The Holy Wild - Danielle Dulsky 2018-08-10
Ode to Our Wild Feminine Souls This provocative book invites you to create your own spiritual path based on often-suppressed ancient principles and contemporary practices. Using the elements (earth, water, fire, air, ether) rather than traditional patriarchal hierarchies, this "holy book" is designed to connect each individual to their universal — but often denied — powers. Wild woman Danielle Dulsky takes you deep as she explores and embraces sacred feminine archetypes such as the Mother Goddess, the Crone, and the Maiden. Join her as she guides you to envision and explore a world that enriches and supports your spirit, body, and mind as well as our global community and the Earth.

Trieste Publishing has a massive catalogue of classic book titles. Our aim is to provide readers with the highest quality reproductions of fiction and non-fiction literature that has stood the test of time. The many thousands of books in our collection have been sourced from libraries and private collections around the world. The titles that Trieste Publishing has chosen to be part of the collection have been scanned to simulate the original. Our readers see the books the same way that their first readers did decades or a hundred or more years ago. Books from that period are often spoiled by imperfections that did not exist in the original. Imperfections could be in the form of blurred text, photographs, or missing pages. It is highly unlikely that this would occur with one of our books. Our extensive quality control ensures that the readers of Trieste Publishing's books will be delighted with their purchase. Our staff has thoroughly reviewed every page of all the books in the collection, repairing, or if necessary, rejecting titles that are not of the highest quality. This process ensures that the reader of one of Trieste Publishing's titles receives a volume that faithfully reproduces the original, and to the maximum degree possible, gives them the experience of owning the original work. We pride ourselves on not only creating a pathway to an extensive reservoir of books of the finest quality, but also providing value to every one of our readers. Generally, Trieste books are purchased singly - on demand, however they may also be purchased in bulk. Readers interested in bulk purchases are invited to contact us directly to enquire about our tailored bulk rates.

Life and Light for Heathen Women - 1872

The Heathen Woman - Annette Neumann
2014-10-24

The Heathen Woman is a straight forward work that discusses common themes in Heathen lore and history that are still very relevant in the lives of modern women. From discussions on ancient goddess cults, heroines, spirituality to the practice, The Heathen Woman not only offers personal insight on Heathenism today but also offers up more on the women and goddesses that established the limits of greatness in the Heathen Faith for us today. This book is in honor of our ancient mothers who have been denied their rightful reverence for far too long. This book is not just meant to empower women. It's a moment in time to let the women in our ancient blood lines shine and we are all better for that.

Gender, Religion, and the Heathen Lands - Maina Chawla Singh 2013-10-31

Seeking to extend existing scholarship on gender and colonialism and on women and American religion, this cross-cultural study examines the work of American missionary women in South Asia at several levels. A primary concern of the study is to historicize the interventions of these women and situate them within the dual contexts of the sending society and the receiving culture. It focuses on missionaries Isabella Thoburn and Ida Scudder, who founded some of the premier women's colleges and hospitals in British colonial India. The book also draws upon the narratives and reminiscences of South Asian women, now in their seventies, who attended such institutions in the 1940s, and whose voices texture our understanding of American women's missionary work in "Other" cultures.

Women in the Mission Field - John Telford 2015-07-19

Excerpt from Women in the Mission Field: Glimpses of Christian Women Among the Heathen No age since that of the apostles can point to so glorious a record of missionary heroism as this nineteenth century of ours. It has been the era of inventions that have revolutionised society. Steam and electricity have wrought marvels in binding together the nations and preparing the way for that brotherhood of man towards which Christ is leading the world. But whilst science and invention, discovery and travel have their heroic names, the mission field has names still more heroic. The men who have won the Church's victories in Africa, in Fiji, in Madagascar, challenge comparison with the apostles, and their successors in the first days of Christianity. What ever tribute we may pay to the missionaries who have gone forth to labour among the heathen must be shared by the noble band of women who have stood at their side, sharers of their peril and success.
