Joy in Our Weakness - Marva J. Dawn

2002-07-08

Neither a commentary on the book of Revelation nor a devotional work -- though it offers aspects of both -- Joy in Our Weakness is instead a theological and practical guide that ushers readers into the very presence of Christ and His Lordship over the powers of evil. Marva Dawn writes compassionately for those who suffer, for this book was born out of her own struggles with physical limitations and chronic illness, and it is intended to help the whole Church learn how to find Joy in every circumstance of life, especially in trials and sufferings. After outlining some important foundational principles in three introductory chapters, Dawn guides readers through the whole book of Revelation, pointing out the errors of those who try to calendarize the end of the world and instead delineating how The Revelation reveals Christ's Lordship, exposes the workings of the powers, and sustains those who suffer until evil is ultimately defeated. Now thoroughly revised for a wider readership, Joy in Our Weakness highlights The Revelation's original purpose -- to comfort afflicted, suffering believers -- and spells out a biblically grounded "theology of weakness," offering a rare gift to the Church today. A wealth of insight and encouragement truly awaits the readers of these pages.

25 Questions You're Afraid to Ask About Love, Sex, and Intimacy - Juli Slattery 2015-09-22

Is ____ ok in the bedroom? If I'm single, how far is too far? How do I get past my shame?

Whether you are married or single, having great sex or no sex, your sexuality is inseparable from your spirituality. Sadly, most churches are silent on the subject. Dr. Juli Slattery is breaking the silence. In 25 Questions You're Afraid to Ask about Love, Sex, and Intimacy, she tackles the most common and critical questions women ask her about sexuality, like: What if I don't like sex? Can I be single and sexual? Is masturbation a sin? How do I make time to make love? What if I want sex more than my husband does? Candid, wise, and practically minded, Dr. Slattery addresses matters like sexual abuse, pornography, betrayal in marriage, intimacy in the bedroom, singleness, and more, calling women to think biblically about all areas of their sexuality. Find answers to your questions, liberation from your fears, and freedom to explore God's good gifts of love, sex, and intimacy.

members of the opposite sex? This full-color, bestselling, 12-panel pamphlet gets to the heart of what really matters by presenting 100 Things to Know When Dating, Important topics to consider and discuss include character, responsibility, Christian faith, honesty, motivation, habits, addictions, and danger areas, among others. 100 Things to Know When Dating includes preliminary counsel from Scripture, biblical advice on breaking up, encouragement after a break-up, and helpful Relationship Risk Quiz. Size: 8.5x 5.5 unfolds to 33 long. Fits inside most Bible covers. How can two people approach dating carefully and with respect for each other? By answering 100 questions outlined in this compelling pamphlet. The pamphlet is excellent tool for singles of all ages and provides information on several different levels, including: Basics--For example, Does this person still live at home? Why? Faith and character-- For example, Does this person do kind and loving things for others without being asked? Lifestyle--Does this person have odd opinions, poor manners, or trouble keeping friends? Personality traits--Do you find yourself apologizing for his/her behavior? Deeper issues-- Does he/she hold you down and tickle you when it is no longer fun? Dating is fun and exciting, but may have moments that are difficult and awkward. This informative pamphlet can help avoid the pain of incompatibility by offering preliminary questions and ideas to consider. One hundred questions form the bulk of the pamphlet, covering basic information; basics about faith and character; basics about lifestyle; personality traits; and deeper issues. Here is a sampling: How often does his/her family get together? Does this person get along with other people in his or her family? Does this person seem to have a vital relationship with God or does he or she just say religious things? (1 John 2: 3-6) Does he or she joke or brag about doing wrong things? (Proverbs 10: 23) Does this person flirt with others or treat you with respect? (1 Corinthians 13) Is he or she irritable, unforgiving, stubborn or looking for an opportunity to take revenge? (Matthew 5: 38-39) Does he or she talk about past relationships often? Is there anything about him or her you would not want your parents or friends to know? These questions encourage singles to consider what could become a more serious issue. Some questions offer scriptural answers or points to consider. For example, the question Is this person jealous about your time with friends and family? is followed by Proverbs 27: 4 as a point to ponder: Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy? The pamphlet also includes a section of recommendations with key Scripture verses for courtship and marriage, such as: Listen and Slow Down--James 1: 19, 20 My dear brothers, take note of this: everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, for man's anger does not bring about the righteous life that God desires. Other topics include: Breaking Up is Hard to Do gives wisdom and advice from the Word. Filling the Void After a Recent Breakup presents Bible verses with blanks that can be filled in, giving the reader a time of reflection in Scripture search. This is a tremendous resource for singles of all ages, and can serve as a basis for group discussions for teen and singles' ministries. Some couples use it as discussion topics to work through together. Other people think through the issues personally as a reality check. It's up to you.
