Marking Time (Treading Water Series, Book 2) - Marie Force 2011-11-27

Her life was torn down to the foundation. Rebuilding will take one small miracle at a time. “Marking Time” continues the story begun in “Treading Water” as Clare Harrington begins a new life. She’s considered a miracle, but everything that’s happened since she recovered from a three-year coma has been something less than miraculous. Now left to grapple with the aftermath of a selfless decision, she is home from the hospital and trying to figure out what the next chapter in her miraculous recovery has in store for her. Meanwhile, her eighteen-year-old daughter Kate, a talented singer and songwriter, sets out to pursue her musical dreams in Nashville. Her parents have agreed to allow Kate to spend a year there, but they couldn’t have anticipated Kate falling in love with a much older man. Her newly divorced parents are forced back together to confront their wayward daughter. Spanning from Newport, Rhode Island, to Nashville, Tennessee, to Stowe, Vermont, "Marking Time" is the story of new beginnings and new loves. Of "Treading Water," reviewers said: "Treading Water is a definite must read! Treading Water creates an emotional firestorm within the reader. It shines the light on the good and the bad in life and proves that one moment can change everything and it's never too late to find love. Marie Force grabbed my heart and squeezed every ounce of emotion out of it but most importantly her monumental story left me blissful. Treading Water may be fiction but it gives me hope; hope in everyday people and happily ever after. I cannot wait for the next book in this trilogy, Marking Time." —Joyfully Reviewed, a "Recommended Read" for November! "This isn't your typical romance where you're positive you're going to get the happy ending you were hoping for at the beginning. It will rip your heart out at times and having you weeping for joy at others. A stunning story about learning to love again and learning when to let go to those you love." —Night Owl Reviews, Reviewer Top Pick The Treading Water Series Book 1: Treading Water (Jack & Andi) Book 2: Marking Time (Clare & Aidan) Book 3: Starting Over (Brandon & Daphne) Book 4: Coming Home (Reid & Kate) Book 5: Finding Forever (Maggie & Brayden)

Seductive Scot - Julie Johnstone 2020-04-23

Reikart McCaim doesn’t want to be saved—despite the fact that he’s a time traveler from 2020 New Orleans stuck in medieval Scotland. He holds his jagged secrets close to his chest and wants to keep them that way. Even if he could open up to the incredible woman fate has tossed in his path, they’d both be shredded by the things he can’t let go of. Still, he needs her help. In his time, his father lies in a coma with only one wish: to see Reikart’s mother again, whom he’s always claimed was a time traveler pulled back to her true time. Two of Reikart’s brothers already traveled back to search for her, but they are missing, too. Now, Reikart must find his family and secure the magic cross they need to return to their time. And the lass who is everything he wants but cannot allow himself to have is the only one who can recover it. Deirdre Irvine’s life is a disaster, and it’s about to get a whole lot messier. She’s been betrayed by her brother, and she finds herself unwittingly embroiled in a plot to gain control of the Scottish throne. Not to mention she’s harboring enormous guilt over failing the sister she adores. So when the unexpected chance to prove herself to her sister arises, Deirdre will do anything to use the opportunity to her advantage. It doesn’t matter that it means putting herself in danger and joining forces with a man who claims he’s from the future. But she is woefully unprepared for the jeopardy he puts her heart in. For a scarred man and wounded lass, their greatest obstacle may not be the centuries that divide them, but the walls they’ve erected themselves. As Deirdre’s and Reikart’s lives intertwine and they’re confronted with dangerous enemies, she’s about to discover a strength she never knew she had, and he’s about to learn that facing his ghosts may be the only way to save not only himself but the woman he now loves.

Family Tree - Susan Wiggs 2018-01-09

From the #1 New York Times bestselling author comes a powerful, emotionally complex story of love, loss, the pain of the past—and the promise of the future. Sometimes the greatest dream starts with the smallest element. A single cell, joining with another. And then dividing. And just like that, the world changes. Annie Harlow knows how lucky she is. The producer of a popular television cooking show, she loves her handsome husband and the beautiful Los Angeles home they share. And now, she’s pregnant with their first child. But in an instant, her life is shattered. And when Annie awakes from a yearlong coma, she discovers that time isn’t the only thing she’s lost. Grieving and wounded, Annie retreats to her old family home in Switchback, Vermont, a maple farm generations old. There, surrounded by her free-spirited brother, their divorced mother, and four young nieces and nephews, Annie slowly emerges into a world she left behind years ago: the town where she grew up, the people she knew before, the high-school boyfriend turned judge. And with the discovery of a cookbook her grandmother wrote in the distant past, Annie unearths an age-old mystery that might prove the salvation of the family farm. Family Tree is the story of one woman’s triumph over betrayal, and how she eventually comes to terms with her past. It is the story of joys unrealized and opportunities regained. Complex, clear-eyed and big-hearted, funny, sad, and wise, it is a novel to cherish and to remember.

Featuring some of the hottest voices in YA literature, both bestselling and on the rise, Cornered includes works from Kirsten Miller (New York Times bestseller The Eternal Ones), Jennifer Brown (Hate List), Elizabeth Miles (Fury), Jaime Adoff (The Death of Jayson Porter), Lish McBride (Morris Award finalist Hold Me Closer, Necromancer), Matthue Roth (Losers), Sheba Karim (Skunk Girl), Kate Ellison (Butterfly Clues), Zeta Elliot (A Wish After Midnight), Josh Berk (The Dark Days of Hamburger Halpin), and James Lecesne (Absolute Brightness and founder of the Trevor Project).

The Greater Miracle: The Story Behind the Story - Steve Bottrill 2020-02-21

March 22, 1996, a car accident left me comatose and on life support, forcing my parents to make the impossible decision to disconnect the machine keeping me alive and donate my organs. I recall, with shocking clarity, my desperation to communicate that I still lived inside my paralyzed body. I felt the sharp prick of the needle as they prepared to harvest my organs. Even more significant than my journey from coma to recovery is the miracle God wrought in my prideful and stubborn heart. Before the accident, my life was on a trajectory typical to man. I desired comfort, pleasure, power, and the respect that accompanied wealth. I was an athlete, had a promising career ahead of me, and I was engaged to the girl of my dreams, but I didn't account for God. This is a story about shattered dreams and getting up again. It's about hidden pride and anger. It is about tragedy, pain, and how a man might plan his steps, but the Lord determines his path. The Greater Miracle is an intriguing blend of misfortune and hope that reveals a God who will do whatever it takes to capture the heart of his wandering child. Readers will connect with my anger toward God, my fierce determination, and my spiritual brokenness that worldly success couldn't heal. This compact book will appeal to those who need to hear there is hope in every struggle, who desire to learn from someone who has overcome, and who want to be inspired to do the same. The Greater Miracle is an 8730 word inspirational true story that fits in the inspirational-rue story categories and shares some similarities with Wrestling with an Angel: A Story of Love, Disability, and the Lessons of Grace by Greg Lucas. The Greater Miracle is short, challenging, and gospel-centered. It would rival Kindle Singles as an e-book or a Kindle Short Read. In six powerful chapters, I relive the car accident that changed my life and the impossible choice facing my parents (ch 1). I transparently speak of my pride and arrogance that refused to consider God's existence (ch 1), my second chance at life, my humble attempts at learning to pray, and common barriers to faith (ch 2), God's relentless pursuit of his people and how surrendering to God does not guarantee a change in circumstances (ch 3), longings the physical world cannot satisfy (ch 4), and the Lord's will for every believer ending with a call on the reader to respond (ch 5).

The Bully Patrol - David Roberts 2019-12-11

A humorous story of friendship and love, full of death, with serious topics like gay marriage, world peace and weight loss. The story begins on September 11, 2031 after another horrific bombing. It's a story about Don Sanchez who experienced a miraculous healing after a skateboard crash and massive brain injury. Now, Don's brain is so incredible he read the Bible one summer and understood the whole thing. He rejects the Christian label, because he doesn't want to align with the bullies of the world. Don's housemate and best friend is Fonu Ali, who started life as a strict Muslim. When Fonu was twelve, he witnessed his father get trampled to death during the Hajj pilgrimage to Mecca. Now, Fonu studies all religions. He especially studies what everyone is arguing about. Don's other housemate and best friend is an atheist named Dave, who has some brain damage from an accident that occurred ten years earlier. Dave needs more brain surgery, but he's getting better. Abe Seabrooke was formerly the fattest fundamentalist preacher in San Jose. Now, he's lost over one hundred pounds. He was extremely homophobic until he fell into a coma after extreme fasting. That's when he had his homophobic awakening. He awakened to the fact, he truly was a homophobe. Larry Cooley is a fifty-six-year old, mixed race shaven bald American. Larry bumped into Don while float meditating in the ocean. Larry seems mysteriously enlightened and joyful, and at the same time a little bit crazy. Donna Davis is a beautiful feisty girl with a big dark septum ring in her nose. She escaped from a psycho ward and had been living on the streets until Larry rescued her. Zola Jackson is a founding member of the weight loss cult started by Don and Fonu to raise money for Dave's brain surgeries. She's lost over forty pounds and looks great now. Dr. Gerry Long is Don, Fonu and Dave's Chinese African American flamboyant gay psychiatrist neighbor, who comes over for a beer with the boys. The religious right can be repulsive. Therefore, our culture is throwing out everything sacred. The argument is between the people at the top. Therefore, my argument is with the people at the top, not with the people. The people don't want war - trust me - the people want peace. The people at the top of governments, institutions, religions - you name it - all insist their rule book is the perfect one. And with the perfect interpretation in their heads, these people at the top teach others. They are the reason gay people get bullied. They are also the reason Muslim, Christian, Jewish and other religious people get bullied. These people at the top can't admit the possibility they might be 1% wrong about anything. That's why we can't have World Peace. It all started with the Jews - or was it God? The story written in the stars is what everyone is arguing about, specifically the end of the story. The problem is - people think they know it all - but they haven't even studied what everyone's arguing about. And that's why we can't have World Peace.

Preacher Raises the Dead - Gerald Everett Jones 2022-12-06

Third in the multiple-award-winning Evan Wycliff Mystery series. Guest preacher and part-time investigator Evan Wycliff reluctantly takes on the role of full-time minister and walks straight into more responsibility and trouble than he can handle. He attends to near-death experience, late-stage dementia, long-term coma, and consequences of the pandemic. His old nemesis investment banker Stuart Shackleton is back — and claims to be converted! Shackleton's money sustains a critical-care medical breakthrough, the building of a new church, and a career boost for Evan as a celebrity evangelist. Are these thrilling transformations part of a divine plan, or has Evan sold his soul? Praise for Preacher Finds a Corpse (Evan Wycliff #1) - Winner NYC Big Book Gold, IPA Silver, Eric Hoffer Finalist, NABE Pinnacle Best Mystery This is literature masquerading as a mystery. Carefully yet powerfully, Gerald Jones creates a small, stunning world in a tiny midwestern town, infusing each character with not just life but wit, charm, and occasionally menace. This is the kind of writing one expects from John Irving or Jane Smiley. - Marvin J. Wolf, author of the Rabbi Ben Mysteries, including A Scribe Dies in Brooklyn This is an excellent read. Such an engaging storyteller! It really sucked me in. That last page did cause a triple-take, quadruple-take, and whatever comes after, up to about eight. Jones is definitely one of my favorite authors. - John Rachel, author of Blinders Keepers and The Man Who Loved Too Much Jones manages to infuse a deceptively simple story with suspense, angst, and whimsy, as well as surprise. His command of setting, history, and behavior is beyond exceptional. I can't wait for the next book in the series. - Paula Berinstein, author of the Amanda Lester Detective series and host of "The Writing Show" podcast Praise for Preacher Fakes a Miracle (Evan Wycliff #2) - NYC Big Book Silver As anyone who's spent time in a small town the American Midwest knows, there's a lot more going on behind the scenes than you'd expect. Or suspect. And there are plenty of suspects in the latest Evan Wycliff mystery by Gerald Everett Jones. Preacher Fakes a Miracle haunted my dreams as I read it, in the way that a good story about a bad situation should. I'm looking forward to reading the next installment of the Evan Wycliff mystery series. - Pamela Jaye Smith, Mythworks, Award-Winning Writer-Director-Producer A fast-moving mystery with twists and surprises that take you in unexpected directions. Jones is adept at creating unique and fascinating characters. His mystery sleuth is a part-timer with lots of heart who splits his time between religion, skip tracing and sometimes the metaphysical. The hero's search for a missing girl and his interactions with various eccentric individuals in the small town make him both sympathetic and compelling. A bit of a shock to learn what's really going on with the abducted young unwed mother... and amazing how it relates to real stories in the news today. - M.J. Richards, Coauthor of Dishonor Thy Father
