Women in the Damascus Document - Cecilia Wassen 2005

"Women in the Damascus Document" offers a fresh look at the nature of the community reflected in the Damascus Document, one of the core documents of the Dead Sea Scrolls. By presenting a close and comprehensive study of the references to women and in-depth analyses of biblically based laws in the document, this work attempts to reconstruct the role of women and attitudes toward women within the community.

Highlighting the complex nature of the evidence, the author draws attention to a number of rules that reflect a favorable attitude toward women, but also to instances of a patriarchal stance, especially regarding sexuality. Carefully considering all the evidence, the author argues, in contrast to the opinions of many scholars, that women were full members in the community.

The Billionaire's Christmas Vows - Gina Robinson
2015-11-10

What do you get a billionaire for Christmas? No one is feeling the holiday stress more than I am. Six months pregnant, I'm "married" to Seattle billionaire Justin Green. But it's not real. We've never actually said our vows to each other. This year I want to surprise Jus with a real wedding. THE BILLIONAIRE'S CHRISTMAS VOWS is a fun, light standalone billionaire contemporary romance with a marriage of convenience trope and a happily-ever-after. This Christmas, all I want to give Justin is something money can't buy—Christmas Eve wedding vows complete with a legal marriage license. But that's easier said than done. Do you know how hard it is to find a state you can get married in, complete with a real marriage license, when you're theoretically already married? Adding to my stress, Justin is planning his own surprise. And I have the awful feeling it just might get in the way of mine... Grab your copy now!

What Mama Didn't Tell Ya - Jae J. LeBrou 2013-10-25

What Mama Didn't Tell Ya! (Relationship Advice for the Young and Young at Heart)
While it is envisioned the main readership will be female, this book will also appeal to a male audience in enabling them to seek guidance as to how to successfully address their own interactions with the world. It is a must read for young girls even before they enter their first relationship, women who are at various stages in the relationship 'world' as well as boys and men who are interested in finding out about themselves and their interactions with women. What Mama Didn't Tell Ya provides advice for young girls through to older women. The advice relates to emotional self-discovery and gaining an understanding of relationships. It is insightful and understands how difficult it is for young people to assimilate their understanding of what is going on in the world as well as with their own emotions. It encourages people to get to know themselves and establish their standards and boundaries in a way that will benefit their future relationships, not only romantic ones, but all relationships. Using straight-talking and uncomplicated language with references from music, poetry and comedy, the book brings the issues to life with examples of actual situations. This book aims to answer important questions and raise issues for people from all ages (above 16), genders, ethnicities, countries and walks of life. It provides a platform by which to gain insight into the interplay between childhood and adulthood, current and possible future relationship issues, personal safety and matters encompassing sexual health and intimacy. What Mama Didn't Tell Ya reads as a non-judgmental conversation with a friend, imparting knowledge with a witty but dry sense of humour whilst asking the reader to consider their own opinions on topics at particular stages. It does not seek to impose particular views, it rather gives the reader food for thought in how and why they handle relationships in the way they do in order that they can make their own informed choices for their future.

Christmas Duet - Gina Robinson 2016-10-24

[Colposcopy and Treatment of Cervical Precancer \[OP\]](#) - Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology Walter Prendiville 2017-06

This colposcopy manual was developed in the context of the cervical cancer screening research studies of the International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC) and the related technical support provided to national programs. It is thus a highly comprehensive manual, both for the training of new colposcopists and for the continuing education and reorientation of those who are more experienced. This manual offers a valuable learning resource, incorporating recent developments in the understanding of the etiology and pathogenesis of cervical intraepithelial neoplasia (CIN), as well as in colposcopy and cervical pathology. Expertise in performing satisfactory, safe, and accurate colposcopic examinations requires high competence in the technical, interpretive, and cognitive aspects, and the capability to develop pragmatic and effective management plans and treatment. This comprehensive and concise manual covers all these aspects and serves as a useful handbook for acquiring the necessary skills for the visual recognition and interpretation of colposcopic findings and for developing the personal and professional attributes required for competence in colposcopy.
