationship coach returns, delivering straight talk on the bachelor mentality and how women can break through it. In his popular work advising troubled couples and singles, William July II has uncovered certain unmistakable truths about most men, particularly those who think of marriage as a form of torture. Moreover, he's discovered that women often try so hard to conquer their boyfriends' fears that they end up scaring them even more. Now, in The Hidden Lover, July delivers the kind of no-holds-barred dialogue that women and men should have but don't, covering hot topics like these: • Single, Successful, And Not Interested In Marriage! What's Up With That? • Why There is a Hidden Lover Inside Every Man. • Disappearing Acts: How Hidden Lovers Hide While In Relationships. • Women Who Frighten Away Potential Husbands. • I'm Not Superman: How Trying to Be Superman Can Affect a Relationship. Getting to the heart of commitment phobics and the women who fall in love with them, The Hidden Lover offers the kind of realistic, compassionate advice that thousands of not-so-swinging singles have been waiting for.

Women Don't Ask - Linda Babcock 2021-01-05

The groundbreaking classic that explores how women can and should negotiate for parity in their workplaces, homes, and beyond When Linda Babcock wanted to know why male graduate students were teaching their own courses while female students were always assigned as assistants, her dean said: "More men ask. The women just don't ask." Drawing on psychology, sociology, economics, and organizational behavior as well as dozens of interviews with men and women in different fields and at all stages in their careers, Women Don't Ask explores how our institutions, child-rearing practices, and implicit assumptions discourage women from asking for the opportunities and resources that they have earned and deserve—perpetuating inequalities that are fundamentally unfair and economically unsound. Women Don't Ask tells women how to ask, and why they should.

The Guyde - Howie Reith 2016-11-19

The Guyde is the most comprehensive men's dating and self-improvement book ever written, designed to be everything you need to transform into the most confident version of yourself. There are no lines or routines; instead you'll find exercises and information to improve your self-esteem, social skills, and other elements integral to social success. Everything in these pages is backed with scientific evidence, and when I say scientific evidence, I mean cited peer-reviewed literature, not pop evolutionary psychology or the "law of attraction." You won't be reading anecdotes telling you about my "successes" or opinions; you'll be learning the practical steps necessary for the specific changes you want to manifest in your life. The Guyde is divided into four sections: Part I - Psychology Part I focuses on the internal elements of social interaction. How do you overcome your toxic self-limiting beliefs that keep you from being authentic with people? How do you overcome your fears? How can you stay motivated to make your changes? You will learn clinically effective approaches to all of these and more. Part II - Social Skills For many men, the biggest barrier between themselves and social success is a lack of social skills and awareness. In Part II, you'll learn how to shore up this weakness. You will learn how to listen, banter, share stories, and assert yourself with others. You'll learn how to improve your body language and vocal tonality to project confidence and charisma. Part III - Physical Attractiveness Part III will teach you how to improve your physical features. The first two chapters detail the most clinically effective approaches to diet and exercise. We'll also discuss the basics of fashion and how to dress to impress. Master Part III, and when you go out, you will turn heads. Part IV - Dating The final portion of The Guyde deals with dating, in this version, in a heterosexual male context. You'll learn the best places to meet potential dates, how to flirt, and how to ask someone out. You'll learn how to plan brag-worthy romantic evenings and how to address problems like rude cancellations and "ghosting." You'll learn how to interact physically while being sensitive to your date's wishes, as well as how to perform better in bed. You'll learn why relationships fail and how to avoid the pitfalls most couples fall into, and you'll come to understand a bit about what it's like to date from a woman's perspective, including many of the cultural factors they face that most men don't understand. The Guyde is a labor of love. I wrote it to be everything I wish I'd known when I was younger, the sorts of things that turned my life around for the better. I hope it does the same for you.

When a WoMan is Fedup - Ralston O'Connor

2010-05

According to a female friend of mine "show me a woman in her early 40's or younger who has never been married, and says that she does not want to get married and I will show you a liar." Unfortunately many of these women are in what they think are dead end relationships. These women are characterized as bitter and angry because of their relationship situations. This book will give you some insight into the habits you develop, things you do, and attitude that you portray that will only give the man in your life a serious moment of pause when the discussion of marriage arises. Admittedly the issues presented are from a decidedly male point of view, but the author believes that it was important that women got a clear idea into how the male mind works.

Grievous Mistake Women Make that Cost Them Their Relationship Book 2 -

Precious Charles M N 2019-04-26

Have you ever been in a promising relationship that was going so well and suddenly it collapsed? You tried to know where you went wrong, what you did but he said nothing. While all might not be your fault but there are certain grievous mistakes that can shatter a beautiful relationship. I am not talking about the commonly known mistakes which breaks relationships, rather I am talking about those that you would never have guessed.Why, if you may ask? This is because to you it's not a threat to your relationship but to a man, it's a grievous mistake. How, you may ask? This is because men and women react differently to the same situations in a relationship. A woman responds with emotion but a man responds with logic.

This is why you can offend and hurt a man without even having the slightest clue. This is because you respond from different premise for decision making. The woman sees most things emotionally in the relationship but the man calculates the woman and responds to her logically.This is why I told you that the mistakes I am talking about are things outlandish to you. You might even say that you meant no harm or didn't even know. So, this book will show you and teach you how men calculate their women with logic. This is why most times it's the woman who walks out of the relationship heart broken and dejected without a clue where she went wrong.I once sat with a girl and she opened up about all her relationships and how she had been dumped painfully and severally. She was opening up to me from a view that she did nothing wrong. But as a man, I noticed she had done somethings things wrong without evening know. I couldn't even tell her because she was hyper emotional and was not open to a logical explanation. But me being the man knew that she had committed too many grievous mistakes emotionally without really knowing.When a woman commits a mistake, her man corrects her. But when she commits a grievous mistake, he says nothing and makes a drastic decision know to only himself. This book is an eye opener. You will see somethings you did, thinking that you were pleasing your man, but you were only killing your relationship.This book, will tell you things you do unconsciously that has broken or cost you your relationship without you even knowing. Only a man can tell you these mistakes and I have decided to be that man!This mistake will shock you; they are things you least expect it but they have destroyed many relationships and marriages.Enjoy and do share with people you love.Scroll up to purchase this book.
