But love will never be on the agenda for him again since his ex-fiancée, Hope Morgan, walked out of his life and fled Belmont three years ago—without so much as a reason why, along with any dreams Cole had of true love and happily ever after. But when Hope mysteriously returns, his whole world is turned upside down again. Can Cole ever forgive her? Hope Morgan has messed up in her life—really bad. She's fleeing from her past. A dark secret threatens to ruin her chances for a future of happiness with any man, but it is Cole Belmont she really wants. Hope returns to Belmont with her young daughter, but she still can't come clean about what she did many years earlier...lives could be ruined—including Cole's. Is it true that "all you need is love"? Can love keep Cole and Hope together and protect her from her dark past?

The Forever Letter - Elana Zaiman 2017-09-08

A forever letter is a gift that will be read over and over again Inspired by the centuries-old Jewish tradition of the ethical will, a forever letter is a perfect way to share your most precious possessions: your values, wisdom, and love with the people who matter to you most. And you don't have to do it alone. Through empowering stories, sample letters, and writing tips, author Elana Zaiman serves as your companion on this journey of self discovery and deepening relationships. Praise: "I love this little book because it's about writing real letters, a lost art in our time. Even more important, it's about writing letters that matter to people who matter to us. What could be better than putting words to paper to tell people who we are and what we are becoming, and what it is that we cherish and value—thanking them for the way they helped point us toward our own North Star?"—Parker J. Palmer, author of Let Your Life Speak and A Hidden Wholeness "Elana Zaiman has a mission: She loves connection, deep and personal, and wants others to experience the sweet joy she has lived of shared truth-telling.

Her forever letter embodies the passing on of wisdom, humbling experience, dreams, and love from one person to another. It is a beautiful concept that all of us should embrace."—Julie Schwartz Gottman, PhD, co-founder of the Gottman Institute and author of Ten Principles for Doing Effective Couples Therapy

Another Vagabond Lost to Love - Charlotte Eriksson 2015-05-18

A young writer's search for a place called home, what it means to be an artist, and finding peace with a restless heart. The follow up to Charlotte Eriksson's first book "Empty Roads & Broken Bottles; in search for The Great Perhaps", is the continued self-exploring quest of a young artist. Poetry, travel stories and journals that brings you in to this young girl's journey. -----
The journals and poetry explore the dreamer's fate of leaving and arriving, love and loss, and learning to go on on your own. It captures the city of Berlin, where I somehow ended up. The broken concrete, conversations with strangers, small moments of ache or clarity. The stories leads to the chapter of my Album Journals "Learning What It Means To Be An Artist," which is a series of journals and letters behind what came to be my second album "I Must Be Gone and Live, or Stay and Die". The album and this book go hand in hand and the lyrics and quotes blend into one another. The reader will find the book as a world of its own, and the listener of the album will find the musical world expanded into reality.

AGAPE: A Book of Love - HOWARD WEST
2016-12-25

When a person is under the influence of a drug like, let's say cocaine; an organic chemical called "dopamine" is produced in the person's Ventral Tegmental Region of the brain. The Ventral Tegmental Region of the brain is termed by psychology as the "Reward Center" of the brain. It is associated with our wants, focus, motivations, and cravings. Surprisingly, when a person is in love, the same dopamine is produced in the Ventral Tegmental Region or Reward Center of the brain. Thus, Internal Love (i.e. being in love) is considered by some as an invisible narcotic because; it acts on the same principle as drugs. This book will teach its reader how to break that cycle through in-depth discussion on the following: 1. What true love is 2. What relationships are all about 3. The difference between loving someone and being in love with someone 4. How to mature in love 5. How lovers can live together in a home of peace and harmony

Love Lost Forever - Mykala 2008-11

The book Democratic Imperialism serves as an educated, moderate Muslim's response to the West, particularly to the United States in the ways it attempts to impose its brand of democracy on the Muslim people. Many Americans have never been exposed to this perspective, either through the news media or in personal conversations. This book poses and clearly answers a compelling question: Are Americans qualified to export or impose their brand of democracy in the Middle East? Middle Easterners were once upon a time the pioneers of knowledge, science, justice, and education in their own history and civilization. Islam even helped pave the way for the Renaissance in Europe. Farid Younos, as a scholar of not only social sciences, but also the culture of the Middle East, namely Islam, argues that democracy in the land of Islam is not functional. The deeply rooted value system and way of life of Islam calls for a different system, especially when western democracy has its own problems and has failed to bring justice for all at home. Liberal democracy as a secular system negates the role of faith in the political system of the Middle East, and this negation is the main concern for many Muslims worldwide. The question arises as to why the United States of America tries to impose its brand of political system in the Middle East while knowing that it is not a workable idea. Democracy in Afghanistan and Iraq proved to be fatal. The first objective of any political system should be to bring peace for its people. Unfortunately not only is peace in these countries an elusive idea, but also the needs of the underprivileged, the destitute and the poor are not met. This study provides an alternative approach for Muslim countries: an Islamic political system from a fresh view point. An Islamic system could be an ideal system for Muslim countries if Muslims would make an effort to not only meet the needs of their people, but also meet the needs of the international community. The purpose, presumably, of all parties, is peace in the region, and that peace is not possible if Islamic economic, social and political ideas are ignored and replaced by a manifesto of globalization.

No Love Lost - Don Savant 2017-05-27

Everyone has loved and lost on their mission to find "the one". Some breakups are easy, yet some can be difficult and can leave you with a bitter taste in your mouth towards the process of finding love and the individuals that just don't seem to understand what love means, or just don't care who they hurt in the process of finding the one they want. Or in other cases, they've been hurt so badly that they aren't sure how to accept and treat someone when the love is there. No Love Lost is a poetic testimony and letters, if you will, to the ones that Don Savant has loved and lost.

Always and Forever - Soraya Lane 2016-07-26
Lisa and Matt can't believe their luck. They have a dream house and a dream marriage, and very soon they'll have a dream family too. But life is rarely that simple. When their beautiful life is rocked by tragedy, they are forced to make an unbearable choice. Suddenly the future they've built together looks fragile and exposed. With aching hearts and their love on the line, they set off on a road trip through the stunning Californian landscape, hoping that time--and distance from the life they thought perfect--will help them start again. Matt is desperate not to lose Lisa, but as they confront their grief in different ways, he may have lost her already. Where there is love there ought to be strength, but this love has been tested to its limits. Have they endured too much heartbreak for one couple to take? Or will a journey down memory lane put them back on the road to love, hope--and each other?
